PROGRAM OVERVIEW

PROGRAM DETAILS

Gateway2NKU is a dual-admission program. Students:

- Apply for the program (as NKU non degree-seeking students) while enrolled at Gateway THEN apply to transfer to NKU in their last semester
- Follow a pathway guide

Program benefits. Students:

- Are assigned an advisor at both institutions
- Can use resources & attend events at both institutions
- Take up to 4 NKU courses at Gateway's rate
- Can apply to live on NKU's campus
- Can purchase a discounted NKU parking pass

PROGRAM DETAILS

To apply:

- Be enrolled in at least 6 credit hours at Gateway
- Be enrolled in an associate degree program (AA, AS, AAS, etc.)
- Plan to transfer to NKU
- Submit an online Gateway2NKU application (an NKU non degree-seeking app specifically for this program)

To remain:

- Work with advisors to take proper courses
- Maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA at community college

WHAT IS A PATHWAY?

Pathway guides are advising tools which include:

- Admission and graduation requirements from Gateway and NKU

- General Education from Gateway

- Remaining general education courses from NKU, if not certified through a general education agreement

- A checklist of courses required for the Associate's and Bachelor's degrees

NKU COURSES - ELIGIBILITY

Students must be enrolled in at least 6 hours at Gateway to take an NKU course. Courses should be unique to NKU (no Gateway equivalent). Classes must also fit into the Gateway degree (program applicability) for financial aid to apply. Students should work with NKU advisors to register.

Course #1

15-29 earned non-developmental/co-requisite credit hours

Course #2

30-44 earned non-developmental/co-requisite credit hours

Courses #3 and #4

45+ earned non-developmental/co-requisite credit hours

Once a credit hour limit has passed, students cannot go back and take a course they have missed. (There can be exceptions to this rule.)

BILLING AND COSTS

Financial Aid & Billing

- Financial Aid Consortium Form - must be completed if student wants aid to cover the NKU course
- Students who receive aid can use their refund to pay their NKU bill

Textbooks

- May be ordered through the home institution's bookstore if students wish to use financial aid for books

NKU COURSES - TRANSFER

At the beginning of their last semester at Gateway, students should begin the transfer process:

- Apply online at apply.nku.edu (app fee waived!)
- Submit official transcripts from all previously attended institutions
- Apply for scholarships
- Add NKU to the FAFSA
- Sign up for programs like Student Support Services, PAC, etc.
- Fill out any applicable program specific applications, once admitted
- Sign up for new student orientation (fee waived!)

Part 3

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Join the Breakout group that most applies to the students you work with:

- Arts & Sciences

- Business

- Education

- Health & Human Services

- Informatics

Sessions

One host will be in each session to help facilitate.

- Introduce yourselves to your cohort.

- Discuss:

  - Particular success and challenges you've seen regarding student success in your area

  - Ways Gateway and NKU advisors could collaborate for student success

Part 4

WRAP UP

SHARE

Are there things that came up that the whole group could benefit from hearing or help work through?

What questions arose?
