

Minor in International Studies Check Sheet

Fall 2002 – Summer 2013

(Updated August 2014)

Student: _____ myNKU#: _____ Catalog: _____

Students may complete study abroad courses and internships toward the International Studies major. Topics courses and independent study credits may fulfill secondary course requirements. Contact the International Studies Coordinator prior to enrolling in any of these options to verify whether the credits qualify, and if so, how they will apply toward completing the major degree requirements.

The Education Abroad Office (UC415) can help with scholarship applications to offset expense, including university scholarships, as well as a “beyond the classroom” scholarship toward study abroad, sponsored by the Sociology Department, for which all majors are eligible.

Courses denoted with a double asterisks () may also meet Foundation of Knowledge Requirements.

- French, German, Japanese, and Spanish sections of 101, 102, 201, and 202 are offered every fall and spring semester at NKU.
- Arabic, Chinese, Italian, Korean, and Russia are offered as follows: 101 in the fall semester, 102 in the spring semester. Completing the intermediate level requirements for these courses may involve taking courses off-campus through the regional consortium. Contact the Department of World Languages and Literatures for details regarding regularity and availability of these courses.

* Students placing out of the 202 level of a language must complete one 300+ level language at NKU.

Secondary Requirements (6 hours): Complete any six hours. Options allow for focus in on region or topic, but any six hours will complete the elective requirement . Consult course description for possible prerequisites. Other topics courses may count as elective courses (contact the International Studies Coordinator for approval). 300 and 400 Level Courses taken here also satisfy the requirement for 45 Hours of Upper Division Work.
