

NOW AVAILABLE
for Fall 2022

new Gen Ed course in Culture & Creativity

PSC 201: Politics & Culture

- Why did Superman give up his US citizenship?
- What would it be like to travel across Europe trapped in an IKEA wardrobe?
- Why did the CDC write a comic book about zombies?

In this course, we check out movies, music, literature, cartoons, fine arts, and even video games to explore the connections between politics and culture to examine issues like sexuality, gender and sexual orientation, race and ethnicity, and class.

GREAT FOR:

- Anyone interested making connections between culture influences, the arts, and how the world works
- Taking a course to fulfill the Foundation of Knowledge requirement in Culture & Creativity
- An elective for Political Science & International Studies majors & minors