

Teaching Requirements and Pay Scale for UNV 101 Instructors

New Instructors	First time	$1,400
Continuing Instructors	2 nd and 3 rd time	$1,600
Continuing Instructors	4 th time and longer	$1,800
Continuing Instructors	10 th time and longer	$2,200
Co-Teaching (two qualified instructors teaching the same section)		Half the designated pay for each instructor
Veteran Instructor Mentoring a New Instructor (per the request of First Year Programs)		Full pay for Veteran Instructor, Half pay for New Instructor

Additional Pay as Follows:

Learning Community Sections	Instructors collaborate with Learning Community Partners	+$200
Mentoring a TA	UNV 101 who recruit and mentor a TA in their UNV 101 class and complete all required training, paperwork and evaluations	+$200

Teaching Requirements for New Instructors:

- Earned Master’s degree from an accredited program.
- Current resume/vita, official Masters transcript and Application to Teach submitted to the Office of First Year Programs.
- Complete two-day UNV 101 New Instructor Workshop – generally held in May.
- Attend two Faculty Conversations of the six offered during the summer and fall semester.
- Preferred: One year of continuous affiliation with NKU as of August 1 the fall before one begins teaching.

Teaching Requirements for Continuing Instructors:

- Attend two Faculty Conversations of the six offered during the summer and fall semester.
- Attend any additional required training as determined by the Office of First Year Programs.

Teaching Requirements for Instructors Who Do Not Teach Consecutive Years:

- Instructors who decide to take one or two years off from teaching UNV 101 must attend two Faculty Conversations per year they are not teaching.
- If an instructor takes more than two consecutive years off from teaching UNV 101, they must attend the two day, New Instructor Workshop before they will be permitted to teach again.