Alabama Study Away:
Criminal Justice JUS 494

Once you have enrolled in JUS 494 for the spring semester, the travel portion of the course will occur over 5 days of spring break, where we will travel to Montgomery, Alabama. We will stop at the federal prison in Lexington, KY for a tour on our way to Alabama. Once in Montgomery, students will have the opportunity to visit the National Legacy Museum: From Enslavement to Mass Incarceration along with the National Memorial for Peace and Justice, which focuses on the legacy of lynching in the US. We will also drive to Selma, which is 50 miles away for a day trip to visit the Edmund Pettus Bridge and travel the path the protesters took to the capitol in Montgomery as they fought for the passage of the Voting Rights Act.
