

FIRST YEAR STUDENT RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT

Northern Kentucky University is committed to placing the learner at the center of all we do. For those who wish to “complete their college experience”, NKU provides a residential village with an educational environment that maximizes opportunities for success. The first year student housing policy is designed to ensure that new first time freshmen students, residing outside the Northern Kentucky/Greater Cincinnati metropolitan area beyond reasonable commuting distance, begin their education in a safe and supportive environment.

Unless qualifying for one of the exemptions listed, freshman students will be required to live on campus.
