Dear Dr. Jonathan S. Cullick:

Thank you for changing a life with your recent contribution of $3,000.00 grant monies, to DCCH Center for Children and Families. Through your gift, you provide a safe home, food, clothing, education and therapy for children living at DCCH Center.

Children come to DCCH feeling alone and unloved. You make an enormous impact on their lives and show them someone does care.

Because of you, the kids at DCCH are safe, loved, and on their way to making lasting life changes. You give our children hope for a better tomorrow.

With gratitude,

Robert J. Wilson
Executive Director

Leave a lasting legacy. Please consider remembering DCCH in your estate planning.

Thank you so much for your generosity, particularly during these challenging times! BW

P.S. Please retain this letter for your tax records. In as much as no gifts or services have been received by you in consideration of this donation, its value is fully tax-deductible.

Joi Flowers-Thomas Dear Jonathan,

Nick Francis Teachers and students are navigating uncharted territory. The need for Anthony Glickhouse school supplies and educational materials continues - even if students are Colleen Haas not in the classroom.

William R. Harrod Thank you for the grant of $1,000.00 received on May 27, 2020 in support Genevieve Miller Holt of the Crayons for Kids Fund at Crayons to Computers.

Suzanne Kopcha The Crayons team is working to understand what the need looks like in this Laura Napolitano new, unprecedented world. For example, we've heard from schools that Joseph Rohs have depleted their supplies while sending materials home for virtual learning and have asked Crayons for more items. We have provided Nick Rosian 53 schools with supplies of 72 different items valued at more than $320,000. This could not have been accomplished without your support.

Erin Wisecup Our staff and board are committed to doing whatever we can for as long as we can to fulfill requests that come in and provide supplies to school communities. We expect the need for school supplies and educational materials to expand over the next few months as the economic ripple effects are fully realized and felt - regardless of whether students are in the classroom or not. As you know, many families in our community live on the edge of poverty, and an event like this can become the difference between barely making ends meet and financial disaster.
