Payment may be made in Procurement Services, Lucas Administrative Center room 617. Your receipt will be necessary for pickup of merchandise. Check or money order is the only acceptable payment. Purchases not removed from SURPLUS within seven calendar days of purchases will be considered abandoned and reallocated for sale. All sales are final as-is where-is with no warranties expressed or implied. There are no exchanges or refunds on furniture purchased.

"The Director of Purchasing, with the assistance of the buyer or others knowledgeable of the commodity, may establish a value for property, which is not sold by either public auction or sealed bid. After which the property may be sold on a first-come, first-served basis to the first person or company offering the established price at a public surplus property sale." NKU Administrative Regulation: AR-II-3.0-10(8).

Note: The authority for all determinations and judgments regarding the disposal, donation, or sale of surplus property are vested with the Director of Purchasing.
