Save the date for Career Expo 2024

Career Expo is a two-day event this spring: business-focused opportunities on February 21 and STEM, nonprofit and government opportunities on February 22. Both events are 2-5 pm in the Student Union Ballroom. All students and majors are welcome!

Career fairs are great ways to make connections and talk to employers about what they're looking for. In the meantime, have your resume reviewed or prep for career fair conversations by scheduling a mock interview appointment.

Spotlight on a Major: Organizational Leadership

You can choose to major, minor or get a focus in Organizational Leadership. Not many people realize that NKU offers this type of degree, but there may be some hidden benefits to obtaining it.

Getting an Organizational Leadership degree will open up a wide range of job opportunities to you. Some types of jobs that an Organizational Leadership degree qualifies you for are project manager, marketing management, human resource and logistics positions. Having a degree like this will make you more valuable in a management position.

Some classes you will take while completing this major are Leading Social and Cultural Change (LDR 180) where you will examine the common threads of leadership in social and cultural movements between the local, national and global level. Also, Human Relations in Organizations (LDR 205) which explores a variety of intra- and interpersonal skill development like conflict resolution, motivation, ethical use of power and networking.
