EMB 495

This 3 credit course includes a visit to Los Andes Nature Reserve on the slopes of the Atitlan volcano and the Tikal National Park located in the Maya Biosphere Reserve in Guatemala. Classwork will focus upon exploring the history and culture of Guatemala, foundational documentary storytelling theory, and basic camera and editing skills. Students will work with the community of Los Andes and historians from Tikal on a variety of documentary style projects, including the original efforts in mapping the ancient Mayan city of Tikal. These are open enrollment classes – students from any disciplines are welcome.

MAY 7-19, 2018

Scholarships available!
studyabroad.nku.edu

CONTACT:

Professor Tracy Songer
songert1@nku.edu
GH 438/859-572-6489

Professor Sara Drabik
drabiks1@nku.edu
GH 559/859-572-6575

Office of Education Abroad
Michelle Melish
melishm1@nku.edu
UC 330/859-572-6194