Quick Tips for Interviews

- Invest in a conservative suit for interviews, usually in black, gray, brown, or navy
- Wear dark colored socks that match your suit with polished, leather shoes; dress flats and pumps are also appropriate
- Avoid excessive cologne or perfume and excessive make-up and jewelry
- Avoid brightly colored shirts and novelty ties
- Avoid casual clothing, such as shorts, t-shirts, tennis shoes, etc.
- Wear clothes that are clean and free of wrinkles
- Make sure necklines and hemlines are conservative and work appropriate
