

Are you ready to join a team that has quality embedded in its DNA?

MEDPACE IS HIRING!

A career opportunity within clinical research is a rewarding way to put your Life Sciences expertise to work, while performing an integral role in the research and development of drugs and devices. Medpace is a global, full-service Clinical Research Organization (CRO) and we are currently hiring candidates with advanced degrees in the Life Sciences for exciting careers in the clinical research field.

CLINICAL RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES

(Life Science degree required and advanced degree preferred)

Clinical Research Associate (CRA)

- Comprehensive training program that will provide you the resources and knowledge to monitor sites independently
- Must be willing to travel 60-80%
- Communicates with medical staff and clinical research physicians
- Work with world class research sites

Project Coordinator (PC)

- Partner with Clinical Trial Manager to coordinate daily study activities
- Central point of contact for internal and external team members
- Create and maintain project timeline

Regulatory Submissions Coordinator (RSC)

- Assist with the start-up of clinical research sites
- Collaborate with Institutional Review Boards (IRBs)
- Prepare regulatory documents, including Informed Consent Forms

Clinical Trial Manager (CTM)

- Postdoctoral Research or Healthcare research experience required
- Management of project timeline and all project deliverables
- Responsible for leading internal project team members

PUT YOUR ADVANCED DEGREE TO WORK AT MEDPACE

Our work is meaningful and our employees thrive in an environment with an important purpose.

- Provide hope for those living with debilitating diseases
- Join one of the global leaders in life-saving drug development and device
- Become part of a community dedicated to changing lives

Medpace has been recognized as a top workplace, below are a few reasons why:

- Competitive compensation and benefits programs
 - 401k match
 - Annual merit increases
 - Annual bonuses
 - Vacation time, paid holidays (plus floating holidays and sick time)
- Challenging, gratifying work
- Extensive career development opportunities
- Casual dress code
- Flexible work hours
- Access to fitness facility
- Free lunch