

BLACK IN BLUE

Wednesday, February 16, 2022
Student Union 107 BC
6-8 p.m.

A moderated program to provide engaging and thought-provoking discussions on past, current and the future of law enforcement, as well as the perspective and experiences of Black police officers.

The panel will consist of six Black police officers from Northern Kentucky police departments.

A safe space to have authentic conversations concerning the perceptions and lived experiences of Black Police Officers.