

Intellectual Property Quiz Answer Key

1. Plagiarism is: (Choose all that apply)
  - A. Rearranging a few words from another source and using it as your own idea.
  - D. Copying a paragraph from an encyclopedia without citing the source.
  - E. Having another student write a paper which you present as your own original work.
2. Which of the following does NOT require original author credit? (Choose all that apply)
  - A. Common knowledge, e.g. George Washington was the first president of the U.S.
3. Paraphrasing is a legitimate way (with author credit) to borrow from a source when:
  - D. All of the choices above are utilized.
4. All of the following are ways to avoid plagiarism, except for:
  - A. Rearranging a few words from another source and using it as your own idea.
5. Copyright is literally the author's right to control their copy .
True
6. Anything you create is copyrighted the moment it is written, recorded, or copied.
True
7. Fair Use is a legal way to copy another author's copyrighted material without permission.
True
8. Choose all that may qualify as Fair Use for students classroom and personal use:
  - A. Copy limited portions of materials to support research and learning.
  - C. Copy one factual journal article for your notes to help prepare your research paper.
  - D. Copy a small portion of a subject related song to use in your audio/visual history presentation.
  - E. Copy all the drawings of Snow White, elves, and goblins found in a Grimm's Fairy Tales book from 1917.
9. All music and images on the web are available for unlimited copying without author permission.
False
10. A mash-up is: (Choose all that apply)
  - B. A transformative re-use of others' copyrighted works in a way which adds value and makes a new use.
  - D. Posting an advertised image of your favorite new car with commentary on your Social Networking webpage.
  - E. Mixing your original keyboard music recording with audio clips of other artists to create a new song.
11. Which of the following is NOT an intellectual property:
  - A. Smart property
12. Which are possible consequences of classroom plagiarism or copyright infringement?
  - E. All of the above.