Part-time Nanny/Babysitter Needed in Covington

Brady Family

Job Description:

We are a two-parent working family located in Covington, about five minutes from downtown. We are searching for a part-time nanny to pick up our nine-year-old son up from his school in Covington and watch him in our home until we return from work in the evening.

This person needs reliable transportation, a clean driving record, and would be willing to drive our child to some occasional activities after school like speech therapy and soccer practice. Beyond those duties, we just need someone to supervise a little bit of homework and chores.

The ideal candidate is a college student with prior babysitting experience. We are looking for someone who is active and can meet the needs of a high-energy kid. Coordinating educational/outdoor activities would be highly encouraged (i.e. park, library, local museums). This is a great opportunity for a student interested in early education/child development. CPR/first aid certification is a plus and the family is willing to cover the costs for the course if the candidate is not certified. The home is non-smoking with two cats.

Schedule:

- Days: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday (and possibly Friday, depending on availability)
- Time: 3pm - 6pm (Mon/Tues/Thurs) and 2pm – 6pm (Fri)
- Start date: 3/19 with a paid “training” before that date to meet the child, walk through the duties, review home organization + rules, etc.
- End date: This schedule would run through the first week of June until school ends with the possibility of extended hours in the summer
- Benefits: One paid sick day and one paid vacation day; 4/9 - 4/13 off for child’s spring break; CPR/first aid certification covered by employer if needed

Pay:

- $10-$12 an hour (based upon experience); 9-13 hours weekly
- Reimbursement for mileage that exceeds to/from work location
