

Racial and Ethnic Diversity Perspective on College Student's Housing and Student Success

Center for Teaching and Learning
January 18, 2022

Tuesday, January 18 2:00 – 3:00pm

More info on our website:

<https://www.nku.edu/teachinglearning.html>

Zoom link: <https://nku.zoom.us/j/96916380808>

Moderator Biography

Suk-hee Kim, Ph.D., COI, MSW, is an Associate Professor & Academic Affairs Diversity Faculty Fellow (selected) in the College of Health and Human Services' School of Social Work at Northern Kentucky University. Dr. Kim's a Principal Investigator for the e-Learning to Advance Racial and Ethnic Diversity Friendly University Initiative .

Speaker Biography: Michelle Bullis

Michelle Bullis is a graduate of Brescia University and licensed Social Worker Michelle has nearly 20 years of experience working and advocating for individuals, youth and families. With a background in adolescent mental health, family crisis intervention, substance use and community-based services for youth and young adults. She is an experienced Social Worker with a demonstrated history of working in the individual, adolescent, and family services industry both as a direct service provider and program coordinator. The foundation believes that when youth are given supports, opportunities, and a safe place their potential for success is unlimited drives her passion for youth and young adult work. Michelle has worked in the Northern Kentucky Community at Brighton Center for the past 15 years, currently serving as the Senior Coordinator for Brighton Center Youth Services Department, overseeing several youth programs including Youth Leadership Development, Street Outreach and Opportunity House.

Speaker Biography: Talia Frye

Talia Frye is Vice President at Brighton Center which is a private non-profit communitybased organization providing a uniquely comprehensive range of programs and services to achieve its mission of creating opportunities for families to reach self-sufficiency in the Greater Cincinnati region. Talia has over 19 years of experience in building pathways to economic prosperity for individuals, families, and youth through Workforce Development, Family Development, and Youth Development. This has included the development and/or advancement of best practice models such as the Center for Employment Training, Family Development, FamilyCentered Coaching, and Financial Opportunity Center. Talia has worked to create a service continuum for families that builds on strengths and offers a pathway out of poverty in order for them to reach their hopes and dreams. Talia is a proud alumnus of Northern Kentucky University.

