

Members of the Northern Kentucky University Community,

You are receiving this timely warning as part of NKU's commitment to inform students and employees of any serious or continuing threat resulting from the occurrence of a Clery reportable criminal offense on university property, on immediately accessible public property, or in a non-campus or satellite location operated or controlled by the university. Timely warnings must be issued in a manner likely to reach the entire campus community.

Pursuant to the Jeanne Clery Act, the Northern Kentucky University Police Department is notifying the campus community of the following occurrence:

Offense Classification: Burglary

Offense Location: Regents Hall

Date and Time of Offense: Between 01/06/2018 at 12:00 pm and 01/08/2018 at 10:00 am; and between 1/26/2018 at 4:00 pm and 1/30/2018 at 9:00 am.

Suspect[s] Description: Unknown

Suspect Vehicle Description: Unknown

NARRATIVE:

University Police is investigating two reported burglaries in which unknown suspect(s) forced entry into an unoccupied storage room in Regents Hall. Upon entry, it is alleged that the suspect(s) took several items including sports drinks and NKU branded jackets. The incidents were reported to University Police on January 8, 2018 and January 30, 2018. Both incidents are under investigation.

Community members are encouraged to be vigilant in observing for suspicious activity and to report such activity to University Police immediately. Anyone who may have information regarding either incident is encouraged to contact University Police at 859-572-5500.

While nothing is failsafe, please consider observing the following precautions: (note: the following information is general in nature and does not relate to any specific incident):

- Assess your office for vulnerabilities. Report any issues to your building manager.
- Lock all windows and doors while away.
- Never prop open exterior doors or interior doors.
- Don't allow strangers to "piggy-back" through secure entrances to residence halls or any campus buildings.
- Make sure that all lights, door locks, and window locks are in proper working order.
- Maintain a thorough record of your valuables, to include: photographs, serial numbers, makes and models, etc.
- Be alert for suspicious persons or activities. Report suspicious people or circumstances to University Police.
- Do not unlock or open your door without verifying that the individual seeking entrance does not pose a threat.
- Trust your instincts; if you sense danger, immediately contact University Police.
