

What is Your Race? (Part II)

- ❖ Session (PART II): The United States divides its 330 million people into five core racial and two ethnic categories. Where did these labels come from? In the March 24 webinar, we considered the labels American Indian, Black, and White. In this webinar (Part II), we consider how the labels, Asian, Hispanic and Native Hawaiian-Other Pacific Islanders came to be.
- ❖ Presentation by: Mourning the Creation of Racial Categories (MCRC)
- ❖ When: Friday, April 22, 12:15PM-1:30PM
- ❖ Where: <https://nku.zoom.us/j/99725703406>

This is presentation by the Mourning the Creation of Racial Categories (MCRC) Project. MCRC founded in 2016, brings a unique lens to the national dialogue and conversation surrounding race. Since its founding the MCRC Project has brought together more than 100 creative, performing and visual artists to tell the stories of how people in the United States were (and still are) broken apart into unequally-valued racial categories. The MCRC Project is a collaborative project facilitated by sociologists Joan Ferrante and Lynnissa Hillman.
