NORTHERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

HISTORY

Northern Kentucky University (NKU), the newest of Kentucky’s eight state universities, was founded in 1968. However, the roots of Northern can be traced back another twenty years. In 1948, a two-year Extension Center of the University of Kentucky was located in the First District Elementary School in Covington. Then, as Northern Community College, the center moved to the Park Hills area of Covington in 1962. Six years later, the General Assembly of Kentucky authorized the creation of a four-year college, Northern Kentucky State College (NKSC). A board of regents and a consultant were appointed by the governor to assist in planning the new school.

In September 1970, NKSC began offering courses for students pursuing a bachelor’s degree. Also, technical and semi-professional two-year programs leading to the degree of Associate of Applied Science were offered in accounting technology, nursing, and professional secretarialship. In 1971 third-year courses were added to the curriculum with the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science being initiated in business, education, and most of the basic arts and sciences. Also in 1971, the Salmon P. Chase College of Law, formerly an independent law school in Cincinnati, merged with Northern Kentucky State College.

Graduate programs were initiated in education in 1975; in business administration in 1979; in public administration in 1989; in nursing in 1992; in technology in 1997; in accountancy in 1998, in computer science in 1999, in instructional leadership in 1999, in teaching in 2001, in information systems in 2001, and in Industrial/Organizational Psychology in 2004. The Graduate Center was established on the NKU campus in 1977 to administer graduate programs; programs in social work, library science, nursing, public affairs, and community nutrition are available through the center.

The first building on the new campus in Highland Heights was completed in time for fall semester 1972. In addition to the opening of Louie B. Nunn Hall, the University added fourth-year courses to the curriculum in 1972. The first bachelor’s degrees were awarded in May 1973, and course offerings have been continually expanded to meet the needs of a growing student body. On 25 February 1976, Governor Julian Carroll signed House Bill 180, making Northern Kentucky State College a university. Full status was recognized on 19 June 1976. Major construction of the campus began in 1972 and continues today to accommodate a growing enrollment that now is just over 14,000 students.

SCOPE OF PROGRAMS

Northern Kentucky University offers students a broad range of educational programs emphasizing traditional collegiate and liberal studies. Recognizing the needs of its region, the University’s primary mission is to provide instruction at the associate and bachelor’s degree levels. The University also offers professional and career studies at these levels.

The University offers selected master’s degree programs, approved by the Council on Postsecondary Education, and the degree of Juris Doctor through Chase College of Law.

A metropolitan university, Northern takes advantage of its close proximity to other higher education and post-secondary institutions through reciprocity agreements with the University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati State Technical and Community College, and Southern State Community College. Northern serves Indiana students through a reciprocity agreement with the State of Indiana. The University also provides applied research, service, and continuing education programs related to the needs of its region.

COMMITMENT TO EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

It is the policy of NKU not to discriminate in employment, educational programs, admissions policies, financial aid, or other school-administered programs on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, physical and/or mental disability, or status as a disabled veteran or veteran of the Vietnam Era. The University takes affirmative action to fulfill its policy against illegal discrimination.

Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination and is therefore a violation of NKU’s Affirmative Action Policy, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972. Sexual harassment is defined as any unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, non-verbal, physical, or non-physical conduct of a sexual nature that unreasonably interferes with an individual’s academic or employment performance. The University’s policy is in compliance with state and federal guidelines and is consistent with the University’s interest in seeking a diverse faculty, staff, and student body. Student inquiries may be directed to the Northern Kentucky University, Dean of Students or the Director of Affirmative Action and Multicultural Affairs, Nunn Drive, Highland Heights, KY 41099.

ACCREDITATION

Northern Kentucky University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The following organizations have accredited NKU programs: Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology, American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business – The International Association for Management Education, American Association of Law Schools, American Bar Association, American Chemical Society, American Council for Construction Education, Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs, Council for Standards in Human Service Education, Council on Social Work Education, Education Professional Standards Board, Joint Review Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology, National Association of Schools of Music, National League for Nursing Accrediting Commission, and National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education.

The University is authorized by the Commonwealth of Kentucky to confer the degrees of Associate of Applied Science, Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Arts in Teaching, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Organizational Studies, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Information Systems, Bachelor of Science in Nursing, Bachelor of Social Work, Master of Accountancy, Master of Arts in Education, Master of Business Administration, Master of Public Administration, Master of Science in Computer Science, Master of Science in Nursing, and Master of Science in Technology. The degree of Juris Doctor is conferred by the College of Law; the degree of Juris Doctor/Master of Business Administration by the College of Law and the College of Business.

STATEMENT OF MISSION

Northern Kentucky University has a singular mission within the Commonwealth as a metropolitan and regional institution. It offers associate, bachelor’s, graduate, and professional programs addressing the educational needs of a large and diverse population. Through such programs, the University educates students to be productive citizens and prepares them for careers and life-long learning. As an educational, cultural, and social center, the University stimulates economic development and fosters the academic, artistic, and personal freedoms vital to a free society.

GEOGRAPHIC REGION

The University serves the citizens of northern Kentucky with a particular focus on the metropolitan area contiguous to greater Cincinnati. Student residential services are provided.

INSTITUTIONAL ADMISSION STANDARDS

Northern Kentucky University admits students under selective standards exceeding the minimum admission guidelines, established by the Council on Postsecondary Education, with only limited exceptions. The institutional standards are consistent with the system-wide policy for admitting under-prepared students, including the removal of academic deficiencies within a specified time frame. Through this approach, the University seeks to provide both broad access and high-quality programs and to pursue a particular commitment to placebound and other learners and to populations traditionally under-represented in higher education.

DEGREE LEVELS
The University offers selected programs leading to associate, bachelor’s, master’s, and professional law degrees to meet specific metropolitan/regional needs.

STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS/PROGRAM PRIORITIES
Northern Kentucky University’s distinctive metropolitan/regional mission requires that it maintain a broad range of offerings: occupational programs, a traditional arts and sciences bachelor’s curriculum, legal education through Chase College of Law, and graduate programs to meet specific metropolitan/regional needs. The University’s responsibility is to meet the needs of both northern Kentucky and the greater metropolitan area. Academic priorities include occupational programs, liberal arts and sciences, business, education, and law. These strategic priorities translate into a core of liberal arts bachelor’s degree programs in addition to degree programs priorities at the associate, bachelor’s, master’s, and professional levels.

ENHANCEMENT OF INSTRUCTION
Teaching and learning are the primary focus of the University. The University offers a broad range of instructional and support services to promote the curricular and extracurricular development and success of its students. Developmental programs address the needs of under-prepared students; extensive evening offerings and alternate means of course delivery expand opportunities for students with limited access to the campus.

SERVICE AND RESEARCH FUNCTIONS
Northern Kentucky University seeks to develop creative and mutually beneficial partnerships with public and private enterprises in the local metropolitan area and the region in support of economic growth and investment. The University is especially committed to offering training, applied research, and other services in support of area businesses, industry, and government. It recognizes a special commitment to research and service in support of local elementary and secondary schools in its primary service area.

The University engages in community partnerships coordinated through the Scripps Howard Center for Civic Engagement. The Center was established by NKU to advance public stewardship, citizenship, and engagement through learning, scholarship, and community capacity-building. The Center engages students in a variety of community capacity-building projects, from student philanthropy to service-learning to citizenship skill building. The Center also involves students in a Get Out the Vote for Democracy Initiative. NKU students can be trained as Engagement Specialists and assigned to work with faculty and community leaders on a variety of tasks.

For more information on these and other programs, visit the Center’s website at http://civicengagement.nku.edu or contact Dr. Laurie dePadova-Stocks, Director, at 859-572-1448.

STUDENT RESEARCH AND CREATIVITY
The University strives to enhance the experiences of students by offering two opportunities that enable students to fund and present research or creative activities on interesting topics.

Students can obtain funds to pay for materials, supplies, equipment, software, or project-related travel while they conduct a project under the mentorship of a faculty member. To locate the guidelines for this program, visit: http://rgc.nku.edu/surg.doc.

Students can also present their work at the annual Celebration of Student Research and Creativity. This event highlights students’ achievements in a broad array of scholarly and creative activities. Students display their work through posters, oral presentations, interactive demonstrations, performances, and exhibits of artistic work. Website: http://celebration.nku.edu. For further information on both programs contact the Office of Research, Grants, and Contracts, Administrative Center 724, phone: 859-572-5136.

COLLABORATIVE VENTURES
The University establishes and maintains cooperative and mutually beneficial relationships with other public institutions of higher education in Kentucky, with elementary and secondary schools, and with other such institutions in northern Kentucky and the interdependent metropolitan area. Curriculum development emphasizes the transfer of credits from another institution toward degree completion.

The University participates in the Kentucky Commonwealth Virtual University (KYVU), a collaboration of Kentucky public and independent universities. KYVU can be found on the Web at http://www.kcv.org. KYVU is a public institution which coordinates credit and non-credit student-friendly learning environments that can lead to certificates or degrees. KYVU uses a multi-technology approach including one-way broadcast (KET), interactive television (KTLN), and Web-based course work. The Kentucky Commonwealth Virtual Library (KCVL), found at http://www.kcvl.org, provides a single web portal to learning materials state-wide and includes cooperation of Kentucky colleges, universities, P-12 school systems, and local libraries.

EFFICENCY AND EFFECTIVENESS
Northern Kentucky University addresses the educational needs of its region and people effectively and efficiently. Planning, evaluation, assessment, and prudent commitment of resources are essential to promote continuous improvement of programs and services. Strategic planning that results in elimination of duplicative or unproductive programs not serving metropolitan/regional needs is essential, while the development of carefully selected new programs compatible with the mission is appropriate.

GRADUATE PROGRAMS
Northern Kentucky University offers an array of excellent graduate programs. Graduate programs are directed to professionals who would like to earn a degree or certificate to help them in their career paths. For more information on NKU graduate programs call the Office of Graduate Programs at 859-572-1555; e-mail: gradprog@nku.edu; or, visit their website at http://gradsite.nku.edu.

ADMISSIONS

APPLICATION FEE POLICIES

Applications for admission to the University must include a non-refundable $25.00 application fee. The fee will be assessed for degree-seeking and non-degree-seeking students. A student who carries dual status as a post-bachelor’s student and graduate student will be assessed an application fee at each degree level.

An applicant’s fee waiver request will be considered by the director of admissions in instances of financial hardship if the request is accompanied by a letter from:
1. a high school counselor or principal;
2. a Talent Search counselor or Upward Bound official;
3. a member of NKU Student Support Services;
4. the State of Kentucky (Certification of Financial Assistance).

The applicant’s request for a waiver and letter of recommendation for fee waiver must be submitted with the application for admission. Students from the Greater Cincinnati Consortium of Colleges and Universities and the Southwestern Ohio Council for Higher Education are not charged the $25.00 application fee.

An application for admission (undergraduate or graduate) will not be processed until NKU receives the application fee or the fee waiver is approved. Prompt correspondence regarding the application fee requirement will be sent to all applicants failing to submit the fee.

Alumni who have earned bachelor’s degrees from NKU will have the $25 application fee waived for post-bachelor’s or graduate applications for admission. The application fee is also waived for spouses, or dependents of NKU faculty or staff who are eligible for a tuition waiver.

ADMISSION CLASSIFICATIONS FOR DEGREE-SEEKING STUDENTS

Freshmen: Students who have not attempted coursework at a regionally accredited college or university (other than college courses earned while in high school). Final high school transcripts must be submitted upon graduation.

Transfer: Students who have attempted coursework for credit at another approved regionally accredited college or university. Students should be eligible to return to their previous institution(s) at the time of application. See “Second Suspension” on page 36 if not eligible to return to previous institution or if your cumulative G.P.A. is less than 2.0. All necessary credentials for admission must be submitted by August 1 for fall semester, December 1 for spring semester and May 1 for summer semester. Transfers who do not submit all necessary credentials by the final deadlines must register as non-degree and are ineligible to receive financial aid or academic advising. If applicants choose to become degree-seeking at a later date, they must submit a new application for admission, an additional $25 application fee, all required credentials, and must meet the deadline dates.

Readmission: Students who have attempted coursework at NKU, but have not been enrolled during the four years preceding the semester in which the application is made to reenter the University. Students who have been suspended must submit an undergraduate application no later than August 1 for the fall semester, December 1 for the spring semester, or May 15 for summer sessions. Refer to “Suspension” on page 36 for complete information. Readmission students with transfer credit must submit an official transcript with their application by August 1 for fall semester and December 1 for spring semester.

Post-bachelor: Students who have received a bachelor’s degree and intend to enroll for additional undergraduate credit as degree-seeking.

Graduate: Students should request information from the Graduate Studies Office at 859-572-6364.

Home School and Independent Study: Students who are home schooled or completing their high school diploma through an independent study program must submit the credentials listed for freshman admission, except for the high school transcript from an accredited high school. Additionally, the student must submit:
1. a notarized statement from the home school teacher detailing the content of the student’s home school curriculum and the duration of such; and
2. final home schooled transcript must be submitted upon graduation.

The chart below illustrates the different deadlines and requirements for degree-seeking students.

ADMISSIONS AND FINANCIAL AID
ADMISSION CLASSIFICATIONS FOR NON-DEGREE SEEKING STUDENTS

Early Admission: Students who are high school students who wish to enroll for courses at NKU. A 3.5 (on a 4.0 scale) high school GPA, an ACT composite of 20 or above or SAT composite of 1020 or above and permission from the guidance counselor are required for admission. Interested students should contact the Office of Admissions for additional information and Early Admission application. A student who has attended NKU previously as an early-admission student must resubmit a completed and approved Permission to Enroll Form for each subsequent term for which he/she desires to enroll as an early admission student. If the student wishes to become degree-seeking, he/she must submit a new application for admission, the $25 application fee, and the required credentials for freshman admission.

Note: Enrollment generally is restricted to seniors with exceptions permitted for non-seniors enrolled in “advanced” high school courses in mathematics (calculus or above), the sciences (second year of physics, chemistry, or biology), or foreign languages (third-year or above).

Non-Degree: Students who do not intend to enter a degree program at the time of application. Student must have a high school diploma or GED. A maximum of 36 semester hours earned as a non-degree seeking student may be applied to a degree earned at NKU. Non-degree students are not eligible to receive financial aid, veteran’s benefits or academic advising. Students who choose to become degree-seeking at a later date must submit a new application for admission, pay an additional $25 application fee, submit all required credentials, and must meet the appropriate application for admission deadline.

Post-Bachelor: Students who have received a bachelor’s degree and intend to enroll for additional undergraduate credit as degree-seeking or non-degree seeking.

Visiting (Transient): Students who attend another college or university, but wish to enroll at NKU for one semester. Students are responsible for having coursework approved by the institution to which the work will be transferred. Visiting students, except for those who enroll through the Greater Cincinnati Consortium of Colleges and Universities, may not enroll at NKU for more than one consecutive semester. Summer terms are not considered a consecutive semester.

CREDENTIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR NON-DEGREE-SEEKING STUDENTS

Non-degree students are not eligible to receive financial aid, veteran’s benefits, or academic advising. If these applicants choose to become degree-seeking at a later date, they must submit a new application for admission, an additional $25 application fee, all required credentials, and must meet the appropriate deadline dates.

ADMISSION CLASSIFICATIONS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International Students (Non-Immigrant F-1 Status): Students should apply with the International Admissions Office (University Center 366) at least six months before the beginning of the semester for which they wish to enroll. In general, applicants will be admitted only after they have documented that they have acceptable academic credentials, are competent in English, and verify that they have access to funds sufficient to meet the costs of completing their studies. In addition, a tuition deposit may be required of certain students; the SAT exam may be required from students from certain countries depending on U.S. consulate procedures. In either case, those individuals will be so advised by the University.

Specific credentials required:
1. international application for undergraduate admission;
2. declaration and certification of finances;
3. official transcripts of secondary work (or appropriate certificates of examination);
4. an official transcript from each college or university attended;
5. all applicants with undergraduate foreign transcripts must have those transcripts evaluated by course by course by an approved Foreign Education Evaluation Service. These must be submitted along with the original or certified copy of your foreign transcripts in order for any transfer credit to be awarded. Please contact the Office of International Student Affairs for a list of approved Services at isa@nku.edu or 859-572-6517; and
6. all non-native speakers of English studying at NKU must prove English Proficiency. Any one of the following will satisfy the English Proficiency requirement for admission:
   a. submit an official score report of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) taken within the last two years. The minimum TOEFL scores to be considered for admission are: computer based—173 or paper-based—500;
   b. present documentation of having satisfactorily completed Freshman Composition I at an American college in the U.S. and have an overall acceptable grade point average. Non-native speakers of English may still be asked to take the TOEFL if it has been several years since taking the English courses and/or if the student has returned to his/her home country;
   c. present documentation of having successfully completed Level 109 at an ELS Language Center in the U.S.; d. submit a score on the verbal portion of the ACT or SAT taken within the last two years. The minimum scores to be considered for admission are: ACT—18 or SAT—480; or
   e. submit an official score from the International English Language Testing Service (IELTS) taken within the last two years. The minimum IELTS scores to be considered for admission are: Band of 5.0.

If the student’s primary language is not English and the student is seeking to maintain or obtain F-1 immigration status, the student must do at least one of the above to be considered for admission. After acceptance and upon arrival at NKU, all international undergraduate students will be required to take an English placement test on NKU’s campus (Michigan Test).

Undergraduate students who have presented documentation b. or d. above or those who have presented documentation showing that they meet or exceed the graduate level requirement in a. or e. above are not required to take any additional English placement tests prior to registration, but the individual department may request that the student do so.

International Students (Non-Immigrant, Non F-1 Status): Students should apply with the International Admissions Office by submitting an international student application (if applicable), transcripts as described in section for Non-Immigrant F-1 Status students, and meet the English proficiency requirements as described above.

Permanennt Residents: Students should apply through the domestic Office of Admissions and meet the foreign transcript and English proficiency requirements as set out in Non-Immigrant F-1 Status student section, in addition to all domestic admissions requirements. Undergraduate permanent residents and certain other visa types (H-1, L-1, L-2, F-2, E1, E2, M-1, J-2 or TN) including U.S. citizens whose primary language is not English should file the standard application for admission and will be required to take the NKU administered Michigan Test of English Language Proficiency. In this case, unless the student has presented documentation of a., b., c., d., or e. above, the Michigan Test is a requirement in order to be considered for admission. The application for admission must be on file in order to take the Michigan test and in order to have the scores processed. Please note that if admission is denied because the Michigan Test score is too low, the $25 application fee will not be refunded. Exceptions to the Michigan Test requirement for undergraduate students in this category are the same as those seeking F-1 student status. See above.

Exchange Students (Non-Immigrant J-1)
The Office of International Programs (OIP) receives the notification of their selection as an NKU exchange student from their home institution. OIP then begins the J-1 visa process and collects all application materials which is then forwarded to the International Admissions Office.

Transfer Applicants: Students must submit an official foreign evaluation processed by an NKU approved transcript evaluation company. Please contact International Student Affairs at 859-572-6517 or see www.nku.edu/edu/~isa for more information.

SELECTIVE ADMISSION PROGRAMS
Admission to the University does not ensure acceptance into a selective admission degree program. Students interested in applying to these programs should contact the Department of Nursing and Health Professions for program application materials. Students must be accepted for admission to the University and submit the selective application and necessary credentials by the following deadlines for each selective program:

- Nursing
  January 31
- Radiologic Technology
  February 15 (priority)
- Respiratory Care
  Rolling Admissions

Several other programs at NKU practice selective admissions but do not require an application. These programs admit students as pre-majors until they have met program requirements.

ACCEPTANCE TO THE UNIVERSITY
Northern Kentucky University is implementing new admissions standards which may limit the number of students accepted in the restricted status. Therefore, it is recommended that you apply for admission early. Because an admissions decision cannot be made until all transcripts and test scores are submitted, it is in your best interest to submit these materials and your application for admission by February 1 for fall semester enrollment and November 1 for spring semester enrollment or as early as possible.

Students who have not met the pre-college curriculum (PCC) as prescribed by the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education or who have ACT or SAT scores below those required for entrance into college-level courses may be admitted to the University with a stipulated or restricted admission status. A student with a PCC deficiency who has an ACT or SAT score in the top 60% nationally for English, mathematics, or science subject areas will not be judged to have a PCC deficiency in these areas.

STATUS OF ADMISSIONS
As part of the admission process, the Office of Admissions evaluates a student’s admission status for every degree-seeking freshman and for students who are transferring to NKU with less than 24 semester hours. The purpose of this evaluation is to determine the student’s preparation for college level coursework. The evaluation focuses on two areas: the student’s high school coursework (Pre-College Curriculum - PCC) and the ACT, SAT or COMPASS exam scores. We evaluate these two areas to determine if the student meets the minimum requirements set forth by both the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education and NKU for admission to a degree program.

ADMISSION STATUS
All students are admitted to NKU in one of the following categories:

- Regular Admission: Students are academically prepared to take college-level courses in all areas of study and are not required to take developmental courses. These students may declare a major upon entry into the University.

- Stipulated Admission: Students have only one ACT score that is lower than the minimum required to take college-level coursework or have a low SAT score in mathematics. These students need to do one of the following to move to regular admission status: 1) earn the minimum required score by retaking the ACT/SAT, 2) demonstrate readiness for college course by passing the challenge test (if eligible), or 3) satisfactorily complete the prescribed developmental coursework. The challenge test must be taken prior to registering for the student’s first semester at NKU. The students may declare a major upon entry into the University.

- Restricted Admission: Students have at least one PCC deficiency or two or more low ACT scores. Students who have a low SAT verbal score are also restricted. These students, called University Studies students, must satisfactorily complete the prescribed developmental coursework, earn the minimum required score by retaking the ACT/SAT, or demonstrate readiness for college course by passing the challenge test (if eligible). The challenge test must be taken prior to registering for the student’s first semester at NKU. University Studies students are not permitted to declare a major until their deficiencies are successfully removed by appropriate coursework and/or testing. University Studies students are advised by advisors in the Academic Advising Resource Center.

Students deficient in Pre-College Curriculum are required to take college-level courses in deficient areas. There are no challenge tests for...
PCC deficiencies. Foreign language policy is currently under review in the College of Arts and Sciences.

*A student may substitute an integrated, applied, interdisciplinary, or higher-level course within a program of study if the substituted course offers the same or greater academic rigor and the course covers or exceeds the minimum required content.

All students entering Northern Kentucky University in or after the fall semester of 2004 who graduated from high school in the spring of 2004 or later and whose high school transcripts do not indicate that they either met or were exempted from the pre-college foreign language admission requirement must remove their admissions deficiency by completing one semester of a foreign language sequence offered at NKU. The course taken to remove the foreign language deficiency will also count toward fulfillment of the language option of the general education humanities requirement.

STIPULATED AND RESTRICTED ADMISSION COURSE TAKING POLICY

Students with any academic deficiency, ACT/SAT or Pre-College Curriculum, will be required to enroll each semester in at least one course that fulfills an academic deficiency until all academic deficiencies are successfully completed.

Students must successfully complete all academic deficiencies prior to completing 45 earned hours. Should students fail to complete all academic deficiencies by 45 earned hours, they will not be permitted to continue enrollment at NKU. Students may attend another college to take courses which meet their academic deficiencies and then later return to NKU to finish their degree.

FRESHMEN TRANSITIONS

TRANSITIONS is NKU’s program of orientation, academic advising, and course registration. The program is recommended for entering students. The periodic sessions provide an introduction to NKU’s academic programs and services. The schedule for the TRANSITIONS sessions is set annually and is available on the Internet at http://www.nku.edu. Invitations will be mailed based on acceptance date. It is to your advantage to attend an early TRANSITIONS program to receive the best selection of courses.

TRANSFER PROCEDURES

This information is intended to answer some of the frequently asked questions regarding the transfer process. See the Transfer Office Website at http://www.nku.edu/~admitnku/transfer_services/home.htm for additional information.

What coursework will transfer?

Coursework completed at a regionally accredited institution with a grade of D or better quality will be evaluated. Only hours of credit are transferable; grade point averages do not transfer and will not be calculated. Courses judged to be remedial or developmental in content will not be considered for credit.

Articulation Agreements

Please note on the application if you are following an articulation agreement from any institution with which NKU has a formal articulation agreement.

How is the transcript evaluated?

The evaluation of transfer work is accomplished in two stages:

First, NKU personnel evaluate all hours of D grade or better which become the total number of hours granted. An “Applicant Transfer Credit Evaluation” form is then sent to the student which shows how his/her coursework was accepted at NKU. Once admitted to NKU, transfer students can access Norse Express, “Real-Time Degree Audits” to view how transfer credits will apply to their major/minor and/or general education requirements. If necessary, student may contact their department’s academic advisor.

Suggestions for Transfer Students

1. Students who attend a college/university which is outside of Kentucky or Ohio, and/or whose coursework is over 7 years old, should also submit course descriptions or a catalog from that year in order to expedite the evaluation process.
2. A transcript should be sent which includes coursework completed up to application date. Also, request that the institution send another transcript when coursework in progress is completed.
3. Remember, it takes time to accurately evaluate transcripts. Allow at least three weeks for the evaluation of credentials.
4. We encourage all students transferring from a Kentucky Public Institution to request that the Kentucky Transfer Module (KTM) be applied to their transcript.

Students have remote access to their NKU accounts via Norse Express, a web-based system. Information/services available include: bursar account summary, grades, class schedules, course descriptions, class section availability, credit card payment, unofficial transcripts, degree audits, and course registration/drop/add. To access the web-based portion of Norse Express, you must have the latest versions of MS Internet Explorer (5.0 and above) or Netscape Navigator (4.5 and above).

Prior to registering for classes, many students are required to consult with an academic advisor. See the following table for requirements.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>ACADEMIC ADVISING REQUIREMENTS FOR REGISTRATION</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The proper selection of courses is important for every NKU student. Therefore, you are encouraged to meet your academic advisor prior to registration each term. As part of the university process, you may be REQUIRED to have your class schedule approved before you are eligible to register. The following criteria have been established for each division of students who must see their academic advisor prior to registration:</td>
</tr>
<tr>

AWARD NOTIFICATION

If you submit your application materials on time and according to the instructions, you will receive notices from three different sources: the federal government, the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA), and NKU.

The federal government will send you a Student Aid Report (SAR) informing you of your eligibility for a Pell Grant.

NKU will notify you once your financial aid award has been posted to Norse Express. This will include an estimate of your Pell Grant and KHEAA CAP Grant. Receipt of this notice does not guarantee that you are eligible for the KHEAA CAP Grant to attend NKU.

NKU will notify you of your eligibility for a Pell Grant and KHEAA CAP Grant and any other financial aid for which you are eligible (i.e. student loans, etc.). Some financial aid awards will be made before residence hall assignments; thus, your financial aid award may not reflect true expenses for the academic year. If you feel that you may fall in this category, please contact our office in person (preferable) or in writing after you receive your residence hall assignment.

It is important for you to understand that all financial aid awards are dependent upon institutional, private, state, and/or federal funding. Although we fully intend to be able to adequately fund any commitments which are made to you, circumstances can change. Notification of any change to financial aid awards will be sent to the student.

Remember, even if you are notified you are ineligible for a Pell Grant or KHEAA CAP Grant, you may be eligible for assistance through other aid programs. Various types of financial aid to NKU students can be found on the financial aid website at www.nku.edu/~ofa/.

If you want additional information concerning the financial aid process, please contact the Office of Student Financial Assistance, AC 416, visit our web site at www.nku.edu/~ofa/ or e-mail at ofa@nku.edu.

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

ALCOHOL AND DRUG ABUSE POLICIES AND EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

NKU respects the integrity and total development of its students and recognizes the educational importance of all co-curricular experiences in which students participate. It also joins with the Drug-Free Schools and Campuses Bill (34 CFR Part 86) in offering programming for students about alcohol and substance abuse.

NKU prohibits unlawful possession, use, or distribution of drugs and alcohol on its property or as part of its activities. A clear statement of unacceptable conduct and consequences related to substance abuse is found in NKU’s student handbook, Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, and is restated below.

Students may be accountable to civil authorities and the University for acts that constitute violations of law and of this code. Those charged with violations are subject to University disciplinary proceedings pending criminal proceedings and may not challenge University proceedings on grounds that criminal charges for the same incident have been dismissed, reduced, or not yet adjudicated.

The following misconduct is subject to disciplinary action: unauthorized distribution, or possession for purposes of distribution, or use of any controlled substance or illegal drug, as defined by Kentucky Revised Statutes, Chapter 218A, on University premises or at University-sponsored activities manifested under influence of a controlled or other intoxicating substance to the degree that there is danger to self, others, or property, or there is unreasonable annoyance to persons in the vicinity; and aiding and abetting any conduct described above.

The legal drinking age in Kentucky is twenty-one. Individuals are responsible for knowing the laws applying to substance abuse in the Commonwealth. In particular, individuals should be aware of legal consequences for violation of the legal age, use of false identification, drunk driving, and sale or distribution of illicit drugs.

Recognizing that alcohol and drug abuse is a serious problem in our society, NKU offers a variety of educational and assistance programs to the student population. An alcohol/drug abuse awareness week is held twice annually. An Alcoholics Anonymous meeting is held weekly on campus. Residence hall programs on drug and alcohol abuse are held annually. Alcohol/drug training sessions are held annually for residence hall assistants. Information and literature on substance abuse are available in the Student Health Office, University Center 300. Students who may have alcohol or other substance-abuse problems can be assisted for confidential evaluation and referral to appropriate community agencies.

The Women’s Center is a resource center for faculty, staff, and students. The office staff is available to assist with and conduct programming for university classes, residential hall activities, and campus-wide events. The focus of this office is to create a drug-free environment by raising awareness of drug and alcohol issues and promoting healthy life choices.

Early recognition, intervention, and treatment for substance abuse are necessary to avoid compromises in physical and mental health. Health risks associated with substance abuse include but are not limited to physical dependence, psychological dependence, tolerance, alterations in the immune system, digestive problems, liver complications, neuropsychological complications, nutritional deficiencies, certain cancers, cardiovascular complications, nasal septal deterioration, respiratory complications, an increased risk of contracting sexually transmitted diseases, placenta transfer resulting in low birth weight, mental retardation, congenital malformation, and neonatal addiction.

In addition, moral deterioration and deterioration of personal relationships, impaired learning, violence, injuries, accidents, drunk driving, acquaintance rape, and unwanted pregnancies may result. Without early intervention and treatment, death may occur.

For further information on substance abuse, phone the Counseling Office, University Center 320, at 859-572-6373.

ADDING OR DROPPING A COURSE

The University Schedule of Classes lists the dates when a student may add a course or withdraw from a course after completing registration. Drop/add may be accomplished via Norse Express for Students, or in person at the Registrar Service Center, AC 301. Drop/add transactions are not official unless processed by one of these methods. The regulations below apply to regular courses in fall and spring semesters. They also apply to all short courses, especially summer offerings, in a time sequence proportional to the length of the session. When adding courses, see course-load policy for allowable limits.

1. Course Withdrawal Grade Policy

Students may withdraw from one or more courses only during the semester in which the course or courses are taken. The following procedures apply:

a. During the first three weeks of the term, official course withdrawals will not be reflected on the student’s transcript. An instructor may initiate a withdrawal for any student who does not attend classes during this three-week period.

b. From the fourth week through the tenth week or equivalent, official course withdrawals will be assured a grade of W (withdrawal). The W will appear on the student’s transcript but will not be computed in the grade point average (GPA).

c. Course withdrawals after the tenth week or equivalent will not usually be allowed. In circumstances beyond the student’s control, a W may be granted with approval of the instructor, the appropriate chairperson, and the student’s dean whose college offers the course. In cases not approved, the student will receive the grade of F (failure).

d. Students withdrawing completely from school after the tenth week need only the approval of the dean of the student’s major on the late withdrawal form.

e. The instructor may not issue a W as the final grade for students who did not withdraw prior to the tenth week or equivalent of classes or who are not covered by exceptions listed above.

f. A student who for two consecutive semesters registers for 9 or more semester hours and completely withdraws each semester will not be permitted to register for courses at NKU unless he/she petitions the Registrar in writing.

g. The above regulations apply to fall, spring, and summer semesters.

h. The last dates to add or withdraw from a course will be printed in the Schedule of Classes.

i. A student in the military reserves called into active status on an emergency basis who cannot complete course work for a given semester

1. will receive a withdrawal in each course with full refund if call-up is within the first 12 weeks of the semester.

2. may elect to receive the grade earned to-date in each course or receive a W in each course with a full refund if call-up is during the 13th or 14th week of the semester, or

3. will receive the grade earned to date in each course if call-up is in the 15th or 16th week of the semester.

The student should present his or her orders at the Registrar Service Center or fax them to 859-572-6094. If the student does not yet have written orders, he or she will have 60 days in which to present the orders. A family member or friend may bring a copy of the orders in the student’s absence. If this deadline is not met, the student’s grades would revert to F, and he or she will not be eligible to receive a refund.

In the situation in which the student has a choice, he or she must take either the grades or W in all courses.
ACADEMIC APPEALS

Appeals to academic regulations are defined in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities. See http://www.nku.edu/~deanstudents/ Rights-Contents.htm for information and procedure.

ACADEMIC TRANSCRIPT REQUEST

All requests for academic transcripts must be signed by the student and submitted to the Office of the Registrar. For specific information on requests for transcripts, please phone the transcript information line at 859-572-5556.

The list of programs included in the Academic Common Market is revised periodically to reflect the changing needs and offerings of participating states. The 15 states that participate in the Academic Common Market are Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and West Virginia. For more information, contact the Academic Common Market Institutional Coordinator, Administrative Center (AC) 505, Northern Kentucky University, Highland Heights, KY 41099, 859-572-6578.

CATALOG APPLICABILITY
Catalog Applicability for Undergraduate Students

1. The curricular requirements stated in the catalog in effect when a student enters the University as a degree-seeking student, or in any subsequent catalog chosen, must be met. If a student chooses a subsequent catalog, this intention must be in writing to the Office of the Registrar, AC 301. The student must satisfy all institutional and program requirements for the desired degree under any subsequent catalog selected.

2. If a student’s progress toward a degree is interrupted for four or more academic years from the last time he or she was regularly enrolled, all curricular requirements, both institutional and program, of the catalog in effect upon re-entry to the University must be met.

3. Except in unusual circumstances, the requirements of one catalog may be followed for no more than eight consecutive academic years from the time the student first enrolled. For all institutional and program requirements for a degree, the student will normally follow the catalog succeeding the one just expired unless the student designates in writing, to the Office of the Registrar, AC 301, a more recent catalog. Students should consult their academic adviser to determine their catalog of applicability.

4. Appeals to these regulations can be made to the appropriate academic dean.

CHANGES IN ACADEMIC POLICIES/PROCEDURES

The University reserves the right to implement new policies/procedures deemed necessary to ensure compliance with those currently in effect.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Classroom participation is essential to the educational process in many disciplines. However, students may not be penalized with a lowered grade merely on the basis of non-attendance unless class participation is clearly essential to the educational goals of the course. If this is the case, students must be informed of the necessity to participate in classroom activities. This information must be given to them no later than the fifth day of the semester. In any case, students are responsible for familiarity with material disseminated in the class and are not released from this responsibility because they cease to attend. It is assumed that students will be aware of the calendar deadlines for officially withdrawing from a course. If students do not officially withdraw prior to this deadline, and fail to successfully complete the required course work, a failing grade will be recorded.

COURSE NUMBERING

Courses numbered 000 to 099 are orientation or developmental and may not be applied toward a student’s classification or toward a degree. Course’s numbered 100 to 199 are usually for freshmen; 200 to 299, usually for sophomores; 300 to 499, usually for juniors and seniors; 500 to 599, for juniors, seniors, and graduate students (unless specified elsewhere in this catalog); and 600 to 699, for graduate students only.

COURSE PREREQUISITES AND COREQUISITES

A prerequisite is a requirement that must be satisfied before enrolling for a specific course. Students should not enroll in courses for which they lack the stated prerequisites. Students lacking the prerequisites may be withdrawn from these courses upon request of the instructor and/or academic department.

A corequisite is a course that must be taken in conjunction with another course. Students must enroll in corequisites during the same semester or summer session. A student enrolled in a course but not its corequisite will be withdrawn from that course upon request of the instructor and/or academic department.

STIPULATED AND RESTRICTED ADMISSION
STUDENTS COURSE TAKING POLICY

Students with any academic deficiency, ACT/SAT or Pre-College Curriculum, will be required to enroll each semester in at least one course that fulfills an academic deficiency until all academic deficiencies are successful completed.

Students must successfully complete all academic deficiencies prior to completing 45 earned hours. Should students fail to complete all academic deficiencies by 45 earned hours, they will not be permitted to continue enrollment at NKU. Students may attend another college to take courses which meet their academic deficiencies and then later return to NKU to finish their degree.

Nunn Drive
Highland Heights, KY 41099
Telephone: 859-572-5220 or 1-800-637-9948

ARTICULATION AGREEMENTS

Articulation, for the purposes of student transfer between campuses, refers specifically to “course articulation”, e.g., the process of developing a formal, written agreement that identifies courses (or sequences of courses) on a “sending” campus that are comparable to, or acceptable in lieu of, specific course requirements at a “receiving” campus. Successful completion of an articulated course(s) assures the student and the faculty that the student has taken the appropriate course(s), received the necessary instruction and preparation, and that similar outcomes can be assured, enabling progression to the next level of instruction at the receiving institution. The articulation process is intended to ensure problem-free course and program transfer from one institution to another.

Students who wish to transfer should become familiar with the articulation agreements. Northern Kentucky University has established articulation agreements with universities and colleges in general education and in specific majors. For specific information, contact the Office of Admissions, 859-572-5220.

GENERAL EDUCATION PROGRAM RATIONALE

At the base of the general education program is a common core of foundation skills in critical thinking, mathematical reasoning, and written and oral communication, which are fundamental to success in further intellectual endeavor. The liberal arts core of the general education program aims to broaden intellectual horizons, deepen understanding of artistic, humanistic, and scientific methods, develop the mental flexibility and openness to change that allow adults to cope with complexity and meet unforeseen challenges in their careers and lives. The diversity core aims to broaden a student’s knowledge and understanding of society’s diverse social and cultural perspectives that are fundamental for living in a modern society. General education courses seek to further students’ understanding of the contemporary world, of the ideals and aspirations which have motivated human thought and action throughout history, and of their society’s place in a larger human context.

At the same time, the general education program encourages students to take personal responsibility for their lives by developing their own sense of values, pursuing their own goals, and developing the habit of lifelong learning, so that they may make valuable individual contributions to the political, social, and cultural enrichment of their society.

NOTES ON GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

a. Enrollment in certain general education courses is limited to students who have met prescribed academic qualifications (such as a level of performance on ACT or placement examinations) and/or who have completed specified prerequisite courses. Students should check their eligibility for particular general education courses by reviewing any “PREREQ” provisions in the descriptions of those courses. See Course Descriptions beginning on page 147.

b. Because certain major programs require specific general education courses, students should review such requirements carefully in planning a general education curriculum.

c. Some courses are listed under more than one general education category, but students may count such a course towards the fulfillment of only one general education category.

The first year oral communication course provides students with the basic skills and knowledge in oral communication needed for success in college and thereafter as effective citizens and lifelong learners. The course is designed as an introductory course to enhance students’ critical reading, thinking, interpretation, and speaking skills. Emphasis on techniques, principles, and the practice of oral communication in a variety of formats, including public speaking. | Students must complete the following written and oral communication requirements within the first 30 hours of college-level work at NKU.

General Education Framework and Semester Hours Needed to Complete Bachelor's Degree Program Requirements

Fine Arts
- 3 semester hours

  Fine Arts courses include oral, visual, written musical, spatial, or kinesthetic forms of expression and include components that emphasize student creativity, expression, and production. Students will be required to identify and analyze the impact of cultural and historical factors on the creation and reception of artistic works.

  Successfully complete one course from approved general education course list for fine arts.

History
- 3 semester hours

  History is concerned with understanding change and development over space and time. Students in history courses should obtain a fundamental grasp of the major eras, driving forces, formative movements, and ideas in the shaping of nations or regions in a global historical context.

  Successfully complete one course from approved general education course list for history.

Humanities
- 6 to 8 semester hours for most students

  Humanities courses are concerned with seeing how we as human beings are connected, and hence the power of literature, arts, history, philosophy, religion, languages, and culture in transcending boundaries and overcoming divisions. Courses taken to fulfill this requirement will be selected from the following content areas: History, Literature, Fine Arts, Philosophy/Religious Studies or Foreign Languages.

  Successfully complete two courses from approved general education course list for humanities with the following exception: only one course from History, Literature, or Fine Art may be selected to satisfy this requirement. Students taking more than two courses with the same prefix (ART, HIS, ENG) within the humanities category will receive credit for only two courses; the additional semester hours will count as electives.

  Students who choose Foreign Language courses to fulfill the Humanities category are required to take a two-course sequence.

Literature
- 3 semester hours

  Literature courses are concerned with understanding texts of all forms of written expression.

  Successfully complete one course from approved general education course list for literature.

Natural Science
- 7 - 8 semester hours for most students

  The two courses, together, will introduce the methods of inquiry associated with science, the basic principles used to explain natural phenomena and the connection between science and real-world problems.

  Successfully complete two courses from approved general education course list for natural sciences; one must be a laboratory course.

Diversity Core (6 Semester Hours)

Race and Gender Perspective
- 3 semester hours

  Explores race, gender, and cultural issues within the framework of a disciplinary perspective. Courses will advance a student’s understanding of effective citizenship by addressing issues on a personal, local, national, or global level. Race and Gender courses make race and gender the central focus of the course. The courses concentrate on interrelationships between racial/ethnic groups, on the intersection of race/ethnicity and gender, and on the overlap of race/gender and cultural, political, economic, and social institutions. They incorporate historical understandings and contemporary issues such as the legacy of slavery and the evolution of gender roles, and their impact on current human experiences. The primary focus of the courses is how these issues manifest themselves in the United States.

  Successfully complete one course from approved general education course list for the race and gender perspective.

Non-Western Perspective
- 3 semester hours

  Explores economic, social/cultural, political, linguistic, ecological, race, gender, or religious issues within the framework of a disciplinary perspective. The major criterion is the type of culture, not the geographic location. Cultures that are significantly different from European and North American cultures fulfill the definition. Courses will advance a student’s understanding of effective world citizenship by addressing issues on a personal, local, national, or global level.

  Successfully complete one course from approved general education course list for the non-Western perspective.

MINIMUM NUMBER OF SEMESTER HOURS REQUIRED TO COMPLETE GENERAL EDUCATION PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS FOR ASSOCIATE’S DEGREE TOTALS 18

KENTUCKY GENERAL EDUCATION TRANSFER POLICY

For students who reside in Kentucky, there is a statewide General Education Transfer Policy. The policy lets colleges and universities accept each other’s general education requirements for transfer students. Course that meet General Education Transfer Policy requirements are identified by each institution.

The Kentucky Transfer Policy established two transfer components: the General Education Component and the Specialty Component. The 48 semester hour core component and a 15 semester hours block of unspecified general education courses.

General Education Core Transfer Component (33 semester hours)

The core component includes:

1. Communication (9 semester hours)
   - Written Communication — NKU Written Composition I see “WRITTEN AND ORAL COMMUNICATIONS” on page 26.
2. Humanities (6 semester hours)
   The disciplines represented in this category must be different from those in Behavioral/Social Sciences. Courses may be chosen from the following: Fine Arts, Literature, Foreign Language, History, or Philosophy/Religion courses in the List of Approved General Education Courses (see “HUMANITIES” on page 27.

3. Behavioral/Social Sciences (9 semester hours).
   At least two disciplines must be represented and must be different from those in Humanities. Courses may be chosen from the List of Approved General Education Courses for Behavioral/Social Sciences (see “BEHAVIORAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCES” on page 26.

4. Natural Sciences (6 semester hours)
   Courses may be chosen from the List of Approved General Education Courses for Natural Sciences (see “NATURAL SCIENCE” on page 27.

5. Mathematics (3 semester hours)
   Courses may be chosen from the List of Approved General Education Courses for Mathematics (see “MATHEMATICS” on page 26.

General Education Transfer Block (15 semester hours) Kentucky transfer students may transfer an unspecified 15 semester hour block of general education courses to satisfy this component.

General Education Transfer Certifications
   Fully General Education Certified
   A student transferring from a Kentucky institution will be accepted at NKU as “General Education Certified” when the/she has completed a general education program of 48 semester hours, including the 33-semester hour Core Transfer Component and the 15-semester hour Transfer Block; received an approved Associate of Arts or Associate of Science Transfer degree or earned 60 semester hours of undergraduate credit; and holds a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher.

Core Component Certified
   A student transferring from a Kentucky institution will be accepted at NKU as “Core Component Certified” when they complete the 33 semester hour Core Transfer Component. The student must also hold a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher and will need to fulfill the remaining NKU general education requirements.

Category Certified
   A student transferring from a Kentucky institution will be accepted at NKU as “Category Certified” when they have completed one or more of the five categories in the Core Transfer Component. The student must hold a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher and will need to fulfill the remaining general education requirements.

   For more information regarding NKU transfer policies, see http:// www.nku.edu/~admitnku/transfer_services/home.htm.

Bachelor’s Program Transfer Specialty Component Policy
   The Bachelor’s Program Transfer Specialty Component policy allows for the ease of transfer of course work within a student’s major.
   Students who are “General Education Certified” under the Kentucky General Education Transfer policy (completed all categories, and have at least 48 semester hours in general education) are eligible for evaluation of credit within bachelor’s program transfer frameworks. The Transfer Frameworks identifies at least 12 semester hours in addition to general education courses that may be taken at one Kentucky public institution and transferred to another public institution to satisfy major requirements.
   Students who are planning to transfer to another public Kentucky college or university should work closely with their adviser, as well as with the institution to which they plan to transfer, in order to ensure the completion of all necessary requirements.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

1. Requirements for Graduation: a Checklist
   a. When a student anticipates successful completion of degree requirements, he/she must file an Application for Degree Can-approved Program Certification Form for each undergraduate applicant must be on file in the Office of the Registrar prior to filing the Application for Degree Candidacy. The dates by which degree. Also, all grades of I and K must be cleared before graduation requirements are complete.

   d. The student will complete general education requirements appropriate for the degree being sought (see “Catalog Applicability” elsewhere in this catalog).
   e. The student must be recommended by the faculty.
   f. The student will satisfy all financial and administrative obligations to the University.
   g. As part of Northern Kentucky University’s on-going efforts to improve its program offerings, a student will be required to participate in assessment activities (see Senior Assessment section below). In addition to senior assessment, a student may be required to complete assessment requirements for a major/minor.

2. Graduation with Honors
   a. Bachelor’s Degree
      Cum Laude 3.50 - 3.7499
      Magna Cum Laude 3.75 - 3.8999
      Summa Cum Laude 3.90 - 4.00
   In order for a student to graduate with bachelor’s degree honors, he/she must earn a minimum of 64 semester hours in residence.
   b. Associate Degree
      With Distinction 3.50 - 3.799
      With High Distinction 3.80 - 4.00
   In order for a student to graduate with associate degree honors, he/she must earn a minimum of 32 semester hours in residence.
   c. Honors appear in the Commencement Program based upon the grade point average (excluding developmental course work) at the conclusion of the previous semester. Honors will appear on the transcript based upon the grade point average (excluding developmental coursework) at the time of graduation.
3. Senior Assessment
   a. As a requirement for graduation with a bachelor’s degree, all students who have completed at least 90 semester hours will be required to participate in senior assessment. It is anticipated that most students are expected to satisfy this requirement prior to completing 110 semester hours.
   b. After completing at least 90 semester hours, students are to meet the senior assessment requirement in the following semester. If a student does not participate in the assessment that semester, then the student is in “assessment default.”
   c. A student in default will not be able to receive her or his diploma until the default is remedied. A student can remedy assessment default by participating in the appropriate assessment.
   d. No student will be expected or required to participate in more than one form of general education assessment. However, students may be required to participate in a separate assessment of their major field.

4. Second Bachelor’s Degree
   1. A student wishing to receive two bachelor’s degrees may meet requirements for them simultaneously or successively.
   2. Requirements for the second major will be those listed in the NKU catalog current at the time the second degree major is declared or certified.
   3. A student wishing to receive two degrees on the same date must:
      a. complete requirements for both degrees.
      b. earn a minimum of 30 semester hours in residence beyond requirements for the first degree.
      c. earn a minimum of 60 semester hours in residence at NKU.
   4. A student wishing to earn a second bachelor’s degree after receiving the first must:
      a. complete requirements for the second degree;
      b. earn at least 12 semester hours additional to those he/she may already have in the major field offering the second degree;
      c. earn a minimum of 30 semester hours in residence beyond requirements for the first degree;
      d. earn a minimum of 64 semester hours in residence at NKU beyond the requirement for the first degree to be considered for graduation with honors.

5. Second Associate Degree
   1. A student who has not earned a bachelor’s degree and wishes to receive two associate degrees may meet requirements for them simultaneously or successively.
   2. Requirements for the second major will be those listed in the NKU catalog current at the time the second degree major is declared or certified.
   3. A student who has already earned a bachelor’s degree and wishes to receive an associate degree must:
      a. complete requirements for the degree;
      b. earn a minimum of 20 semester hours in residence at Northern;
      c. earn at least 12 semester hours in the major;
      d. earn a minimum of 32 semester hours in residence to be considered for graduation with honors.

6. Second Major
   1. A student who wishes to be certified in two or more major programs must meet requirements for each simultaneously.
   2. The degree conferred will be based upon the student’s first major; all majors/minors and areas of concentration successfully completed will be indicated on the student’s academic transcript.

7. Minor
   1. A student who wishes to have a minor certified must meet requirements at the time of degree awarding.
   2. Students earning associate degrees cannot earn a minor; only students at the bachelor’s level may earn a minor.
   3. The minimum number of semester hours required for minors varies among departments and can be found in individual department descriptions.
   4. A GPA of at least 2.00 is required unless otherwise specified in the program requirements.

“NON-TRADITIONAL” CREDIT
Credit by Examination
1. Advanced Standing Examination
   Upon recommendation by the appropriate chairperson and with the approval of the appropriate dean, a currently enrolled student may receive advanced standing credit by passing an examination in a subject in which she/he has demonstrated exceptional ability. A student may obtain an application for the advanced standing examination from the Office of the Registrar, AC 301. He/she must follow the procedures printed on the application. There is an examination fee for each course in which a student takes an advanced standing examination. These examinations may be taken for a letter grade or pass/fail as determined by the department chairperson prior to testing. If a failing grade is earned, the course will not be posted to the student’s transcript.

2. College Level Examination Program (CLEP)
   The CLEP, a national program of credit by examination administered by the College Entrance Examination Board, was established at Northern to provide individuals with an opportunity to earn credit by examination. CLEP tests may be taken at Northern or at any other national testing center during the third week of each month. Northern students may earn up to 45 semester hours through (a) General and/or (b) Subject examinations. The University is a recognized CLEP Testing Center, and testing applicable to other institutions is also conducted. A grade of pass (P) will be assigned for CLEP courses successfully completed.
   a. General Examinations
      Five tests are within the General Examination portion of CLEP: English composition, humanities, natural science, social science/history, and mathematics. Northern will award credit in three areas: humanities, natural science, and social science/history; up to 18 semester hours may be earned from the exams for each area. Six semester hours will be awarded for a minimum score of 50. Credit earned through these examinations is elective credit and does not satisfy general education requirements.
   b. Subject Examinations
      The following subject examinations equated below with specific courses offered at NKU are accepted by the University. (The University reserves the right to revise these listings in accord with recommendations from the Educational Testing Service.)

CLEP credit is available in French, German, and Spanish. Students must meet with the foreign language coordinator to receive credit requirements.

Policies on CLEP vary depending upon the academic area; students are advised to consult their adviser prior to taking CLEP examinations. The Health, Counseling, and Testing Center administers CLEP and provides data about the program. With approval of the appropriate dean, a student at NKU may take the CLEP subject examination instead of repeating a course in which he/she received a D or F, an option that may be exercised up to four times.

3. Advanced Placement (AP)

High school students may receive credit by earning the required score on an approved AP examination. An appropriate number of semester hours will be awarded, and a grade of pass (P) will be assigned for successful completion of approved courses. Information concerning the AP program may be obtained from high school counselors. AP scores should be sent to the University’s Office of the Registrar. Additional information on regulations and approved NKU programs for AP credit may be obtained from the Office of the Registrar. Examination scores range from 1-5. Subject areas in which a student may receive credit from Northern Kentucky University by earning acceptable scores are listed below.

Credit for those areas marked by an asterisk must be coordinated with the chair of the department concerned.

4. International Baccalaureate (IB)

High school students completing this rigorous program may receive credit by earning the required score in a specific subject. An appropriate number of semester hours will be awarded, and a grade of pass (P) will be assigned for successful completion of approved courses. To earn credit, the student must request an official transcript issued by the New York office of the International Baccalaureate be sent to the University’s Office of the Registrar. Additional information on regulations and approved NKU programs for IB credit may be obtained from the Office of the Registrar. OTHER NON-TRADITIONAL CREDIT

Additional types of nontraditional credit are available:

a. Portfolio Development (PD)

The portfolio is a formal written document that defines learning and requests credit for specific course or courses in the catalog. Students may request up to 32 semester hours toward a bachelor’s degree and 16 semester hours toward an associate degree. Simply described, a portfolio takes the place of a standardized test in evaluating college-level learning students may have acquired through their personal, volunteer, or work experience. Credit is granted upon recommendation of the appropriate faculty and with the approval of the appropriate dean. A 2-semester hour mandatory course teaches the students how to prepare the portfolio. Call the Office of Credit Continuing Education at 859-572-5601 to make a reservation for one of the monthly portfolio information sessions, send questions by e-mail to priorlearning@nku.edu, or visit their website at http://www.nku.edu/~cont_ed/.

b. Military and Department of Defense (DOD)

Credit may be earned for courses successfully completed by an individual in residence at approved military and DOD schools. Courses approved and recommended by the American Council of Education’s publication, Guide to Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Forces will be considered for credit. A maximum of 32 semester hours may be earned. Students should petition the Office of the Registrar for review of courses and present appropriate documentation of military course work.

c. Vocational (Articulation)

Credit may be awarded to an applicant entering Northern Kentucky University in the program area of specialty upon completion of a post-secondary vocational program in the Northern Kentucky Vocational Region. For more information, contact the Department of Technology.

d. National Occupational Competency Testing Institute (NOCTI)

Credit may be earned through standardized tests to assess competency in technical or trade areas of industrial education teachers. Contact the Department of Technology, 859-572-5761.
e. American Council on Education (ACE) Non-Collegiate Sponsored Instruction
Credit may be awarded based on educational programs offered by many large corporations or non-academic institutes. Only programs approved and recommended by The American Council on Education will be considered for credit. A maximum of 32 semester hours toward a bachelor’s degree and 16 semester hours toward an associate degree may be earned. Students may request evaluation of credit by sending the ACE transcript “Registry of Credit Recommendations” and appropriate course outline(s) to the Office of the Registrar, AC 301, Nunn Drive, Northern Kentucky University, Highland Heights, KY 41099 or phone 859-572-5556 for more information.

f. Correspondence Courses
1. No more than 9 semester hours required for a degree may be earned by correspondence.
2. A student desiring to enroll in correspondence courses at another institution while he/she is a student at NKU must obtain prior permission from the appropriate academic dean if he/she wishes to transfer the earned credit to NKU. Correspondence courses in which a grade of C or higher is earned will be transcripted as hours earned or pass (P) credit only up to 9 semester hours.

ACADEMIC STANDING FOR UNDERGRADUATES

a. Good Standing
A student is in good standing when he/she has more than 16 quality hours with a cumulative grade point average (GPA) that meets or exceeds 2.00. A student with 0-15 quality hours is in good standing with a cumulative grade point average (GPA) that meets or exceeds 1.66.

b. Academic Probation/Suspension
A student who fails to meet the cumulative 2.00 GPA required for good standing is placed on academic probation for the next enrolled semester.

A student on academic probation will be suspended unless:
1. The student earns a 2.00 GPA or higher for the probationary semester (semester GPA), or
2. The student meets or exceeds the following cumulative GPA standards at the end of the probationary semester:
   Cumulative GPA of:
   - 0.00 for 0-15 quality hours
   - 1.25 for 16-30 quality hours
   - 1.50 for 31-45 quality hours
   - 1.75 for 45-59 quality hours
   - 2.00 for 60+ quality hours
   Quality hours are semester hours attempted in courses numbered 100 or above at NKU. A student whose grade-point average is below the cumulative 2.00 GPA required for good standing, but above the cumulative GPA standards for suspension, will be continued on academic probation for the next semester enrolled.

   A student on academic probation who has been previously suspended and who is suspended a second time will receive the penalty of a second suspension.

   No student will be suspended prior to accumulating 15 quality hours or without being placed on probation for the preceding semester.

Probation
A student on academic probation is not allowed
1. to serve as an officer or committee member in any campus organization;
2. to participate in any University extracurricular activity or in the activity of any University organization if the participation involves expenditure of an appreciable amount of time;
3. to carry more than 13 semester hours during any fall or spring semester;
4. to carry more than 6 semester hours at one time during summer sessions or more than one course in intersession.

Suspension
1. A student suspended from Northern or another institution for the first time for academic reasons is required to remain out of school for at least two full semesters (the summer sessions taken together being considered as one semester).
2. After serving the period of suspension, a student may be re­stated or admitted to the University. To be reinstated or admitted, the student must meet with the appropriate associate dean to dis­cuss academic standing and future direction. This meeting must occur by August 1 for fall semester, December 1 for spring semester, and May 1 for summer sessions. If the suspended student has remained out of school for more than four years, the student must complete and submit an application for readmission to the University once reinstatement has been approved.

Second Suspension
A student suspended a second time will not be reinstated to NKU except in unusual circumstances and then only on recommendation by the appropriate dean and approval by an ad hoc group, consisting of the appropriate associate assistant dean from each of the undergraduate colleges plus the Director of the Academic Advising Resource Center. To petition for reinstatement after a second suspension, the student must meet with his/her appropriate associate assistant dean or the Director of the Academic Advising Resource Center by the dates specified above and then must submit an appeal letter to the above described group. If reinstatement is approved, the student must then complete and submit an application for readmission to the University.

Similarly, students transferring to NKU, ineligible to return to their previous institution(s) because of academic deficiencies or if they have a cumulative G.P.A. of less than 2.0, will follow the same process described in the previous paragraph, identifying the appropriate associate assistant dean or the Director of the Academic Advising Resource Center, based on their intended major.

ACADEMIC BANKRUPTCY FOR UNDERGRADUATES

Prerequisite Conditions
A student who has not been in attendance for a minimum of two consecutive academic years (24 months) may petition for academic bankruptcy of NKU coursework on a one-time basis only. Any bankrupted courses that the student passed at an acceptable level (C or higher) and that are among requirements for a major/minor or for general education may be applied, but without awarding of credit, toward those requirements. Such application is subject to written approval by the appropriate chair for major/minor requirements or by the dean of Arts and Sciences for general education requirements. Bankrupted courses, even though passed, do not apply to the minimum of 128 semester hours required for the bachelor’s degree or to the minimum 64 semester hours required for the associate degree.

Procedure
The student should obtain and complete an Undergraduate Academic Bankruptcy Petition form from the Office of the Registrar, processing area; at this time, policy requirements will be reviewed and explained by a processing specialist.

Bankruptcy
Upon returning to NKU and successfully completing the first 12 semester hours of college level coursework attempted with grades of C or better, the Office of the Registrar will remove from the calculation of the grade point average all classes in all semester(s) (all summer sessions in one year will be counted as one semester), terms and sessions previously identified. A student’s Northern Kentucky University transcript will indicate the term(s) bankrupted. The courses in the terms affected will be
The suggested undergraduate course load for fall and spring semester is 16 semester hours. This means that part of the work in a course remains incomplete. It is the student’s responsibility to contact any agency providing financial assistance to determine the effects of the academic bankruptcy on past or future benefits.

RELATED POLICIES

Course Load

The following course loads apply for each semester/session:

1. The suggested undergraduate course load for fall and spring semesters is 16 semester hours. Except in special circumstances the maximum course load in fall or spring semester at NKU is 18 semester hours (including audit, residence, correspondence, off-campus, and consortium courses) or the amount specified in the curriculum for the particular semester, whichever is larger. Maximum course load for summer sessions is 15 semester hours.

2. A student may take only one intersession course each year.

3. A student may take up to 6 semester hours during each of the five-week summer sessions for a total of 12 semester hours.

4. A student may take up to 6 semester hours during the six-week summer session.

5. A student enrolled during the eight-week summer session or the six-week summer session may take up to 9 semester hours when enrollment is in combination with a five-week summer session.

NOTE: It is normal that students should expect to spend 5-6 hours per week in course-related work outside of class time in a 3 semester hour course. This means that students carrying 15 semester hours may need to spend a minimum of 25-30 hours per week in outside class work. This must be considered in making out student schedules.

6. A student who has attained a grade-point average of 3.00 or higher for a total of at least 15 semester hours for the preceding semester may be permitted by his/her dean to carry up to 21 semester hours.

7. A student with particular problems concerning course load should see the appropriate dean.

8. The minimum course load for a full-time undergraduate student at Northern is 12 semester hours in a fall or spring semester and 9 semester hours in summer.

9. A student on academic probation may not take more than 13 semester hours in a fall or spring semester or more than 6 semester hours in summer.

Grading System

The grading system at Northern is based on the following descriptions:

- A represents exceptionally high achievement as a result of aptitude, effort, and intellectual initiative.
- B represents high achievement as a result of ability and effort.
- C represents average achievement, the minimum expected of a college student.
- D represents the minimum passing grade except for courses taken on a pass/fail basis. The grade of D may not be awarded in graduate courses.
- F indicates failure in a course. Credit in a course where an F was earned can be obtained only by repeating the course successfully.
- I means that part of the work in a course remains incomplete. It is given only at the student’s request and where there is reasonable possibility that a passing grade will result from completion of the work. An I must be completed by midterm of the next full semester; otherwise a grade of F is assigned by the instructor. In unusual circumstances the appropriate dean may grant an extension of time, to a specified date, for removal of an I and will notify the registrar of such action. In no case, however, will more than two extensions be granted for an I.
- K represents satisfactory progress in courses identified by the department, the dean, and the registrar as developmental and/or remedial. Students receiving K will be required to register for that course again the next semester. During the semester in which the student achieves proficiency in the course that was previously assigned the grade of K, the instructor will assign a standard letter grade of A, B, C, etc., or a P if the course is offered only on a pass/fail basis. At that time, semester hours attempted and semester hours earned in the course will appear on the student’s permanent record.
- N represents satisfactory performance in those courses that carry academic credit but must be taken in conjunction with other courses.
- P represents satisfactory performance, or “passing,” in those courses graded pass/fail. Only the grade of C or better is considered passing on the pass/fail system.
- T represents an audit (no academic credit awarded).
- W represents an official withdrawal from a course. The W will appear on the permanent academic record but will not be used in computing the student’s grade point average.

Auditing a Course

1. A student may enroll for an audit (T) grade when academic credit is not desired. The same registration procedures are followed and the same tuition/fees are charged as for credit courses. Audited courses do not apply to any degree or certificate program.

2. Class attendance will be consistent with University policy. Other course requirements will vary depending upon the nature of the course and the individual instructor or program.

3. An appeal from audit to credit or credit to audit must be done by the last day to register for a class. An Audit form must be completed and filed in the Office of the Registrar, AC 301 by the last day to register or enter a class. Refunds for withdrawals from audited courses are calculated according to NKU policy.

Grade Change

1. If due to an error a grade change is required, it must be accomplished by midterm of the next full semester after the issuance of the incorrect grade.

2. For I grades being changed to letter grades, the instructor and department chair must approve the change; for letter grade changes to another letter grade, the instructor, the department chairperson, and the appropriate dean must approve.

3. If the time limitation stated above has been exceeded, the instructor must attach a written explanation of the causes for the delay and deliver the change to the chair, who will forward any approved changes to the appropriate dean’s office.

4. Changes become official when received and recorded by the Office of the Registrar.

Pass/Fail—Student-Initiated Option

1. The student-initiated option to take a course pass/fail encourages students to experiment in academic disciplines by enrolling in courses they may not take normally if subjected to the same grading pressures incurred as in their major area of study. For this reason, pass/fail can contribute substantially to a student’s breadth of experience at NKU.

2. To exercise the option to enroll in a course on a pass/fail basis, the student must complete a form obtainable at the Office of the Registrar. This can be done at the time of registration but not later than the last day to register or enter a class for that semester/term as listed in the appropriate Schedule of Classes.
3. Taking courses pass/fail under the student-initiated option is subject to the following restrictions:
   The individual must be a bachelor’s student who has attained junior standing (having earned 60 semester hours or more). Courses taken pass/fail must be elective in nature and cannot be applicable to specific general education, major, or minor/area of concentration requirements.
   Pass/fail courses may be applied toward upper-division course requirements.
   No more than 12 semester hours toward graduation may be completed through the student initiated pass/fail.
   Only the grade of C or above will be considered passing when courses are taken under the pass/fail option; the grades of D and F will be recorded as failing grades.
   The grade of P will not be computed in the grade-point average but will be credited as semester hours earned and will count toward graduation under the restrictions previously mentioned; the grade of F will be computed in the student’s grade-point average as hours attempted.
   Students must declare their intention to take a course under the pass/fail option no later than the last day to register or enter a course for a specific semester or term as stated in Schedule of Classes.
   The choice to receive a traditional letter grade or a pass/fail grade cannot be changed after the last day to register or enter a course except by withdrawal or by repeating the course.

4. Under the student initiated pass/fail policy, the instructor will not know who is taking the course for a traditional letter grade or pass/fail. At semester end, the instructor will submit traditional letter grades for all students. For those students taking the course as pass/fail, grades will be converted by the Office of the Registrar.

5. Should a student change major or minor/area of concentration after having taken a course under the student-initiated pass/fail option, any discussion regarding acceptance of the course for major or minor/area of concentration requirements would be made on an individual basis by the appropriate department chair. If needed, and with the student’s permission, the instructor’s record of the original letter grade could be consulted in such a case.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

1. The grade point average (GPA) is the ratio of the number of quality points earned to the number of semester hours attempted in courses numbered 100 and above.
2. An A counts 4 quality points for each semester hour earned; a B, 3 points; a C, 2 points; a D, 1 point; and an F, zero. Thus a student would earn 12 quality points for an A in a 3 semester hour course and 4 quality points for a C in a 2 semester hour course.
3. To compute the GPA, add all quality points and divide this sum by the number of semester hours attempted. The GPA for the courses above would be 16.5/5 or 3.2.
4. Grades of I, K, N, P, T, and W do not affect the GPA; a grade of F does affect it.

President’s Honors List

1. All undergraduates attempting at least 12 semester hours earning quality points (excluding developmental coursework) who achieve a grade point average of 4.00 at the completion of a semester’s work will be appointed to the President’s Honors List.
2. All undergraduates attempting at least 8 semester hours earning quality points (excluding developmental coursework) achieving a GPA of 3.60 or greater at completion of a semester’s work will be appointed to the Dean’s List.
3. All undergraduates attempting at least 3 semester hours earning quality points (excluding developmental course work) achieving a GPA of 3.60 or greater at completion of a semester’s work will be appointed to the Scholar’s List.

Repeating/Retaking a Course

1. A student wishing to repeat a course must file an Option to Repeat form with the Office of the Registrar, AC 301.
2. Only students receiving a grade of D or F are permitted to repeat a course once for each of four courses. It is permissible to repeat a required course a second time, i.e., a major/minor or general education requirement, exercising one of the student’s four options. In any event, the last grade prevails and the original grade is removed from the GPA computation.
3. The student must petition his/her dean, in writing, for any exceptions to the repeat policy. If more than four D or F grades are received, the student should always petition for an exception to the repeat policy before retaking courses.
4. If the four repeat options have been exercised, and a student is required to retake a course in which a D or F was received to proceed with her/his academic program, both entries will remain on the permanent record. Both grades will be calculated into the GPA and for fulfilling major requirements, if applicable. However, if the course is passed both times, only the initial passing grade is used to satisfy institutional semester hour requirements for a degree. The student can petition his/her dean for more repeats.
5. Courses in which a C or higher was earned will not be retaken nor will credit be earned unless it is a course such as independent study where the course content is different or is specifically referred to as repeatable in the course description. If it is determined in the degree audit process that a student has the same non-repeatable course both with C or better grades on his/her record, the grade for the first time the course was passed will be the course counted toward all institutional and program requirements (e.g., hours earned, GPA, honors, program, etc.). Upon written recommendation by the department chair, an exception to the repeat policy may be obtained for students who earned C or better grades. This exception applies to course work which places time restrictions on course applicability in a specific program. An example may be a nursing course taken more than five years ago. Such written requests must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar.
6. The repeat option may not be invoked for any course previously passed on the student’s academic record at the time any degree was awarded by NKU. Similarly, if transfer work was included as part of the hours used for an AAS degree and D and F grades were included on the record, the transfer work may not be reevaluated to eliminate these grades in the computation of the GPA even if the student declares a new catalog.
7. The repeat policy is applicable to Northern Kentucky University coursework only. It may not be invoked by petitioning the use of acceptable transfer work even if the transfer course is equivalent to a Northern Kentucky University course.
8. Discontinued courses may not be repeated unless a new course covering the same content has been created to replace the discontinued course. Verification from the department chair is required before such a substitution may be allowed. Under no circumstances may one course of different content substitute for another under the repeat policy.

Enrollment in Developmental Studies Courses

Students will be permitted to enroll in developmental studies courses (090-level courses in English, mathematics, and reading) up to a maximum of three times per course. For this policy, enrollment is defined as having been officially registered for the course at any time during the semester.
Declarati on/Change of Major

The University finds it advantageous to permit students to declare a major at the time they register as freshmen. Under no circumstances, however, must this initial declaration be considered as binding. It is quite possible for freshmen students uncertain about their major to declare an “undecided” major. Students seeking the bachelor’s degree will be required to declare a major before completion of 50 semester hours earned. Transfer students entering with more than 50 earned semester hours will be required to declare a major by the end of their first semester of enrollment.

Students seeking the associate degree will be required to declare a major before completion of 25 semester hours earned. Transfer students entering with more than 25 earned semester hours will be required to declare a major by the end of their first semester of enrollment.

It is very important that the student keep the Office of the Registrar notified of decisions concerning his/her major. It is the student’s responsibility to file a Declaration/Change of Major form with the academic department and the Registrar.

POLICY ON TRANSFER OF UNDERGRADUATE CREDIT

Transfer of Undergraduate Credit

a. Only coursework from a regionally accredited institution for which the student earned a minimum GPA of 2.00 on a 4.00 scale will be considered for transfer credit acceptance.

b. Courses will transfer as “credit” only. The cumulative grade point average at NKU will be based only on those courses attempted at NKU. Transferred semester hours are applied toward the total hours required for graduation from NKU.

c. Students who earn transfer credit (or a combination of transfer credit and NKU credit) within one semester hour of that necessary for completion of a general education category will be considered to have completed that category if all content requirements are fulfilled.

d. In addition, a transfer student must:
   (i) Satisfy the requirements of his/her major program. A student may not transfer all the courses necessary for a major. It is recommended that at least half the work in a major be taken at NKU, but majors may set specific limits on the amount of transfer credit granted. The appropriate chairperson will make final determination requirements of a student’s major.
   (ii) Meet the grade-point requirements of NKU for the present semester in college (e.g., a student who has enrolled in her/his first semester at NKU must achieve a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.00 to avoid probation). (See “Probation” and “Suspension” on page 36.) A student placed on probation/suspension at another institution must confer with NKU’s Director of Admissions prior to a decision concerning acceptance.

e. Effective fall semester 1991 and for subsequent semesters, NKU will no longer accept course credits for transfer from institutions that are not regionally accredited unless a formal articulation agreement has been approved.

f. Students from unaccredited institutions have the option to earn prior learning credit through NKU’s non-traditional credit opportunities of portfolio development, advance standing examination, and College Level Examination Program (CLEP) testing.

Transfer of Credit from Professional or Graduate Schools to NKU’s Bachelor’s Programs

a. A student who receives early admission to certain professional or graduate schools may, under certain conditions, transfer credits back to NKU from that school to meet NKU’s requirements for graduation with the bachelor’s degree. Such schools are usually medical schools, dental schools, law schools, schools of social work, and schools of veterinary medicine. To be excluded from this group are schools that grant a bachelor’s degree to students who transfer credits to them. Also excluded are professional schools not accredited by a regional accrediting association for institutions of higher education.

b. To meet minimum conditions, the student must complete at least 90 semester hours of work at NKU, meet general education requirements of the University before he/she leaves, and satisfy requirements of her/his major.

c. Courses taken at the graduate or professional school may be used to meet major requirements at the discretion of the student’s adviser and department chair with the approval of the Office of the Registrar and appropriate dean.

d. Transfer of credit must be effected at the end of a student’s initial year of post-bachelor’s study.

e. A student who receives early admission to a graduate or professional school and who meets the above conditions is urged to discuss with his/her chair the possibility of transferring credit from the school to NKU. A student permitted to transfer such credit must have an appropriate transcripts sent to Northern and must also complete application for the bachelor’s degree from Northern.

f. Students are warned that in a few cases their early admission to graduate or professional school may permanently disbar them from licensure in certain states. It is the responsibility of the student to ascertain requirements of the state in which he/she plans to practice.

Academic Advising

In recognition of the value of regular consultation with a knowledgeable University official, NKU makes academic advising available to all students through the various academic departments, the Academic Advising Resource Center (see “Advising Services” on page 143.

These services, highly recommended, are required by specific academic departments. Although the University reserves the right to evaluate the student’s course of study, to prescribe requirements as to programs, and to enforce prerequisites, corequisites, and similar course restrictions, responsibility for completing program requirements and selecting courses rests with the student.

Experimental Courses

Experimental courses in a variety of subjects are offered each semester. All carry regular academic credit as electives. Many are crosslisted by cooperating departments and programs for elective credit toward the major in the respective disciplines.

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

Cooperative Education at Northern Kentucky University is an academic option that incorporates related work experience into the student’s program of study. This learning experience involves gainful employment, and academic credit is earned and applied toward associate and bachelor’s degrees. The employment experience is planned, supervised, and coordinated by employers, faculty coordinators, and the Career Development staff.
Requirements
To be admitted to the Cooperative Education program, students must have an overall GPA of at least 2.20 (based on a 4.00 scale). This grade-point average must be retained throughout the student’s academic experience involving cooperative education.

To qualify as candidates for the program, associate degree students must have completed 15 semester hours; bachelor’s degree students, 30 semester hours. Students are required to participate in the co-op program for two semesters. Students must apply and be approved prior to registering for co-op credit. Interested students should contact Career Development, 859-572-5680.

Patterns of Cooperative Employment
Two patterns of employment are available:
Alternating—Students will be employed full-time (minimum of 40 hours per week or equivalent) one semester and will be in school full-time the following semester. Students will normally engage in two cooperative education terms. While on an alternating work assignment, students will maintain full-time status for purposes of student benefits and activities.
Parallel—Students will be employed half-time (minimum of 20 hours per week or equivalent) and will be enrolled in school for a minimum of 6 semester hours of coursework in addition to Cooperative Education each semester. Bachelor’s degree students will usually engage in four Cooperative Education terms in the parallel mode; associate degree students, two terms.

Academic Credit
Credit earned in Cooperative Education counts toward NKU graduation requirements for the associate or the bachelor’s degree. Credit is not considered as “add-on” credit. Bachelor’s degree students may apply a total of 12 semester hours toward the requirements; associate degree students, 6 semester hours. Cooperative Education is graded pass/fail.

Cooperative Education credit does not replace any general education requirements. The application of Cooperative Education credit toward the degree will be determined by the student and the academic advisor.

Academic loads may vary depending on special arrangements agreed to by a student’s academic unit and the Career Development Center.

Cooperative Education courses have the prefix CEP.

Tuition
Cooperative Education students pay the usual tuition fees (no special fees).

MISSION AND GOALS FOR THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
The College of Arts and Sciences comprises twelve academic departments offering instruction in fine arts, humanities, and behavioral, social, mathematical, and natural sciences. Several interdisciplinary programs, the Master of Computer Science, and the Master of Public Administration are also housed in this college. The faculty and staff are committed to a three-fold role in the University:

1. to provide all students with a liberal arts education through the University’s general education program;
2. to serve the academic needs of students majoring and minoring in Arts and Sciences programs;
3. to render curricular support for students majoring in programs of the College of Business, College of Education, and the College of Professional Studies.

ACCREDITATION/AFFILIATIONS
American Chemical Society
National Association of Schools of Music

COLLEGE-WIDE REQUIREMENTS
Each new student with a major in the College of Arts and Sciences must meet with an adviser. All students are encouraged to meet regularly with an adviser.

COLLEGE-WIDE GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
1. satisfactorily complete (GPA of at least 2.00) a minimum of 128 semester hours;
2. satisfy the requirements of the University’s 45 upper-division semester hours;
3. satisfy the requirements of the student’s academic major;
4. satisfy the requirements of the student’s academic minor or area of concentration with exceptions outlined in specific major;
5. satisfy the University’s general education requirements.
To help students at Northern through curriculum, art exhibitions, to contribute to the broad educational background that is the mark of the cultured person. To train teachers of the visual arts. To graduate with the BFA from the department, students must achieve and maintain a minimum overall GPA of 2.00 and must have a minimum GPA of 3.00 in their major. All students majoring in art are required to take one 3-semester-hour general education course from music or theatre. The grade of D is not applicable toward the major in art. A student receiving a grade of D must repeat the course in order to obtain a grade of C or better. A course may be repeated only twice for this purpose. Senior BFA students who have applied for graduation are required to register for ART 497: Senior Exhibition which requires an exhibit and faculty critique of their work.

Intermedia

The department offers an Intermedia option for students interested in a cross-disciplinary approach to the studio arts. This option draws upon already existing courses and/or courses that might be taught on an experimental basis in the department. With two advising faculty members from appropriate areas within the department, a student writes a contract to combine studio areas at the 300 level or above to form an Intermedia emphasis.

Please note: This area of emphasis is available only after an art major has made successful application for the BFA program.

Transfer Students

Art students transferring to Northern and anticipating graduation from Northern must complete at least 15 semester hours of coursework in the department. Department curriculum requirements will be determined in consultation with such students in the first semester of their transfer. If their intention is to acquire the BFA degree, students transferring to Northern who have completed 75 or more semester hours of study, including 21 hours or more in art, must submit their portfolio for review by the art faculty. This should be done during the student’s first semester with the department.

The department has policies concerning advanced standing, testing out, and portfolio review. Upon admission to the university, students should contact the art department chair and/or an advisor as soon as possible. Advising sheets are available in the department office.

FACULTY’S MAIN OBJECTIVES

1. To provide the training necessary to enable students to achieve the level of artist and designer.
2. To prepare students to continue their educational experiences in a graduate institution.
3. To train teachers of the visual arts.
4. To serve the community and the Commonwealth by presenting visual arts to the public.
5. To contribute to the broad educational background that is the mark of the cultured person.
6. To help students at Northern through curriculum, art exhibitions, and experience in gallery work to acquire discriminating taste and soundness of judgment in matters pertaining to the arts.

Students who come with ACT scores (or comparable SAT Scores) that enable them to enter the University without having to take a developmental course or courses may declare as pre-biology majors. A student with one or more identified deficiencies on the ACT may also qualify for pre-biology status after passing the appropriate placement exam(s).

(1) Students who come with ACT scores (or comparable SAT Scores) that enable them to enter the University without having to take a developmental course or courses may declare as pre-biology majors. A student with one or more identified deficiencies on the ACT may also qualify for pre-biology status after passing the appropriate placement exam(s).

(2) Students may qualify for acceptance as a pre-biology major after they complete (with a minimum grade of C) any developmental courses required as a result of low ACT scores.

Once a student has been accepted as a pre-major in the Department, he or she will be assigned a departmental adviser. Prior to that time, she or he will be advised by an academic adviser in the College of Arts and Sciences Advising Center.

A student who has been accepted as a pre-major in the Department of Biological Sciences may enroll in courses in introductory biology (BIO 150 & 151) and general chemistry (CHE 120 & 121). Once these courses, along with a course in mathematics (MAT 120 or 205), have been completed with a grade of C or higher, a student may be admitted as a biology major. Unless special permission is given by the course instructor and approved by the chair, a pre-biology major who has not been admitted as a biology major will not be allowed to enroll in 200-level or higher level biology courses (with the exception of BIO 202, 208, 209, and 272).

Transfer students who enter Northern with completed coursework in biology, chemistry, and mathematics (minimum grade of C required) that is evaluated as equivalent to that mentioned above may apply for admission as a biology major. Students without equivalent courses in biology, chemistry, and mathematics and with no admission deficiencies may apply for admission as a pre-biology major. Ideally, this determination will be made prior to a student’s first semester of enrollment. If this is not accomplished in a timely manner, the student will be admitted as a pre-major in biology until an evaluation of transfer work can be completed. This assumes that the transfer student has completed any necessary developmental work as discussed above.

The plan stated above applies to those students pursuing degrees in general biology, teacher education in biology, environmental science, and to those interested in any of the pre-professional areas offered by the Department. Since the first year curriculum for all of these programs is essentially the same, the requirements for admission stated above apply to all programs in the Department.

Transfer Students

Transfer students obtaining a major in biological sciences must complete 20 of the required 39 semester hours in biological sciences at NKU. Transfer students who have completed a year of major-level college prior to arrival at Northern are encouraged to enroll in BIO 152-153 (Biology Orientation I and II) at their earliest opportunity. These are 1-semester-hour courses designed to provide an orientation to the discipline of biology as well as to the department and its faculty.

DEPARTMENT POLICIES

Students must obtain approval of their curricula in consultation with an adviser in the department.

Six semester hours of cooperative education credit may be applied toward the 39 semester hours required for the major in biological sciences. Applicability of cooperative education credit to fulfill area requirements (A.7 below) will be determined on an individual basis. Arrangements to use cooperative education credit for the major must be made among the student, the student’s adviser, and the cooperative education coordinator in biological sciences prior to registration for such credit.

The degree of Bachelor of Science, major in biological sciences, is conferred upon students completing: (a) requirements for a major in biological sciences, and (b) other NKU requirements for the degree.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts, major in biological sciences, is conferred upon students completing, in addition to requirements for the Bachelor of Science, the following: (a) at least 8 semester hours in a modern foreign language, (b) at least 3 semester hours in philosophy, and (c) at least 3 semester hours in fine arts.

NOTE: These additional courses may also be used to satisfy, in part, the general education requirements.

Undergraduate Research

The best way for students to learn about science is by doing science. Therefore, the department strongly encourages all students majoring in biology to participate in research with a faculty member. To prepare for this, students should complete BIO 240 (Information Resources in Biological Sciences) as soon as possible following the completion of BIO 150-151. This course helps students develop the skills they will need to effectively research the literature available on a topic. BIO 340 (Principles of Research) should then be taken as soon as possible following comple-
At least 39 semester hours of courses in biological sciences or

BIO 491 Comprehensive Examination.

Assessment Testing

Prior to graduation, all students majoring in biology are required to pass a comprehensive exam. This examination is designed to verify that the graduating student has at least a basic knowledge of the broad area of the biological sciences. This requirement applies to general biology majors as well as students majoring in teacher education in biology and will be met by registering for BIO 491 Comprehensive Examination during the senior year. Students who fail the exam will not be allowed to graduate until the exam is passed.

FACULTY’S PRIMARY OBJECTIVES

1. To help students develop exact, critical, and independent thought.
2. To increase students’ perception, understanding, and appreciation of themselves and of their environment.
3. To create student awareness of and interest in the role of the biological sciences in meeting societal and economic needs.
4. To emphasize to students the importance of interdisciplinary science experiences and proficiency.
5. To provide for students the biological sciences background necessary for entrance into a career or into graduate and professional schools.
6. To make fully available to residents of northern Kentucky and greater Cincinnati the resources of the faculty.
7. To maintain excellence of the faculty through continuing professional activity.

BACHELOR’S DEGREE PROGRAMS

General Biology

The general biology program is designed to give students a strong background in biological sciences preparatory to a biologically oriented career or to graduate work. Student interest in botany, aquatic biology, microbiology, medical technology, zoology, or other facets of biology—or in any combination of these—can be met by taking, as “electives” in the curriculum suggested below, courses in these disciplines; details of such emphases should be worked out in consultation with an adviser.

Requirements for a major in general biology are as follows:

A. At least 39 semester hours of courses in biological sciences or biochemistry (CHE 482, 482L, 483) (minimum acceptable grade: C), including:
   1. BIO 150-150L-150R, 151-151L-151R Introduction to Biology I and II
   2. BIO 240 Information Resources in Biological Sciences
   3. BIO 352-352L Genetics
   4. BIO 340 Principles of Research

      BIO 358 Evolution of Organisms

   BIO 409 Biogeography

7. At least one course from two of the following three areas with a minimum of 3 semester hours from each selected area (a course from the remaining area is strongly recommended); a course used to fulfill one area cannot also be used to fulfill another area:
   a. Animal Biology: BIO 300, 301, 303, 305, 320, 381, 404, 407, 421, 425, 440
   b. Plant Biology: BIO 211, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 416, 445, 446

8. BIO 491 Comprehensive Examination.

B. The following courses in supporting disciplines (minimum acceptable grade: C):

Option 2 is not open to students with interests in pre-dentistry, pre-medicine, pre-optometry, pre-veterinary medicine, pre-pharmacy, or with plans for graduate school in areas such as biochemistry, physiology, microbiology, molecular biology, and others. It requires approval of student’s adviser and department chair. Approval must be obtained during the semester that CHE 310 is being taken or before, not during program certification.

MAT 120 Calculus I (or MAT 205 Introduction to Statistical Methods)
PHY 211, 213 General Physics with Laboratory I and II
PHY 220, 222 University Physics with Laboratory I and II

C. General Education Stipulation. Student will satisfy the humanities requirement of the General Education Requirements (see “HUMANITIES” on page 27) by taking a sequence of two courses in the same Foreign Language.”

General Biology Suggested Semester-by-Semester Curriculum Plan

The following is a suggested semester-by-semester curriculum plan for a four-year program of study in general biology. However, the faculty understands that the demands of work, family, and numerous other factors may make it necessary for some students to take five years or even longer to complete a degree.

Freshman Year

BIO 150-150L-150R, 151-151L-151R
Teacher Education in Biology

The teacher education program in biology is designed to give future biology teachers a broad overview of the biological sciences. This has been assured by the wide range of biological science courses required by the program. The additional requirement of related courses such as chemistry and physics will provide students with the background necessary for teaching in these areas, if the need should arise.

The program below meets all requirements of the State Department of Education and NKU for certification in biology. Because of the need to meet both professional and general education requirements, there is little flexibility in this program. One should note that the departmental requirements for this program differ from those established for the major in general biology.

Transfer students pursuing a degree in teacher education in biology must meet the minimum transfer requirements stated earlier in this section. Students with a degree in another discipline who wish to become biology teachers may do so by completing only certification requirements.

Students pursuing a biology/secondary education curriculum should review that portion of this catalog relating to secondary education. Upon deciding to pursue the teacher education program, students must meet with the coordinator of certification and advisement in the College of Education.

Environmental Science

The Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science is an interdisciplinary degree offered in collaboration with the Department of Chemistry and the Department of Physics and Geology. It is designed to provide students breadth in the scientific disciplines associated with environmental issues. For program details, please see “Interdisciplinary Studies,” “Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science” on page 84 of this catalog.

The Minor in Biological Sciences

Requirements for a minor in biological sciences are as follows:

A. At least 23 semester hours in biological sciences (minimum acceptable grade: C), including:

1. BIO 150-150L, 151-151L-151R Introduction to Biology I and II

PRE-PROFESSIONAL CURRICULA

Pre-Dentistry and Pre-Medicine

In preparation for admission to dental or medical schools, it is advisable to obtain a broad background in natural sciences, social sciences, and humanities. Students should consult bulletin from schools of their choice for specific entrance requirements. The usual minimum requirements for admission to dental or medical schools are listed page 139 of this catalog under “Pre-Professional Programs.”

Dental and medical schools give preference to applicants with the bachelor’s degree. In exceptional cases, however, such schools may accept students after completion of the junior year. Under certain conditions, credit earned during the first year at dental or medical school may be accepted by Northern to fulfill its requirements for the fourth year of undergraduate studies leading to the bachelor’s degree. Students considering such a three-year program at Northern should, in consultation with an adviser, plan curricula that satisfy the requirements set forth under “Transfer of Credit from Professional or Graduate Schools to NKU’s Bachelor’s Programs” on page 39 of this catalog.

Since most students will complete a degree in general biology enroute to the completion of requirements for acceptance into medical or dental school, the previously mentioned curriculum plan for a general biology degree should be followed. Faculty advisers strongly recommend that pre-medical and pre-dental students include BIO 302 General Microbiology, BIO 360 Cell Biology, and BIO 482 Biochemistry I among the courses taken to meet degree requirements.

In their junior year, students must register with Northern’s Pre-Medical Review Board to indicate intended application to medical or dental school. Information on the Board may be obtained from students’ advisers.

Pre-Veterinary Medicine

Although Kentucky does not have a school of veterinary medicine, a limited number of Kentucky residents are selected to enter training in veterinary medicine at Auburn University (Auburn, Alabama) and Tuskegee Institute (Tuskegee, Alabama). These students are exempt from out-of-state tuition.

Most students require at least three years to complete the courses required for admission to veterinary schools. Such a three-year curriculum is presented below. Under certain conditions, credit earned during the first year of veterinary school may be transferred back to Northern to meet the University’s graduation requirements for the bachelor’s degree. Students considering a three-year pre-veterinary program at Northern should, in consultation with an adviser, plan curricula that satisfy the requirements set forth under “Transfer of Credit from Professional or Graduate Schools to NKU’s Bachelor’s Programs” on page 39 of this catalog.

Because more students apply to veterinary schools than are accepted, it is strongly recommended that all pre-vet students plan their curricula in such a way that the addition of a year of coursework will satisfy Northern’s requirements for the bachelor’s degree in general biology. A suggested senior year in the curriculum outlined below would consist, each semester, of 9 semester hours of electives in biological sciences and 9 semester hours of other electives.

Pre-Optometry

Students intending to enter the field of optometry should consult with the pre-optometry adviser in planning their curricula. In general, the pre-optometry curriculum (general biology degree plan) with two semesters of calculus is a useful model.

Residents of Kentucky are provided spaces at Indiana University School of Optometry (Bloomington), Southern College of Optometry (Memphis, Tennessee), and the University of Alabama at Birmingham School of Optometry. These students are exempt from out-of-state tuition.

Pre-Pharmacy

Students planning a career in pharmacy may follow a pre-pharmacy curriculum at NKU for two years and then transfer to a school of pharmacy for the three years of professional training.

In preparation for admission to pharmacy schools, students should be familiar with specific entrance requirements as outlined in the most recent bureaus from the schools of their choice. The courses listed below can be considered as a core curriculum required by most pharmacy schools. However, individual colleges of pharmacy may require special prerequisite courses. For this reason, students must work closely with their advisors.

Students not admitted to a pharmacy school after the sophomore year may, by completing two additional years at Northern, satisfy NKU requirements for graduation with the bachelor’s degree in general biology. They must work closely with their advisors in planning these years.

Pre-Physical Therapy

Students planning a career in physical therapy may complete their pre-professional coursework at Northern. They may then apply for admission to and, if accepted, transfer to an institution offering a degree in physical therapy.

At the earliest opportunity, students should schedule an appointment with a faculty adviser to discuss minimum requirements for admission to schools of physical therapy. Students should also consult the catalogs of any schools they plan to apply to.

Students are accepted into physical therapy programs at the University of Kentucky and Bellarmine University without a bachelor’s degree. Those completing these programs receive the degree of Bachelor of Health Science the Degree of Master of Science in Physical Therapy. For up-to-date information, students should check current catalogs or websites. For UK the website is http://www.mc.uky.edu/PT and the website for Bellarmine is http://www.bellarmine.edu/.

If a student is not accepted into a physical therapy school or decides to change major, semester hours earned in this program may be applied toward a bachelor’s degree at NKU.

Students must make certain that they complete all required pre-professional courses as well as the general education requirements for any university to which they plan to apply.

In addition to the required courses listed here, certification in first aid and in CPR is required. Students are encouraged to take some coursework in summer to reduce the heavy course load in fall and spring semesters.

For some, it may be more realistic to plan on three years at NKU instead of two.

Pre-Physician Assistant

Students planning a career as a physician assistant may complete pre-professional coursework at Northern while earning a bachelor’s degree in the biological sciences. Physician assistant programs are generally masters degree programs that require a bachelor’s degree prior to entry. For example, the University of Kentucky offers a Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies. Admission to the program requires: 1) a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college with a minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale; 2) a combined score of 1200 on the GRE; and 3) a minimum grade of C on pre-requisite courses. Prerequisite courses include the following:

- BIO 150 & 151 Introduction to Biology I and II
- BIO 272 Medical and Biological Terminology
- BIO 302 General Microbiology
- BIO 425 & 426 Mammalian Anatomy & Physiology I & II
- CHE 120 & 121 General Chemistry I & II
- CHE 310 & 311 Organic Chemistry I & II
- PSY 100 Introduction to Psychology
- PSY 220 Lifespan Development or PSY 320 Psychology of Adult Development
- ANT 100 Cultural Anthropology or SOC 100 Introductory Sociology

Students interested in completing prerequisite requirements for a physician assistant program should follow the curriculum plan presented earlier for the degree in general biology. Courses listed above that are not a part of the biology degree may be taken as partial fulfillment of general education requirements. At the earliest opportunity, students should schedule an appointment with a faculty adviser to discuss their interest in becoming a physician assistant. For up-to-date information about the UK program, students should check their website at http://www.mc.uky.edu/PA. Students interested in physician assistant programs at other universities should consult the catalogs or websites of those institutions.

Pre-Forestry

Students interested in forestry may take their first two years of coursework at Northern and then finish work for the bachelor’s degree in forestry at a forestry school. If, at the end of the sophomore year, such students do not go on to forestry school the earned credits may be applied toward a bachelor’s degree at Northern. In addition to preprofessional requirements, students will have to complete general education requirements of the school they attend. Pre-professional requirements for forestry school at the University of Kentucky include the following:

- MAT 111 Introductory Linear Mathematics
- MAT 119 Pre-Calculus Mathematics
- MAT 121 Calculus IA
- MAT 205 Introduction to Statistical Methods
- CHE 120 & 121 Introduction to General Chemistry I & II
- BIO 150 & 151 Introduction to Biology I & II
- PHY 211 General Physics I
- ECO 201 Principles of Microeconomics
- AEC Economics of Food & Agriculture
- GEO 306 Environmental Resource Management
- SOC 340 Population or SOC 355 Sociology of the Environment

At the earliest opportunity, students should schedule an appointment with an adviser and consult the catalogs or websites of any forestry schools that they plan to consider. The University of Kentucky website is http://www.ca.uky.edu/agecollege/teaching/sas/programs/for/overview.htm. The curriculum plan for general biology, presented earlier, may be used as a guide for planning the first year of coursework.

Pre-Wildlife Management

Students interested in wildlife management may complete their first two years of coursework at Northern and then finish work for the bachelor’s degree in wildlife management at a university offering such a degree. The first two years of the curriculum plan presented earlier for general biology may be used as a guide for courses to be taken while at Northern. However, at the earliest opportunity, students should consult the catalog or website (for Eastern Kentucky University students should refer to http://www.biology.eku.edu/FREDERIC/wild.htm) of the wildlife management program they plan to attend and work with an NKU adviser to make certain that minimum requirements for admission are met. If at the end of the sophomore year, such students do not go on to another school, the earned credits may be applied toward a bachelor’s degree at Northern.

The Center for Integrated Natural Science and Mathematics (CINSAM)

Phillip Schmidt, director

The mission of CINSAM is to enhance the teaching, learning, and applying of science and mathematics at NKU and in the schools of the northern Kentucky region through interdisciplinary collaboration.

The Council on Postsecondary Education (CPE) established the Center in 1999 as the Program of Distinction at Northern Kentucky University.

Goals for the Center are:

- Prepare teachers for science and mathematics by offering integrative science and mathematics coursework for prospective teachers at all levels and by developing programs of outreach and continuing education for current teachers.
- Prepare students who are capable of handing complex interdisciplinary problems by working with faculty and departments to develop interdisciplinary science and mathematics coursework, by enabling students to collaborate with faculty on research projects, and by facilitating externship opportunities for students with local business and industry.
- Equip the general citizenry to understand science and mathematics by offering opportunities for student of our schools to interact with faculty and students of the University and by developing learning opportunities that are accessible to the wider community.

For additional information, visit CINSAM’s website at www.cinsam.org.

In preparation for admission to dental or medical schools, it is advisable to obtain a broad background in natural sciences, social studies, and humanities. Students should consult bulletins from dental and medical schools of their choice for specific entrance requirements. The usual minimum requirements for admission to dental or medical schools are listed elsewhere in this catalog.

In the fall of their junior year, students must register with Northern’s Pre-Medical and Pre-Dental Review Board to indicate intended application to these professional schools.

The sample curriculum below lists general requirements and leads to the Bachelor of Arts, major in chemistry

If students do not gain admission to pharmacy school, they may then graduate with a bachelor’s degree at Northern by completing the requirements for a chemistry major. Individual colleges of pharmacy may require different prerequisite courses than those listed in this sample curriculum. Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with requirements of their schools of interest.

Pre-Veterinary Medicine
Although Kentucky does not have a school of veterinary medicine, a limited number of students who are residents of Kentucky are selected to enter training in veterinary medicine at Auburn University, Auburn, Alabama, and Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama. The students are exempt from out-of-state tuition. Students generally need to maintain a grade-point average (GPA) of at least 3.20 to be competitive for admission.
Because many more students apply to veterinary schools than are accepted, it is strongly advised that all pre-vet students plan their curricula in such a way that the addition of a year of coursework will satisfy Northern’s requirements for the bachelor’s degree. A suggested first year of coursework is shown below. To design a four-year curriculum that fulfills the pre-veterinary requirements and those for the BA degree in chemistry, interested students should consult with a chemistry adviser.

HISTORY AND GEOGRAPHY
The faculty of History and Geography encompasses two major academic disciplines, each of which is an integral part of the general education curriculum and each of which offers students opportunities for academic specialization. The disciplines also contribute to the following programs within the University: women’s studies, international studies, Latin American studies, Afro-American studies, and teacher education.

While it is expected that students will acquire the special skills and techniques of each discipline, the basic emphasis should be on a broad, imaginative, humanistic approach to the study of people and their institutions.

HISTORY
The major in history, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, is 39 semester hours, the minor 21 semester hours. The faculty also offers a minor in military history, details of which are given below. Prerequisites for the major and minor are few, the general requirements broad. The faculty does not necessarily endorse the building-block concept of courses; generally, it embraces the idea of history as a “way of thinking” and assumes the best prerequisite for any course is the bright, imaginative student.

Bachelor’s Degree Programs
Students must complete (a) survey courses either HIS 100-101 or HIS 108-109 and either HIS 102-103 or HIS 106-107; (b) HIS 385 Art and Method of History; and (c) at least one upper-division course in each of the following areas: United States history, European history, non-western history, and race and/or gender history. All remaining history courses (12 semester hours) must be upper-division. No grade below C may be applied to the major. Students majoring in history must have a grade-point average of at least 2.50 in courses counted towards in the major in order to be certified for graduation.

Students who successfully complete HIS 194 (Honors Seminar) need complete only two additional survey courses, but they must take an additional upper-division course to complete the requisite 39 semester hours for the major.

The history major of 39 semester hours may also serve as the nucleus for an Area of Concentration leading to teacher certification. Students pursuing teacher certification must schedule an appointment with the coordinator of certification and advisement in the College of Education at the beginning of their sophomore year since requirements vary. See under “Area of Concentration in Social Studies for Secondary Education” below for specific course requirements.

All students majoring in history are required to participate in outcomes assessment. This involves keeping a portfolio of written work completed in history courses at NKU.

Minors in History

History
Requirements for the minor in history are as follows: (a) students must complete one of the survey sequences (HIS 100-101, HIS 102-103, HIS 106-107 or 108-109); and (b) complete 15 additional semester hours in history (200-level or above).

Military History
The minor in military history offers a comprehensive range of courses in modern military history to students who are interested in the problem of war. It consists of 21 semester hours taken from the following:

Required courses (6 semester hours)
Two courses from the following list.
HIS 323 United States Military History (3)
HIS 365 European Military History: Ancient World to Renaissance (3)
HIS 366 European Military History: Renaissance to the Modern World (3)

Modern Wars (9 semester hours)
Three courses from the following list, each of which provides study of a significant modern conflict
HIS 311 The War for Independence and the Constitution 1763-1789 (3)
HIS 409 The French Revolution (3)
HIS 417 The Civil War and Reconstruction, 1860-1877 (3)
HIS 475 The First World War (3)
HIS 476 The Second World War (3)

Only those areas in which a minimum of 9 semester hours has been completed will be designated on the teaching certificate. An overall GPA of 2.50 is required in Social Studies area. 18

   Total 57 (58)

A minimum of 6 semester hours of U.S. history is required for the area of concentration in social studies.

Students completing this area of concentration are encouraged to obtain, in addition, a major in history by taking two further 100-level courses (HIS 100-101 or HIS 102-103 or HIS 106-107 or 108-109) and three further upper-division courses.

Students pursuing a social studies/secondary education curriculum should review that portion of the University catalog relating to education and health/physical education. Upon deciding to pursue the teacher education program, students must schedule an appointment with the coordinator of certification and advisement in the College of Education. Students completing the area in social studies are required to complete Teaching Social Studies in the Secondary School (EDU 331).
Since its inception in 1999 by a group of NKU faculty and staff members, the Institute for Freedom Studies (IFS) has grown rapidly. Located in Landrum 330, the Institute serves to promote interdisciplinary research, teaching, and community outreach, grounded in the scholarly study of American cultural history with a specific focus on the legacy of the enslavement experience and the Underground Railroad. Faculty offer Underground Railroad related courses each semester which explore and critique the themes of freedom, slavery, and resistance. Students gain valuable research experiences across a range of disciplines that enhance employment opportunities upon graduation.

The goals for the Institute are as follows:
1. Partnering with and helping to empower grassroots community groups active in local history studies.
2. Supporting interdisciplinary academic research in the history and culture of the Underground Railroad.
3. Developing curricula and faculty opportunities for teaching about the Underground Railroad and related movements on all education levels.
4. Working in partnership with the National Underground Railroad

The Freedom Center is scheduled to open its doors to Cincinnati in 2004.

For additional information regarding course offerings, internship opportunities, and community outreach initiatives, please contact Dr. Prince Brown, Jr., at 859-572-5817 or visit the Institute's web site at www.nku.edu/~freedom.

DEPARTMENT POLICIES

Foreign Language Requirement for the Major in English

All students majoring in English are required to complete successfully at least 6 semester hours in a single foreign language (Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Russian, or Spanish). Students with previous experience in a foreign language must consult the foreign language coordinator to determine the appropriate courses to fulfill this requirement.

Composition Courses

Before enrolling in composition courses, all students who do not have an English score of 18 or above on the current ACT or a comparable score on the enhanced ACT will take a test to be evaluated by the Faculty of Literature and Language. The writing test is voluntary for all other students.

1. For those judged unprepared for writing at the university level, the sequence of courses is ENG 090 (ENG 110 and/or ENG 111 for international students), ENG 101, and ENG 291.
2. Those whose writing is superior or whose English ACT score is 24 or higher on the current ACT or a comparable score on the enhanced ACT may qualify to enroll in Honors Freshman Composition (ENG 151) by passing the honors placement test or by petitioning the chair of Literature and Language for permission to enroll. Placement tests are available in the Health, Counseling, and Testing Center, University Center 366.
3. All other students will take ENG 101 and ENG 291.

The Writing Center

The Writing Center (BEP 230) offers free tutorial assistance in writing to all NKU students. Students enrolled in Writing Workshop (ENG 090) attend the center one hour a week for 10 weeks as a part of their coursework. Other students may come to the center for individual help with writing assignments required in their courses. Students using the Center are assisted by instructors from the Center and by trained student tutors.

The center is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and evenings by appointment.

Assessment

All graduating seniors with majors in English, French, or Spanish, or with minors with teaching certification in French, Spanish, or German, are required to turn in a portfolio at the time their program is certified for graduation. Guidelines for the portfolio can be found in the English Major and Foreign Language Major brochures. Performance on this assessment tool will have no bearing on a student’s GPA or ability to graduate but will be used by the department for internal evaluation of programs and services. Students who do not turn in a portfolio will not be allowed to graduate.

Grade Policy

No course in which a grade below a C is earned can be used to fulfill the major course requirements in English, French, or Spanish.

LITERATURE AND LANGUAGE

The major in English with emphasis on literature introduces students to texts from all periods of English and American literary history and prepares students to understand the relation of these works to the time in which they were written and to the present day.

The major in English with emphasis on literature and writing, though still based on the study of literature, allows students to specialize as well in creative, technical, or business writing.

Through training in research, communication, comprehension, and analysis, the major in English helps prepare students for careers in many professional areas, including business, law, government, public relations, and teaching.

The major in French and the major in Spanish, while requiring both literary and cultural study, allow students to emphasize literature or culture through the choice of electives and interdisciplinary courses.

The major in English, French, or Spanish with secondary certification is offered for students who wish to be certified for teaching on the high school or junior high school level.

In addition to offering its major and minor programs, the Faculty of Literature and Language serves the general student population by teaching how to write effectively and to read critically, by offering elective courses in literature, and by providing a basis for oral and written competence in Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Russian, and Spanish, as well as reading competence in Latin. The skills developed in writing, language, and literature courses aid students in pursuing careers that involve communication, interpretation, and understanding of human behavior, as well as in developing an appreciation for good writing and literary artistry.

PRE-MAJOR AND SELECTIVE ADMISSION

REQUIREMENTS
Students who plan to undertake studies in a mathematical or physical science, engineering, or any program requiring calculus (MAT 120) will need a background in mathematics equivalent to four years of high school work: Algebra I and II, geometry, trigonometry, and other fourth-year topics. Mathematics courses for other programs require at least Algebra I and Algebra II. Moreover, high school mathematics grades less than B do not normally indicate mastery adequate for college mathematics courses; as a result, high school courses for which a grade lower than B was received should not be considered part of the student’s background.

Deficiencies in a student’s mathematical background, resulting either from no prior acquaintance with certain subjects or from insufficient mastery of them, can be remedied in MAH 095, 097, 099, and MAT 109 and 119. MAH 095 and MAH 099 correspond to Algebra I and II respectively. MAH 097 corresponds to high school geometry. MAT 109 will prepare students for MAT 112 and 119. MAT 119 is a pre-calculus course.

Students should select the appropriate first mathematics course in consultation with an adviser. Placement testing to aid in the decision can be arranged by the Testing and Disability Services. Students must be careful to check the prerequisites for MAT courses. In particular, a pre-requisite of “MAH 099 or placement” means that mastery of two years of high school algebra will be assumed.

The Faculty of Mathematics and Computer Science offers courses in traditional mathematics, computer science, statistics, and operations research. Students who wish to pursue a program of study in any of these areas should consult a member of the faculty. Students interested in computing should also be aware of the Information Systems programs in the College of Business.

Transfer Students
Transfer students must take at least 6 semester hours toward a minor at NKU.

Combination of Majors or Minors
A double major in mathematics and computer science consists of satisfying the degree requirements for each major plus 6 additional semester hours chosen from courses applicable to either major.

A student majoring in computer science may count only courses with a MAT prefix toward a minor in mathematics.

A student majoring in mathematics may count only CSC courses toward a minor in computer science.

MATHEMATICS
Bachelor’s Degree Programs
A major in mathematics, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science, consists of MAT 120, 220, 224, 225, 230, 260, 260L, and 12 additional semester hours of mathematics or computer science courses numbered above MAT 225, excluding MAT 305. (NOTE: students pursuing teacher certification in secondary mathematics may include MAT 305). The 12 additional semester hours may not include more than 3 with a CSC prefix and must include one of the following sets of courses:

1. Three 400-level mathematics courses
2. MAT 360, 380, and 385

COMPUTER SCIENCE

Computer science is an applied science that investigates the structure and transformation of information. Computer scientists develop algorithms to solve problems in a wide range of areas, from network security to computer graphics and artificial intelligence. A key application of computer science is in software engineering, which is concerned with the design and analysis of complex real-world systems and their representation in terms of computer code. Software development plays a role in many computer science courses, although the focus of the major extends fare beyond programming. The study of computer science cultivates a mix of creative talent and technological expertise. While some NKU computer science majors pursue advanced degrees after graduation, most are employed in positions such as software analyst, systems architect, or software engineer.

Bachelor’s Degree Program

A major in computer science, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science, requires the following courses:

COMPUTER INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Bachelor’s Degree Program

The computer information technology major is designed to provide students with a broad background in information technology as found in a wide spectrum of organizations, including government, health care, business, and education. The “hands-on” curriculum explores a variety of areas that fall outside the realm of traditional academic computing disciplines in order to prepare a new breed of technology experts who can support, troubleshoot, maintain, repair, and supply training for the growing general application of software and hardware technologies. Graduates of this program will be prepared for employment in a variety of positions dealing with the support and administration of hardware and software technologies used in networks, systems, security, and the Web.
A major in computer information technology, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science, requires the following courses:

3. Transfer students planning to enter with junior standing or above must be admitted to a major prior to admittance.

Recommendations

1. The student may be admitted to the major unconditionally.
2. The student may be rejected from the major with the provision that he/she may reapply upon demonstration of improvement in designated areas.
3. The student may be rejected unconditionally.

To apply for admission to any music degree program, the student must have

DEPARTMENT POLICIES
1. Students who have been unsuccessful in their petition for a major are permitted to petition again for a different major or to petition again for the same major at a later time.
2. Students who have been denied a major or have not completed the requirements are permitted to register for basic-studies courses in music and/or general education but not for courses in the major specialization.

Academic Standards
Candidates for degrees in music are required to receive a grade of C or better in all music courses applied toward certification of the major or minor and to maintain a GPA of 2.50 in music courses.

Applied Music Requirements
All students majoring or minoring in music, and majoring in musical theatre studying applied voice, must perform a jury before a panel of faculty members at the end of each semester. At this time their grade for that semester and the approval or disapproval to register for the next higher level of study will be decided.

All freshmen students majoring in music will be admitted as provisional majors. At the end of the first year (two semesters of applied study) students must pass a Freshman Proficiency Jury as part of the admission process to major declaration. At the end of four semesters of applied study, students must pass the Sophomore Comprehensive to successfully enter a major. (If the four semesters are not completed consecutively, students must secure written permission from the appropriate faculty and the music chair to delay the examination.) Students not approved in the Sophomore Comprehensive must petition to retake the examination. The Sophomore Comprehensive may be taken three times only and will be heard by at least three music faculty members who, by a majority vote, will grade the performance as pass or fail. A summary of the faculty vote is recorded and filed in students’ permanent folders.

Applied Music Instruction
Individual instruction for qualified students is available in wind, brass, percussion, and string instruments, organ, piano, voice, classical guitar, harp, and harpsichord. Private lessons are provided weekly for one-half or for one hour. Students studying privately may earn 1 or 2 semester hours. The number of semester hours is determined by the length of the lesson (1/2 hr = 1 semester hour; 1 hour = 2 semester hours). Students will be assigned to applied-instructor instructors by the music chair or a designee. Request for a specific instructor will be honored when possible.

Fees:
- Applied music and composition: 1/2 hr. lesson per week $150.00

Performance Organizations
Membership in performance organizations is open to all qualified students. Ensembles include Northern Chorale, Chamber Choir, Vocal Jazz, University Concert Band, Symphonic Winds, Brass Choir, Jazz Ensemble, Pep Band, University Community Orchestra, Chamber Orchestra, Percussion Ensemble and Steel Drum Bank. Opportunities for performance in chamber ensembles and Opera Workshop are also available. Interested students should call the music office to arrange an audition.

Ensemble requirements pertaining to curricula for music majors are satisfied only by Symphonic Winds, University Concert Band, Northern Chorale, Chamber Choir, Chamber Orchestra, and University/Community Orchestra.

Recital Attendance
All students majoring in music, unless excused by the chair, must register each semester for Recital Review (MUS 196). Requirements for this course are satisfied by certified attendance at recitals approved and required by the course syllabus; grading is pass/fail. Students must pass this course each semester in which they are full-time students prior to graduation. MUS 196 may be waived during a semester of a student teaching placement.

Recital Performance
All students majoring in music must perform on weekly recital programs as directed by their applied music instructor. Students majoring in music performance must perform two major recitals, a junior (half) recital and a senior (full) recital. Students majoring in music education perform a junior recital prior to graduation. Students preparing junior and senior recitals must pass a recital jury audition at least one month prior to public performance. Guidelines for the preparation and scheduling of recitals are available from the music office.

Piano Proficiency
Students found to be deficient through the placement test must enroll in group piano course or private applied piano instruction. Enrollment in these courses will continue until a student is able to pass the proficiency test (MUS 290). Students are expected to take the proficiency examination no later than the end of their sophomore year. Additional piano study beyond that required for the proficiency is highly recommended for music majors in all degree programs.

Scholarships
Music scholarships are awarded to students who have made outstanding accomplishments or evidence significant potential. Please contact the music office for audition dates. Applied music jurors at the end of fall semester serve as an evaluation and re-audition for continuing scholarship students.

Advising
All students majoring or minoring in music will be assigned to an adviser from the music faculty. Students are urged to work in consultation with the adviser in order to insure proper selection and sequencing of courses.

Special Instructional Programs
The preparatory division offers private instruction in many instruments and voice to students below college age, university students who are not majoring or minoring in music, and adult students. Interested students should contact the music office prior to the start of each semester or summer school for information.

Bachelor of Music in Music Education

Students pursuing a Bachelor of Music with teacher certification should review that portion of the University catalog relating to education and health/physical education (see listing under College of Education). Upon approval to pursue the music teacher education program, students must schedule an appointment with the coordinator of certification and advisement in the College of Education. Music students will follow the guidelines for certification listed under Secondary Education 8–12.

Candidates for certification must meet Kentucky Department of Education certification requirements in both general and professional education. Students wishing to be certified in a state other than Kentucky are responsible for knowing and meeting certification requirements of that state. Each student should work in close consultation with an adviser in order to meet all non-music requirements.

ASTRONOMY, GEOLOGY, AND PHYSICS
Astronomy, geology, and physics are the disciplines represented in the Department of Physics and Geology. The bachelor’s degree may be earned with a major or a minor in geology or physics. Selected graduate courses, intended primarily for K-12 teachers, are also offered in astronomy, geology, and physics. Courses that satisfy the general education requirement in natural sciences are offered in all these disciplines.

FACULTY’S PRIMARY OBJECTIVES
The faculty of Physics and Geology emphasizes strong classroom teaching and individual attention in the laboratory. Goals are as follows:
1. To offer a rigorous major for students planning careers in geology, physics, or related fields.
2. To increase the scientific literacy of those students not planning careers in astronomy, geology, or physics.
3. To provide undergraduate and graduate education for the certification of teachers.
4. To provide independent study opportunities for interested students.
5. To meet the needs of teachers, biologists, and others requiring knowledge of astronomy, geology, and physics.
6. To offer pre-professional study for students interested in engineering.

ASTRONOMY
The study of astronomy is an excellent means with which to present scientific procedure to non-science students. As one of the oldest sciences, astronomy has a rich history; yet modern astronomy carries with it the excitement of discovery and confrontation with the unknown. As a discipline, astronomy relies heavily on the contributions of other sciences, especially the physical sciences. Although neither a major nor a minor is currently offered in astronomy, courses in astronomy may be used to satisfy the general education requirement in natural sciences. In addition, astronomy courses numbered 301 and above may be applied toward the degree of Bachelor of Arts with a major in physics or toward a minor in physics.

GEOLOGY
Bachelor’s Degree Programs
The degree of Bachelor of Science with a major in geology is designed to give students a strong background in the geological sciences prior to beginning a career in one of the geology-related professions or continuing on to graduate work. The degree of Bachelor of Arts with a major in geology is most appropriate for persons seeking dual majors who wish to have a background in geology to complement another major.

Bachelor of Science
The Bachelor of Science in geology requires 40 semester hours of geology courses; a grade of C or higher must be earned in all courses counting toward the major. Additional requirements for the major include CHE 120-120L, 121-121L, PHY 211, 213, and MAT 121, 122. Students interested in the application of geology in environmental studies may take courses emphasizing hydrogeology. Upon completion of the requirements for a Bachelor of Science degree, students are eligible to take the Geologist Registrants in Training Exam, which is the first requirement towards professional registration.

The courses necessary for a major in Geology are as follows:

A. Required Courses
   Geology 110 The Face of the Earth with Laboratory
   Geology 220 History of the Earth
   Geology 303 Mineralogy with Laboratory
   Geology 315 Structural Geology with Laboratory
   Geology 330 Geomorphology
   Geology 394 Seminar
   Geology 405 Petrology with laboratory
   Geology 420 Stratigraphy with Laboratory
   Geology 450 Hydrogeology

B. One course from the following three courses
   Geology 120 This Dangerous Earth
   Geology 230 Geology of the National Parks
   Geology 240 Geology of Natural Resources

C. Two courses from the following six courses

   Geology 340 Environmental Geoscience
   Geology 402 Invertebrate Paleontology with Laboratory
   Geology 455 Ground Water Resources
   Geology 416 Geologic Field Methods
   Geology 496 Externship

Bachelor of Arts
The Bachelor of Arts in geology requires 30 semester hours of geology courses, of which at least 15 hours must be numbered 300 or higher.
The Minor in Geology

A minor in geology consists of 21 hours, of which at least 12 must be at the 300 level or above. A minor in geology, emphasizing courses in environmental geology and hydrogeology is particularly appropriate for students majoring in Environmental Science.

PHYSICS

Bachelor’s Degree Programs

The degree of Bachelor of Science with a major in physics is designed for those who plan to study physics in graduate school, who wish to pursue another technical field at the graduate level, or who wish to pursue a technical career in industry. The degree of Bachelor of Arts, major in physics, provides a basic core of physics courses and is most appropriate for students pursuing dual majors where the second major may be engineering, mathematics, computer science, or education with an emphasis on physical sciences.

Bachelor of Science

The Bachelor of Science in physics requires 37 semester hours in physics (excluding PHY 110, 211, and 213). The BS candidate must successfully complete

- PHY 220 University Physics with Laboratory I
- PHY 222 University Physics with Laboratory I
- PHY 308 Modern Physics Ideas with Laboratory
- PHY 310 Dynamics
- PHY 360 Thermal Physics
- PHY 361 Modern Physics
- PHY 410 Electromagnetic Theory
- PHY 460 Quantum Mechanics

At least 2 semester hours of Advanced Physics laboratory (PHY 300) and a minimum of 5 additional semester hours from courses numbered above PHY 300 are required. Recommended are Physical Optics (PHY 320) and Mathematical Physics (PHY/MAT 330). Two semester hours of Special Projects in Physics (PHY 397) or Undergraduate Research in Physics (PHY 492) may be substituted for 2 semester hours of Advanced Physics Laboratory (PHY 300).

Bachelor of Arts

The degree of Bachelor of Arts in physics requires 31 semester hours of physics and astronomy. The BA candidate must successfully complete

- PHY 220 University Physics with Laboratory I
- PHY 222 University Physics with Laboratory II
- PHY 308 Modern Physics Ideas with Laboratory
- PHY 310 Dynamics
- PHY 360 Thermal Physics
- PHY 361 Modern Physics

A minimum of 8 additional semester hours of physics courses numbered above PHY 300 must be included. Recommended courses are Statistics (PHY 305), Physical Optics (PHY 320), Mathematical Physics (PHY/ MAT 330), Electromagnetic Theory (PHY 410), and Special Projects in Physics (PHY 397). At least one year of a foreign language is strongly recommended for all pre-engineers and BA candidates.

Substitutions for either the BS or BA requirements in physics are allowed only under certain rare circumstances with written permission from the chair of the Department of Physics and Geology. PHY 110, 211, and 213 may not be applied towards the major in physics.

The Minor in Physics

The minor in physics requires 21 semester hours of physics and astronomy, PHY 110 may not be applied towards the minor. Students minoring in physics must complete one of the following sequences in physics: PHY 211 and PHY 213; or PHY 220 and PHY 222. PHY 308 is also required for the minor. A student may not take courses from both sequences above to satisfy the required 21 semester hours.

First-Year Courses for Physics Majors and Pre-Engineering Students:

After consultation with an academic advisor, a physics or pre-engineering student will select first year courses based on whether course prerequisites have been met and whether a pre-engineering option has been determined. Generally, first year courses for physics majors and pre-engineering students will include the following:

Physics Research Opportunities and Resources

Undergraduate students (physics majors and other related majors) have the opportunity to participate in research with physics faculty in the department. In recent years physics faculty have supervised students in research computational physics, optical sciences, geophysics, and theoretical and experimental particle physics.

The physics program has 2700 square feet of research lab space. This includes a machine shop and six research labs: Computational Research Lab, X-ray Diffraction Lab, Radioisotope Lab, Material Science Lab, Optical Sciences Lab, and Particle/Astrophysics Lab. In support of this research, the physics program is equipped with a super computer (parallel processing), a Mossbauer spectrometer, vacuum systems, a modulated differential calorimeter, wide bandwidth digital and analog oscilloscopes, CAMAC data acquisition equipment, high speed NIM electronics, air filled optic tables, UVNIR Spectroradiometers, and an advanced monochromator.

Pre-Engineering

Engineering has traditionally been associated with the physical sciences, given its special emphasis on application of what we know about the world. Engineers are constantly at work seeking to understand the laws of the physical universe, to take advantage of the beneficial aspects of nature, and to convert or modify the adverse factors of nature in order to improve the plight of human beings as well as that of the world itself. Simply put, engineering is systematic problem solving.

Although Northern Kentucky University does not have a college of engineering, students have a variety of options for pursuing a career in engineering. Any of these options provides the opportunity for the student to earn an ABET accredited degree in engineering. This degree in engineering qualifies the graduate to take the Fundamentals of Engineering examination which is the first step towards registration as a Professional Engineer.

Engineering Options

Three-Two Dual Degree Programs

To assure pre-engineering students of transfer credit into an engineering program, NKU has formalized articulation agreements with the engineering programs at the University of Kentucky (UK) and the University of Louisville (UL). Usually pre-engineering students elect to follow one of these agreements which require completing three years at NKU, then completing at least two more years of courses at UK or UL after transferring. A student who follows one of these three/two agreements will be awarded a bachelor’s degree in physics from NKU and a degree in a field of engineering from UK or UL. With this option students may not need to select a specific field of engineering in their early semesters of undergraduate work. Details of specific three/two agreements with UK and UL are given below.

Physics Bachelor’s Degree/Graduate Degree in Engineering

This option is for pre-engineering students who prefer to complete a degree in four years while here at NKU with the flexibility after graduation of pursuing either employment or a graduate degree in physics or engineering. Almost all graduate engineering programs admit qualified students with bachelor degrees in physics provided students complete certain undergraduate engineering courses in their early semesters of graduate work.

Early Transfer with no degree from NKU

This option is for pre-engineering students who are certain of their interest in a specific field of engineering and who intend to follow closely the specific course requirements of another institution, such as UK. After completing two years (or less) at NKU, a student can elect to transfer to an ABET accredited engineering college to pursue a BS in engineering from that institution. Usually under this option, the NKU pre-engineering student completes the degree in the same time frame as those students who attended the engineering college starting as freshmen. The department’s Director of Pre-Engineering is available to advise students on courses for specific engineering fields and their transfer equivalency at various institutions.

Three-Two Dual Degree Program

BA or BS in Physics/BS in Engineering (University of Kentucky)

Northern Kentucky University, in cooperation with the University of Kentucky, offers students the opportunity to pursue a degree in biosystems/agricultural chemical, civil, computer, electrical, mechanical, materials, or mining engineering. Transfer articulation agreements assure an easy and predictable transfer of NKU course credits to the University of Kentucky for any of these BS degree programs in engineering. After completing three years at NKU, the student transfers to UK (with course credit) to complete an additional two years (or more depending on cooperative education options) in one of UK’s engineering programs. Normally students will complete the remaining NKU degree requirements during their first year at UK. Afterwards a student is awarded two degrees: a bachelor’s degree in physics from NKU and one of the BS degrees in engineering at UK.

BA or BS in Physics/MS in Engineering (University of Louisville)

Northern Kentucky University has similar transfer articulation agreements with the Speed Scientific School of the University of Louisville. After the student completes three years of work as an undergraduate at NKU, the student transfers to UL (with course credit) to complete a Master of Science degree in chemical, civil/environmental, electrical, computer, industrial or mechanical engineering. The UL program has a mandatory cooperative education component.

While at NKU, pre-engineering students are required to consult with an academic advisor in the Department of Physics and Geology prior to registration every semester. Generally, first year courses for the pre-engineering students will closely match those taken by physics majors (see above).

Teacher Education in Physics and Geology

Changes in the Kentucky Department of Education standards have resulted in new degree programs for students interested in teaching physical science at the secondary level. The previous Area of Concentration in Science is no longer available except for students who entered the program in 2001-02 or earlier (refer to the 2002-03 or earlier catalogs for details). Programs are now available that prepare students for certification in secondary chemistry (refer to the Chemistry listing in this catalog), physics, or earth and space science.

Earth and Space Science for Secondary Education:

Preparation for certification to teach earth and space science at the secondary level requires completion of the B.A. in Geology plus 11 hours of astronomy courses. Detailed program requirements can be found under Secondary Education 8-12 in the College of Education section of this catalog. Students interested in this program should declare a major in geology and consult with the Chair of the Department of Physics and Geology and the Coordinator for Admissions and Advising in the College of Education.

Physics for Secondary Education:

Preparation for certification to teach physics at the secondary level requires completion of the B.A. in physics (degree requirements above). Detailed program requirements can be found under Secondary Education 8-12 in the College of Education section of this catalog. Students interested in the program should contact the Chair of the Department of Physics and Geology and the Coordinator for Admissions and Advising in the College of Education.

MISSION
We offer a wide range of degrees, from the associate’s degree to the master’s degree that prepare students for a variety of careers. We are committed to developing the critical thinking and writing skills of our students, and we strongly believe in meaningful civic engagement by students and faculty.

POLITICAL SCIENCE
The faculty of Political Science promotes a comprehensive understanding of politics — a process by which benefits and burdens are given out through public means. It does so by acquainting students with literature of the discipline in four areas of specialization: American politics, comparative politics, international politics, and theory/practice; and by equipping students with methodological tools necessary for sound and critical analysis of political institutions of behavior and of processes by which public policy is formed. The faculty also seeks to engage students in a partnership of research and other scholarly endeavors and in service to the community. More specifically, the faculty provides

1. courses to comprise both a major and minor in political science;
2. courses that satisfy part of the general education requirements;
3. preparation for graduate and professional schools, particularly law school;
4. support courses for a variety of interdisciplinary programs such as environmental studies, international studies, Latin American studies, legal studies, and women’s studies;
5. courses that provide background for careers in business, public service in government or international agencies, and teaching.

Political Science (Bachelor of Arts)
The major in political science (BA) consists of 39 semester hours:
1. PSC 100 or PSC 101.
2. PSC 102, 103, 110, and 315.
3. Twenty-four semester hours of upper-division coursework from the areas listed below; a minimum of one course is to be chosen from each area.
   c. Comparative Politics (PSC 330, 335, 355, 362, 382, 394, 485, 496).
   d. Political Theory/Practice (PSC 312, 316, 370, 373, 374, 394, 403*, 496, PAD 300, 412, 455, 475).
* Can be used in either American or Theory/Practice category
 Can be used in either American or International category

A student may substitute one or two reading courses (PSC 499) for courses required in number 3 above. Reading courses are designed primarily for students who have an interest or academic curiosity not satisfied by the existing curriculum but potentially covered by the expertise of the faculty in the department; or for graduating seniors who, for reasons beyond their control, are lacking a requirement. Such courses are normally limited to a maximum of 6 semester hours for each student and require the consent of the instructor and the political science chair. An internship may not count as the only course in an area.

Students majoring in political science may apply for a legislative internship (PSC 496) in Frankfort, Kentucky, or The Washington Center in Washington, D.C. for one semester. Those accepted will take up to 15 semester hours.

Students majoring or minoring in political science must earn at least a C in each course counted as part of the major or minor.

Anyone pursuing teacher certification must schedule an appointment with the coordinator of certification and advisement in the College of Education at the beginning of the sophomore year.

Students working toward the Bachelor of Arts in political science are strongly urged to fulfill the general education requirement in mathematics by taking Elementary Statistics (MAT 205).

The degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred upon those students completing all requirements for the major in political science and other NKU requirements for the degree.

Political Science (Bachelor of Science)
The major in political science (BS) consists of 42 semester hours. The program includes more rigorous quantitative skills than the BA program and is recommended for students considering graduate work in any social science. In addition to all the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science requires Data Analysis (PSC 316) and Elemen-
The criminal justice system: police, courts, and corrections. The program seeks to prepare students for pursuing a bachelor’s degree and/or careers in criminal justice and allied fields. Rather than training individuals for a particular occupation through instruction in specific vocational skills, the program offers a broad, liberal education focused on the cultivation of analytical and creative thought and on the ability to read, write, and speak effectively.

Students majoring or minoring in criminal justice must earn at least a C in each course counted as part of the major or minor.

THE AREA OF CONCENTRATION IN PRE-LAW

Political science is one of the majors most frequently chosen by those who plan to enter law school, but it should be noted that it is far from being the only appropriate choice. Students considering law careers may choose a legal studies minor or may simply wish to fulfill their requirement for an Area of Concentration by taking four upper-division political science law courses. Since upper-division political science courses have a prerequisite of 3 semester hours of lower-division political science work, it is suggested that students taking this concentration satisfy this prerequisite by taking American Politics (PSC100). The suggested course of study is as follows:

- PSC 304 Introduction to the Law
- PSC 305 The Judicial Process
- PSC 307 Constitutional Law
- PSC 308 Civil Liberties

It should be noted that undergraduate “law” courses should not be taken for the purpose of learning the “law” and certainly are not necessary for law school admission. Such courses may well be helpful, however, in providing an understanding of the place of the law in society and a better basis for students to estimate their potential interest in law school.

DEPARTMENT POLICIES
Grade Requirement
Students majoring (or minoring) in psychology must have a grade of C or better in all courses applied toward certification of the major or minor in psychology.

Computer Literacy Requirement
Students majoring in psychology satisfy the University requirement of competence in computer use by successfully completing PSY 210L Research Tools in Psychology or its equivalent.

Assessment Testing
All students majoring in psychology are required to participate in departmental assessment testing which is conducted in December and May upon completion of each student’s final full semester prior to graduation.

Transfer Students
Transfer students obtaining a major or minor in psychology must complete at least half of their required coursework in psychology at NKU.

FACULTY’S PRIMARY OBJECTIVES
The faculty of Psychology seeks to provide excellence in education through teaching, research, and community involvement and to serve the needs of students for knowledge in the discipline and profession of psychology. An additional goal is to provide a balanced approach emphasizing the teaching, research, and practical application of psychology. To meet these goals, the curriculum provides the following:

1. a strong background to prepare students for careers in mental health facilities, industries, and other occupations that value an undergraduate background in psychology;
2. appropriate preparatory courses for students going on to graduate study;
3. some understanding, for students majoring in other disciplines, of psychology and its application to human relations.

BACHELOR’S DEGREE PROGRAM
The major in psychology consists of a minimum of 43 semester hours and requires completion of the following:

1. Five core courses:
   - PSY 100 Introduction to Psychology
   - MAT 205 Elementary Statistics
   - PSY 210 Research Methods in Psychology
   - PSY 210L Research Tools in Psychology
   - PSY 210R Career Planning for Psychology Majors

2. Three courses from each of the following course groupings:
   a. PSY 309 Psychology of Perception
      - PSY 311 Biopsychology
      - PSY 337 Animal Learning
      - PSY 338 Cognitive Processes
      - PSY 340 Social Psychology
   b. PSY 300 Personality Theory
      - PSY 305 Psychological Testing
      - PSY 319 Child Psychology
      - PSY 333 Abnormal Psychology
      - PSY 344 Industrial/Organizational Psychology

3. Five additional courses (13-15 semester hours) in psychology with at least three at the 300 level or above.

The psychology major is designed to provide students with flexibility in the selection of courses to meet their individual interests and career goals. Students must meet with a psychology faculty adviser during the first semester following the declaration of psychology as their major to receive assistance in designing a program of coursework based on their individual needs. All students are encouraged to meet with a faculty adviser in subsequent semesters for assistance in career planning and course selections to meet degree requirements. For students planning to pursue graduate study in psychology, the department strongly recommends a broad and balanced program of applied and theoretical courses with careful planning to meet the requirements for admission to graduate schools in psychology. In addition, such students are encouraged to take more than the minimum number of required courses, including advanced courses that involve the opportunity for independent and/or supervised research.

The degree of Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts is conferred upon students completing the major in psychology.

The degree of Bachelor of Science is conferred upon students who have completed one of the following options: (1) one college-level mathematics course (in addition to MAT 205) and two laboratory courses in psychology or (2) two statistics courses (beyond MAT 205) from MAT 312, MAT 314, and MAT 315; and one laboratory course in psychology.

The Bachelor of Arts is conferred upon students completing a minimum of 6 semester hours of a foreign language (two or more courses with the same language prefix) or its equivalent. This requirement is in addition to the current NKU general education requirement in the humanities area. Students pursuing a psychology degree in conjunction with a secondary education curriculum should review that portion of this catalog relating to education and health/physical education. Upon deciding to pursue the teacher education program, students must meet with the coordinator of certification and advisement in the College of Education.

The Minor in Psychology
The minor in psychology consists of 24 semester hours, including Introduction to Psychology (PSY 100 or PSY 100H) and seven additional courses in psychology.

PRE-MAJOR AND SELECTIVE ADMISSION

REQUIREMENTS
None

Assessment
All graduating seniors in sociology, anthropology, applied cultural studies, and philosophy are required to take part in their discipline’s assessment program during the semester prior to graduation. The results will be used by the department faculty to determine how the department’s major programs of study and curricula are serving students and the programs’ goals. Students who do not participate in the assessment will not be allowed to graduate unless prior approval has been obtained from the department chair.

SOCIOLGY, ANTHROPOLOGY, AND PHILOSOPHY

Study in these areas serves a two-fold purpose. First, it contributes to the general education of students by increasing their insight into human institutions, behaviors, and beliefs. Second, it provides students with preparation applicable to a variety of occupations or to graduate work. Specific course requirements for each program are described below.

SOCIOLGY

The primary mission of the sociology program is to provide undergraduate students with an understanding of concepts and methods of the scientific study of society and social relations. Sociology is both a perspective, a way of viewing society, and a set of techniques for seeking answers to questions about social behavior; courses are designed to acquaint students with both aspects of the discipline. The program seeks to develop students’ ability to observe and think critically about their own and other societies and to become more sensitive to behavioral and value differences among peoples.

The program offers a major in sociology leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science. A minor in sociology is also offered. SOC 100, 110, 205, 210, and 245 may be used to satisfy the general education requirement in behavioral sciences, and other sociology courses serve as components of interdisciplinary programs and majors in other programs. Sociology courses are core components of the applied program in sociology and anthropology.

Bachelor’s Degree Program

The major in sociology requires the successful completion of 39 semester hours in the discipline, 18 of which must be at the 300 or 400 level. The curriculum consists of five categories of courses. Students majoring in sociology are required to complete all courses in category 1 (core courses) and at least one course from each of the remaining categories. Together, these comprise 24 semester hours; the remaining 15 semester hours are to be chosen as sociology electives. A grade of at least a C must be earned in the core courses, and a grade-point average of at least 2.00 must be earned in all courses that comprise the major.

All students majoring in sociology are required to prepare a portfolio for SOC 494 (Senior Seminar). The table of contents will specify the title of each entry and the course for which the assignment was written. The portfolio must include a letter discussing its contents. The contents must include five assignments that, when taken together, demonstrate that the student has

1. understood the classical theoretical perspectives in sociology;
2. analyzed an issue with a sociological framework (theory, concept, and/or perspective);
3. articulated a meaningful research question, specified a design, and collected relevant data to answer that question;
4. explored an issue related to socio-cultural diversity;
5. understood conceptually the statistical analysis of sociological data.

Focus on Criminology

The program in sociology offers a variety of courses for students interested in careers as court administrators, criminal justice administrators, criminal justice research administrators, social service professionals, police officers, corrections officers, probation and parole officers, juvenile caseworkers, or substance abuse counselors. Suggested courses for a major in sociology with a criminology focus are the following:

- SOC 202 Juvenile Delinquency
- SOC 203 Sociology of Corrections
- SOC 208 Police and Society
- SOC 305 Criminology
- SOC 350 Women and Crime
- SOC 357 Sociology of Firearms

- SOC 420 Community Corrections: Probation and Parole
- SOC 455 Comparative Criminal Justice
- SOC 488 Sociology of Law

Focus on Society, Environment, and Technology

The roles of behavior, culture, and social organization are central to the study of human technology and environment and of their interrelationships. Students majoring in sociology who have particular interest in issues and problems of the relationships of socio-cultural factors and technology and environment should consider selecting courses addressing those specific concerns. The focus area, in combining sociology and anthropology, prepares students for close examination of factors associated with issues such as global ecological problems, the role of technology in social and cultural change, and resource utilization and management, among others. Suggested courses are the following:

- ANT 345 Environmental Anthropology
- SOC 340 Population
- SOC 355 Sociology of the Environment
- SOC 360 Technology and Social Change
- SOC 340, 355, and 360 may be used to satisfy existing requirements of the major in sociology. With the recommendation of the student’s advisor and approval by the department chair, the 3 semester hours in anthropology may be applied to fulfilling the requirements for the bachelor’s degree in sociology.

The Minor in Sociology

The sociology minor is 22 semester hours in the discipline. The core sequence (SOC 100, 320, and 330) is required with minimum grades of C. The remaining 12 semester hours may be taken from any sociology courses. An overall grade-point average of at least 2.00 is required in courses comprising the minor.

APPLIED CULTURAL STUDIES

The applied cultural studies program (ACS) integrates the disciplines of sociology and anthropology and strives to prepare students for a career and life in an information-and-global society by giving them a strong background in research methods and an appreciation for cultural diversity. The background in methods gives students the skills to recognize and create high-quality information. An appreciation for cultural diversity within and between groups ensures that students, in gathering that information, venture outside the familiar and comfortable confines of their own social circles for input and feedback. These skills are important because in an information society the majority of workers spend their time processing, gathering, creating, and/or distributing information. The major seeks to produce students who can work with business firms, public organizations, and agencies as information gatherers, researchers, and program evaluators.

The coordinator of the applied program works closely with students in the program to help them find a career and to build a résumé while in college. For more on the applied program, see our website at http://www.nku.edu/~acs. On the website you will find a sample résumé, a list of practicum projects, and a sample of agencies and corporations that hire employees with the skills our graduates possess.

The applied cultural studies program strives to develop

1. written, verbal, and communication skills;
2. computer skills (spreadsheet, power point, word processing, statistical packages);
3. analytical abilities;
4. strong interviewing skills;
5. the ability to organize information and to communicate and present research findings in a clear and useful manner;
6. experience with all phases of the research process, including data analysis and reporting;
7. experience using the Internet as a research tool;
8. the ability to communicate effectively with persons of different social, economic, and ethnic backgrounds.

To accomplish these objectives, students take introductory and basic methods courses in sociology and anthropology, applied courses in both disciplines, and individually selected content courses dealing with cultural diversity. The capstone of the program is on-the-job experience in gathering and analyzing data and reporting the results in an agency or institution through the practicum courses. Practica are arranged for students in close association with the program coordinator. An overall grade-point average of at least 2.00 must be maintained in courses for the major.

ANTHROPOLOGY
Anthropology is the investigation of humankind’s past and present. Specifically, it includes the subfields of cultural anthropology (study of the great variety of societies and cultures in the world today); archaeology (study of past societies and cultures); physical anthropology (study of the origin and biological nature of humans); anthropological linguistics (study of language and its relationship to culture); and applied anthropology (the use of anthropological knowledge to help solve practically oriented problems). Through these subfields, anthropology explains differences and similarities among all human groups, at all times, and in all places.

Courses in anthropology are designed to provide students with an appreciation and broadened view of the diversity of past and present human cultures and an understanding of the origin and biological nature of people and their near relatives. The anthropology program, through its major and minor options, (1) prepares students for a variety of career opportunities depending on individual student interest and coursework, (2) prepares students to do graduate work in anthropology, and (3) provides a complementary program of study for students majoring or minor­ing in other social and behavioral sciences or in interdisciplinary programs. To meet these objectives, the program offers a major with the degree of Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts and three minors. In addition, anthropology students seeking only the BA/BS degree who wish to obtain research jobs may prefer to major in the applied cultural studies program or to pursue a double major. We recommend the Bachelor of Arts for students who plan to seek a graduate degree. For more information see the anthropology web site at http://www.nku.edu/~anthro.

Bachelor of Arts

The major in Anthropology leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts consists of 52 semester hours and requires completion of the following:

1. The above requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree
2. A minimum of 8 semester hours in a modern foreign language (e.g., French, Spanish, Russian, Chinese or Japanese)

1. Complete CSC 150 with a grade of C or better
2. Pass a test on computer use given by the anthropology faculty.

Areas of Emphasis

The major may be completed with emphasis in a subfield of anthropology listed below. This will better prepare students for various careers or for graduate work.

Cultural Anthropology

Cultural anthropology students take courses covering a variety of world culture areas and on specific aspects of culture such as environmental anthropology, religion, gender, and the arts. These students prepare for careers in multicultural or international fields such as the social and helping services, the travel industry, museum work, health and mental health fields, international affairs and business, or for graduate work in cultural anthropology.

Archaeology

The major with an emphasis in archaeology prepares students for careers in contract archaeology, museum work, cultural resource management, and public archaeology, or for graduate work in archaeology. Students interested in archaeology should discuss their program of study with the archaeology advisor in the anthropology program.

Physical Anthropology

An emphasis in physical anthropology may be obtained with anthropology courses in human evolution and primates, and biology courses in genetics, anatomy and physiology, and evolution.

Applied Anthropology

The anthropology major with a focus on applied courses can be a start towards developing a career in areas relating to the environment, ethnic relations, and community work, among others. Combined with additional coursework in applied sociology, it can lead to employment in a number of fields.

Teacher Certification

The anthropology major may serve as the nucleus for an area of concentration leading to teacher certification (those pursuing teaching certification must have their program approved by the education chair). Those adding certification to the major must take 6 semester hours of upper-level courses from four of the following: geography, history, economics, political science, sociology, or psychology. (Psychology courses do not fulfill the state’s social studies requirements for teacher education).

Focus in Society, Environment, and Technology

The roles of behavior, culture, and social organization are central to the study of human technology and environment and of their interrelationships. Students majoring in anthropology who have particular interests in issues and problems of the relationships of socio-cultural factors and technology and environment should consider selecting courses addressing those specific concerns. The focus area, in combining anthropology and sociology, prepares students for a close examination of factors associated with issues such as global ecological concerns, the role of technology in social and cultural change, and resource utilization and management, among others. Suggested courses are the following:

- ANT 345 Environmental Anthropology
- SOC 340 Population
- SOC 355 Sociology of the Environment
- SOC 360 Technology and Social Change
- ANT 345 may be also used to satisfy a topical course requirement in the anthropology major.
MINORS

Anthropology
A minor in anthropology consists of 22 semester hours and requires the completion of the following:

1. Six core courses: Cultural Anthropology (ANT 100), Introduction to Physical Anthropology (ANT 202), Introduction to Physical Anthropology Laboratory (ANT 202L), Introduction to Archaeology (ANT 110), Introduction to Archaeological Method and Theory (ANT 210), and Language and Culture (ANT 275).
2. One topical course (e.g., ANT 231, 301, 307, 308, 312, 320, 325, 330, 345, 350, 352, 354, 358, 380, 392, 394, 400, 401, or 410).
3. One additional course in archaeology (e.g., ANT 110, 350, 352, 354, 380, or 410) or in an ethnographic area (e.g., ANT 201, 230, 240, 243, 245, 360, 362, or 365).

Archaeology
The minor in archaeology is designed to give students competence in prehistory, archaeological methods, and research procedures. It can be valuable in preparing students for graduate study in history, art history, or other disciplines. In conjunction with a major in history, it prepares students for careers in such agencies as state historic preservation offices or various regional offices, where knowledge of both history and archaeology is desirable. The minor can also help prepare students for careers in contract archaeology or museum work. It can provide a broadening of knowledge to students majoring in various disciplines such as history, literature, or many others.

The minor in archaeology consists of 21 semester hours and requires completion of the following:

1. Three core courses: Cultural Anthropology (ANT 100), Introduction to Archaeology (ANT 110), and Introduction to Archaeological Method and Theory (ANT 210).
2. One of the following methods courses: ANT 215, 307, or 355.
3. Three of the following: ANT 215, 307, 308, 335, 350, 352, 354, 355, 380, 392, 410. (215, 307, 355 may only be used if it was not used as a methods course)

The minor is not open to students majoring in anthropology because an archaeology focus is already available within the major in anthropology.

Native American Studies
The minor in Native American Studies is designed to give students an overview of American Indian life and cultures from prehistoric times to the present with a focus on North America. Because of the overlap in courses, students majoring in anthropology who choose to minor in Native American Studies must also have a second major or minor or an area of concentration outside the anthropology program.

The minor in Native American Studies consists of 21 semester hours and requires completion of the following:

1. Five core courses: Cultural Anthropology (ANT 100), North American Indians (ANT 230), Modern American Indians (ANT 231), World Patterns of Race and Ethnicity (ANT/SOC 301), and North American Archaeology (ANT 350).
2. Two of the following: Archaeology of Mesoamerica (ANT 352), Indians of Mexico and Guatemala (ANT 360), Plains Indians (HIS 416), or any appropriate course approved by the department chair, for example, Museum Methods (ANT 307) or Ethnographic Methods (ANT 340) if the student chooses a Native American emphasis, or Topics in Anthropology (ANT 394) if a Native American focus or topic is emphasized.

PHILOSOPHY
The philosophy program has three missions: (1) to serve students in the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business, and Professional Studies and Education with foundation courses and an applied philosophy minor with internship opportunities, (2) to provide all students with courses meeting certain general education requirements, and (3) to provide advanced courses, a major, and a minor for those who want to specialize in philosophy.

Consistent with these missions, courses in philosophy are designed to enable students to increase the scope and depth of their understanding of and sensitivity to basic human beliefs and values, to think creatively and critically about enduring questions of human existence, to integrate the various fields of knowledge into a useful, meaningful whole, to frame their ideas into a justified system of beliefs that provides order and direction in life, to develop basic analytical and logical skills, and to acquaint themselves with the history of philosophy.

Bachelor's Degree Program
The major in philosophy, leading to the Bachelor of Arts, is designed to meet the needs of students who want to pursue graduate study in philosophy leading to a college teaching career or an applied philosophy position (e.g., biomedical ethical consultant), to enter professional schools where a major in philosophy is suggested as a desirable option (e.g., law or the ministry), or to complement their primary major by adding a major in philosophy. The philosophy major requires a minimum number of courses in order to meet these diverse needs. The courses taken by students majoring in philosophy should be tailored to meet specific needs; close consultation with philosophy faculty can accomplish this purpose.

Relevant course options and applied philosophy internships are to be determined in consultation with a philosophy faculty member.

RELIGIOUS STUDIES
Religious studies is the scholarly examination of the widespread and diverse phenomena of human religious experience, the expression of these experiences in systems of belief and in institutions, and their impact upon the interaction with culture and society. Religion embodies some of humanity’s most profound and enduring attempts to answer perennial questions about the nature of ultimate reality, and about human nature and destiny. An important dimension of religious studies at NKU is its incorporation of cognate courses from other disciplines, including philosophy, anthropology, sociology, history, geography, and literature.

Religious studies provides a factual and analytical understanding of religion; sympathetic understanding of a wide range of religious traditions, cultures, and values; and an introduction of the relevant literature, vocabulary, and methods used in the scholarly study of religion. This sort of an appreciation of religion is an important component in an individual’s liberal education. It is also relevant to many professions and fields including education, law, medicine, nursing, ministry, and human services, and to students interested in graduate study in religious studies.

The Minor in Religious Studies
Offered by the Philosophy Program, the minor in religious studies is designed for students who are especially interested in religious studies or who wish for career purposes to add to their general education background. The minor requires 21 semester hours, including at least 6 hours from each of the following categories:

Note: For students majoring in Theatre, TAR 102 (Survey of Race and Gender in Dramatic Literature) fulfills Race and Gender General Education requirements but not Arts and Humanities requirements. TAR 100 (Theatre Appreciation) does not fulfill any Theatre degree requirements. TAR 111 (Creative Expression Through Acting) fulfills only Theatre minor requirements.

PRE-MAJOR OR SELECTIVE ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
A cumulative grade-point average (GPA) of at least 2.50 in the major is required for graduation with a Bachelor of Arts degree. A GPA of at least 2.75 in all coursework attempted is required for admission into the Bachelor of Fine Arts programs. A GPA of at least 2.75 in the major and approval of a faculty review committee are required for graduation with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree.

DEPARTMENT POLICIES
Computer Literacy Requirement
For students majoring in theatre, TAR 101 (Essentials of Theatre) fulfills the NKU requirement for computer literacy.

FACULTY’S PRIMARY OBJECTIVES
1. To prepare students for entry into professional theatre arts work.
2. To prepare students to explore advanced educational opportunities.
3. To prepare students for teaching.
4. To serve the community and the Commonwealth by presenting theatre arts to the public.
5. To broaden and enhance students’ perception of the world by offering a variety of cultural experiences.
6. To encourage students’ ability to think critically in relation to theatre arts by exposing them to a variety of theatrical experiences, theories, and aesthetics.

Theatre relies on extensive student participation in and out of the classroom. Preparation comes alive and gains significance through actual production activities. Staff, resources, and facilities exist to serve students in their preparation.

History, theory, and criticism must stand the test of relevance, and production activities at NKU will not exist apart from literary background, conceptual understanding, social and cultural content, and philosophy.

Center for Applied Ecology

FACULTY
Jerry Warner, executive director
Barry Dalton, interim director
Larry Brewer, Sean Doughert, Scott Fennell, Mark Leopold, Nancy Meyer, Matt Mullin, Kim Tromm

The Center for Applied Ecology is located at 510 Johns Hill Road, 859-442-4280. The Center is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Students with an interest in working at the Center are invited to visit and discuss prospects for employment with the staff. The Center recommends that these students provide the center with an application letter and résumé.

The Center is a university program, based in the College of Arts and Sciences, that focuses on environmental education, research, consulting, and community service for the northern Kentucky and greater Cincinnati region. Staff consists of professionals with educational backgrounds in science, engineering, and other similar disciplines and with extensive work experience in consulting, government, private industry, teaching, and research.

The mission is to provide four primary services to the University, to the northern Kentucky community, and to the surrounding region.

1. Center provides an educational and training forum for the students at Northern Kentucky University, relative to preparing the students to enter the environmental sciences and services work force.
2. Center provides an educational forum for the general public, associations, schools, private industry, and other institutions by increasing public awareness of the environment through lectures, seminars, workshops, public forums, discussions, newsletters, technical publications, and other means.
3. Center provides an avenue by which NKU faculty and center staff can conduct research and prepare publications, thus allowing University to expand its base of knowledge and understanding of environmentally oriented issues and to increase its capabilities to address these issues.
4. Center provides technical and regulatory assistance to northern Kentucky and greater Cincinnati region to help meet environmental needs.

The Center is dedicated to reaching out to and working with the community by taking an unbiased approach to every issue that it addresses.

Undergraduate and graduate students who have an interest in environmental issues are provided an opportunity to obtain cross-disciplinary training at the Center that will allow them to better compete in the environmental careers market in the Northern Kentucky and Greater Cincinnati region, including private industry, government, consulting, teaching, and research.

The Center seeks to forge relationships with local and regional governments, schools (elementary and secondary), industries, citizens groups, and other organizations by working to provide innovative solutions to environmental needs. Students who work at the Center are given the opportunity to play an active role in these partnerships by assisting the center's professional staff on a day-to-day basis.

Military Programs

AIR FORCE ROTC
The Department of the Air Force at the University of Cincinnati, in cooperation with NKU, provides the opportunity for qualified students to enroll in the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) Commissioning program. Upon graduation and successful completion of the program, the student will be commissioned as an officer in the U.S. Air Force. The Air Force courses are taught on the NKU campus and may be taken through the Greater Cincinnati Consortium of Colleges and Universities. ARMY ROTC
The Department of the Army/Military Science at Xavier University, Cincinnati, in cooperation with NKU provides the opportunity for any qualified student to enroll in the army’s military science commissioning program. Military science classes are presented on the NKU campus. Upon graduation and successful completion of the military science program, students will be commissioned as second lieutenants in the U.S. Army. No obligation for military service is incurred during the first two years of the program. For information contact Army ROTC at NKU at 859-572-9888.
Administrative support for interdisciplinary studies and experimental courses is currently being provided through the Office of the Dean of Arts and Sciences. These offerings provide students and faculty with the opportunity to explore and develop subject areas and methods of inquiry otherwise not available within traditional disciplines of the University.

Because of their fluid nature, these programs often undergo revision, and students interested in them are encouraged to contact the program directors, or the academic departments in which the program is offered, for up-to-date information on program requirements, options, and courses.

Interdisciplinary Majors

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE
Rebecca L. Evans, biological sciences, director

The Environmental Science Program at Northern Kentucky University is an interdisciplinary program that provides those interested in environmental careers with a strong background in Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Mathematics, and Physics. This multi-disciplinary background is combined with upper-division requirements that integrate the disciplines and emphasize the scientific study of environmental issues from a research and career oriented perspective. The inclusion of research or internships/externships enables students to gain expertise and experience to monitor, analyze, and contribute to the solution of current environmental problems. These opportunities are provided by faculty from the Biology, Chemistry, Physics and Geology departments, the Center for Integrative Natural Science and Mathematics (CINSAM), the Environmental Resource Management Center (ERMC), industry and government agencies. Students graduating with a B.S. in Environmental Science are well equipped to join the ranks of other environmental professionals working with local, state and federal agencies, consulting firms, or non-profit organizations. They are also qualified to become part of a research team or pursue graduate study of environmental sciences.

DEGREE PROGRAMS
Business degree programs in the College of Business are professional programs designed to prepare graduates for lifelong careers in a variety of business fields. The coursework and related available educational experiences prepare graduates in three ways for the opportunities, challenges, and responsibilities they will encounter in the business world. First, graduates are to assume a place in society as aware, mature people who are comfortable with change and comfortable with enduring values and wisdom by completing a strong and varied general education curriculum. Second, graduates are prepared to understand and appreciate the context within which their work takes place by completing a solid and diverse basic business curriculum. And third, graduates are prepared to enter suc-
The College awards the degree of Bachelor of Science upon successful completion of bachelor’s requirements because there is considerable emphasis upon quantitative analysis in the various business courses required. The degree granted for successful completion of an associate program is an Associate of Applied Science.

The College of Business offers eight bachelor’s degree programs, one associate degree program, and seven minors, described in the following pages. The College of Business also offers the following graduate degrees: Master of Accountancy, Master of Business Administration, Master of Science in Information Systems, and the Juris Doctor/Master of Business Administration.

DECLARING A MAJOR IN THE COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

The College of Business has selective admissions for its Bachelor of Science degree programs in business. When students meet these selective admissions criteria, they may certify their major. Selective admission requirements differ slightly among majors. Please see major requirements, listed elsewhere in this catalog, for specific information.

Students who have not yet been certified for a major (i.e., have not yet met the selective admissions criteria for a major) are encouraged to declare a “pre-major” in the College of Business. Students may declare a pre-major in one of the seven business discipline areas in which bachelor’s degrees are offered (accounting, business administration, finance, information systems, management, marketing and sports business). These pre-majors give students the opportunity to be advised and to explore academic options.

Declaring a pre-major does not prevent a change of major after selective admission requirements are met. However, additional course requirements for the new major may need to be completed.

Students who wish to pursue a degree in the College of Business, but are uncertain of a major, are encouraged to declare a pre-major called “Undeclared in the College of Business.” This pre-major offers students the opportunity to receive academic advising from the College of Business Advising Center while exploring degree options within the college.

COLLEGE-WIDE REQUIREMENTS

Students must meet all current course and class-standing prerequisites before enrolling in any College of Business course. This policy applies to non-business students, transient students, non-degree seeking students, and business students. Students who complete prerequisite courses at institutions other than Northern Kentucky University will be required to provide documentation of the courses taken. Students lacking prerequisites in any course will be administratively withdrawn from that course.

Students majoring in bachelor’s program in a business discipline must have completed all selective admission requirements and must have certified a major before enrolling in any 400-level course in the college.

Students majoring in a business discipline must complete at least 64 semester hours in courses outside the College of Business. ECO 200 and ECO 201 count as non-business courses for this requirement. Transfer students must complete at least 50% of the required business courses and 50% of the major coursework at Northern Kentucky University.

Additionally, students are required to complete at least 45 semester hours of upper-division (300-400 level) courses for graduation.

Successful completion of IFS 300 as part of the minor in business administration simultaneously fulfills NKU’s computer literacy graduation requirement for students majoring in the College of Business.

The Major in Management
The major in management is designed to provide graduates with the fundamental personal, interpersonal, conceptual, and technical knowledge and skills they need to manage organizational operations and resources effectively. All students are expected to master a variety of business communication forms (e.g., formal presentations, written reports) and to develop basic behavioral competencies necessary for those who intend to plan, organize, lead, and control the work of others in an organization. These behavioral competencies imperatively include team-building and small-group management skills. Management students must also analyze complicated business problems and seek to become adept at using both quantitative and qualitative decision-making techniques. Likewise, current and historically important theories of organization and human work behavior are studied so that students might acquire a context for understanding the complex and dynamic processes occurring in contemporary organizations. Required courses in the management major place an emphasis on learning that should facilitate long-term development as a management professional.

The focus of the management program is on the knowledge base and skills that underlie effective management practice irrespective of organization or industry-type. Thus, graduates of the management program typically seek college entry-level general management or management-trainee positions in virtually any field—from banking to health care to manufacturing to sports or transportation.

ACCREDITATIONS/AFFILIATIONS

Northern Kentucky University is accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education and by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. It is authorized by the Kentucky Education Professional Standards Board (EPSB) to offer teacher preparation programs leading to initial Kentucky teacher certification.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

At the time of application a student will receive a transfer credit approval report. To view how courses equate to general education courses, please access your Norse Express for students and click on real-time degree audit. Any request for re-evaluation of coursework to fulfill general education should be directed to the General Education Office, SL 401 or Transfer Services, AC 302.

The Education Coordinator for Admissions, Advising and Testing will work in conjunction with the department involved and will decide initial determination of equivalencies. Any appeal of his/her decision should be referred directly to the General Education Office, SL 401. The decision made by the department after an appeal will then be final.

The applicability of prior coursework in the field of education will be determined by the Education Admissions, Advising, and Testing Coordinator at the time the student signs the curriculum contract (during the admissions semester) following these guidelines:

a. Is the course equivalent to the Northern Kentucky University requirement? This decision is made by the above coordinator in conjunction with the department chair and lead instructor for the course.

b. How old is the course? Due to “recency of preparation” requirements, as determined by the College of Education, no professional education course over nine years old can be used to recommend a student for certification. Therefore, a decision must be made whether the candidate will finish the program before an equivalent course will be older than nine years (i.e., if the student took a course equivalent to EDU 305 in spring 1993, that student must finish his/her program by the end of spring 2002 semester).

Once these decisions are made, the courses in question are entered onto the curriculum contract.

EDUCATION

Preparation is required in four areas as follows: (1) a broad, comprehensive background in the liberal arts; (2) training in pedagogy through a sequence of professional courses; (3) extensive laboratory experiences provided by the University in cooperation with local school systems; and (4) in-depth preparation in the content area(s) leading to certification.

Successful completion of a teacher education program constitutes the first step toward attaining teacher certification in Kentucky. Initial certification of all new teachers also requires successful completion of appropriate written tests prior to certification. Additionally, all new teachers seeking initial certification in Kentucky will serve an internship. The examination and internship components are administered by the Kentucky EPSB and are not considered part of the NKU teacher education program.

It is the responsibility of students to notify the Office of Student Services in the College of Education of an impending graduation date at least 30 days in advance. At that point, an institutional recommendation will be prepared for submission to the Kentucky Educational Professional Standards Board. Students who plan to teach in other states should work closely with the Office of Student Services to determine the requirements in those states with reference to reciprocity.

Responsibility for developing procedures and policies and for resolving all grievances in the teacher education program rests with the Teacher Education Committee, which is also responsible for admitting students into the teacher education program and to student teaching. The committee, chaired by the dean of education or his/her designee, is composed of teachers, school administrators, student representatives, and faculty from each department that prepares teachers.

Changes may be made in the teacher education programs to meet state requirements. Students must, therefore, obtain the current program requirements from the office of teacher certification. The advisement process is particularly crucial for teacher education students. It is suggested that freshmen or other interested students declare a pre-major in a teacher education field. This procedure will result in assignment to a teacher education adviser familiar with the current curricular and admission requirements and with any impending changes that may occur prior to a student's admission semester. All students pursuing teacher education are advised by education faculty.

All students who are pre-education majors or who are enrolled in the teacher education program should check their e-mail on a regular basis to obtain updated information regarding the teacher education program.

I. ELEMENTARY EDUCATION (P-5)

The elementary education (P-5) program leads to the degree of Bachelor of Arts. The advisement process is particularly crucial for teacher education students. It is suggested that freshmen or other interested students declare a pre-major in elementary education. This procedure will result in assignment to a teacher education adviser familiar with the current curricular and admission requirements and with any impending changes that may occur prior to the student’s admission semester.

IFS 105, CSC 150 or a computer proficiency test (this is a prerequisite for EDU 313).
An athletic trainer is a qualified allied health care professional educated and experienced in the management of health care problems associated with physical activity. In cooperation with physicians and other health care personnel, the athletic trainer functions as an integral member of the health care team in secondary schools, colleges and universities, professional sports programs, sports medicine clinics, and other health care settings. The athletic trainer functions in cooperation with medical personnel, athletic personnel, individuals involved in physical activity, parents, and guardians in the development and coordination of efficient and responsive athletic health care delivery systems.

The athletic trainer’s professional preparation is directed toward the development of specified competencies in the following domains: risk management and injury prevention, pathology of injuries and illnesses, assessment and evaluation, acute care of injury and illness, pharmacology, therapeutic modalities, therapeutic exercise, general medical conditions and disabilities, nutritional aspects of injury and illness, psychosocial intervention and referral, health care administration, and professional development and responsibilities. Through a combination of formal classroom instruction and clinical experience, the athletic trainer is prepared to apply a wide variety of specific health care skills and knowledge within each of the domains.

Bachelor’s of Science in Athletic Training
The program is an allied health degree offered through the Health and Physical Education section of the College of Education. The degree will provide an integrated didactic and clinical education program to prepare students for a career at a NATABOC Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC). The program is designed to meet the standards and guidelines of an accredited educational program for the athletic trainer, as mandated by the Commission on Accredited Allied Health Education Programs (CAAHEP).

The program is a 5 semester cohort program with an integrated clinical education component. The 58 semester hours of major coursework is designed to provide formal didactic instruction of the NATA educational competencies and clinical proficiencies: The clinical education component provides the student with a practical environment for the application of knowledge in skills that were acquired in the classroom.

Accreditation
Athletic Training Education Programs are required to be CAAHEP accredited. Accreditation is necessary for program graduates to be eligible for the National Athletic Trainers’ Association Board of Certification examination.

NKU’s program has attained candidacy status. Candidacy is the two year process that must be completed prior to receiving CAAHEP accreditation. Candidacy acceptance infers that the program’s didactic and clinical education plans meet the requirements for accreditation. Accreditation is not guaranteed. For further details regarding program status contact Trey Morgan, Athletic Training Program Coordinator at morgant@nku.edu or 859-572-1399.

Transfer Students
Transfer students are required to satisfy the same program requirements and admission requirements as NKU students. Except for PHE 280, Introduction to Athletic Training, pre-professional courses may be taken at another institution and credit transferred to NKU if evaluated as equivalent coursework. PHE 280 has a specific course content and an associated clinical assignment that relates directly to ATP educational competencies and must be taken on NKU’s main campus unless specified by the NKU athletic training program coordinator.

Transfer students will not be accepted directly into the Athletic Training Program and must begin at the entry level.

Program Requirements
Uniforms: Students are required to purchase uniforms and nametags as designated by the ATP faculty. This uniform is required for all clinical assignments.

Insurance: All ATP students are required to carry malpractice insurance for the duration of enrollment in the program.

Physical Examination: Upon admission to the ATP students are required to complete a physical examination by an NKU team physician. The purpose of this exam is to ensure that the student’s health and physical fitness will allow them to complete the duties required of an athletic trainer.

Hepatitis B Vaccine: Hepatitis B vaccine must be completed during the first semester in the athletic training program. The student is responsible for the cost. For information about where to receive the vaccine contact, Trey Morgan, ATP coordinator at morgant@nku.edu or 859-572-1399.

Computer Proficiency: The Athletic Training degree requires the completion of a computer course that will provide the student with the essential skills for computer usage in an administrative and instructional environment. Students must complete CSC 150, IFS 105 or equivalent.

NATABOC Examination: Students are encouraged to complete the NATABOC examination, but it is not a requirement for graduation.

Admission Requirements
Minimum Admission Requirements:
• ACT composite score of 21, SAT combined score of 990, or approved scores on the PPST;
• sophomore status – minimum 30 semester hours;
• successful completion of pre-professional coursework with a minimum grade of C;
• completion of 75 hours of observation period with NKU Certified Athletic Trainers;
• Overall score of 2.5 on observation period evaluations;
• Minimum overall GPA of 2.5

Admission Standards
Any student wishing to apply for admission into ATP must complete a two-part process.

1. Pre-professional Component
   The student’s required to successfully complete selected coursework and observation. The coursework consists of nine classes (23 semester hours) which a student must earn a minimum grade of C and attain a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 to be eligible for the next step.
   a. Pre-professional courses
      PSY 100 Introduction to Psychology (3 semester hours)
      BIO 126 Human Nutrition (3 semester hours)
      HEA 135 Safety and First Aid (3 semester hours)
      HEA 160 Personal Health (3 semester hours)
      PHE 280 Introduction to Athletic Training (3 semester hours)
      BIO 208 Anatomy & Physiology I (4 semester hours)
      BIO 208L Anatomy & Physiology I Lab
      BIO 209 Anatomy & Physiology II (4 semester hours)
      BIO 209L Anatomy & Physiology II Lab
      Total 23 semester hours

   b. The Observation Portion
      The observation portion of the pre-professional stage is completed as part of the PHE 280 Introduction to Athletic Training course requirements for any student interested in entering the ATP. Student is required to accumulate a minimum of 75 observations hours with an ATP at NKU’s Athletic Training Room or associated clinical sites. Staff ATCs evaluate the student’s performance and the student is required to receive a minimum 2.5 on 4.0 scale to be eligible for the next admission step.
2. Formal Application

Formal program application and admission occur during the fall semester. If admitted, student will begin the program the following spring semester. In order to be eligible for formal application, the student must attain at least sophomore status (30 semester hours) and satisfactory completion of the pre-professional component.

Conditional eligibility, based on expected course grade outcomes, can be offered to students enrolled in courses that will be completed by the end of their sophomore year.

All students must complete and submit a NKU ATP application by October 1 of the year the student is seeking admission.

Each student must submit a typed writing sample (one-page, double-spaced, 10pt font) addressing the following: “What do you believe is the most important attribute of an athletic trainer as an allied health care provider, and what attributes do you process that will allow you to fulfill the role of an athletic trainer?”

Student must provide transcripts and/or proof of satisfactory completion of the pre-professional component.

3. Selective Admission

The Athletic Training Program has limited and selective enrollment. Available positions will be determined according to the set maximum number of program positions, number of students graduating, and attrition rate.

Students meeting the minimum requirements for formal application will be selected for admission to the ATP program according to the following objective selection criteria:

- cumulative GPA,
- pre-professional coursework grades,
- observation evaluations, and
- application quality.

Each will be weighted according to importance as follows:

1. 25% cumulative GPA
2. 25% pre-professional coursework grades
3. 35% observation evaluations
4. 15% application quality.

Overall score used to objectively rank students and students with the highest scores will be accepted until all available positions are filled. Students will be notified of the acceptance status by October 30 of the application year. Rejected students will be afforded the opportunity to reapply during the next application period. Accepted students begin the clinical rotations the spring semester following admission to the ATP.

F. General Activity Courses

The physical education program also offers activity courses (e.g., tennis, badminton, golf, racquetball, swimming, conditioning) meeting two hours per week and carrying 1 semester hour of credit. Letter grades are based on physical, cognitive, and psychomotor behaviors demonstrated by students. Students furnish activity clothing and, in some cases, athletic equipment, although most of the equipment is provided. Some activity courses are offered at off-campus facilities and an additional fee may be charged to the student. Activity courses are designed to (1) teach those activities that may serve as lifetime sports and recreation during leisure time, (2) offer regulated and supervised activities to improve and maintain physical fitness and sport skills, and (3) develop a positive and intelligent attitude toward the need for and benefits of a physically active lifestyle.

Academic units in the College of Professional Studies prepare students for a variety of high-demand, professional careers in communication, nursing, technology, allied health, human services, and social work. The goal of the College is to offer curricula that provide professional preparation and give students the opportunity to acquire knowledge and skills necessary to assume positions in professional fields.

The College offers academic degree programs at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, including two master's, fifteen bachelor's, and five associate degrees. Nationally accredited professional programs include a solid foundation of study in liberal arts and sciences. In addition to their coursework, students receive field experiences linking the classroom to the working world. Students are exposed to the principles of career development, leadership, and professional ethics.

Through programs in nursing, radiologic technology, respiratory care, human services, and social work, students are prepared for careers in health and human services and for staff positions in hospitals, clinics, rehabilitation centers, and service agencies.

Preparation for careers in industry and business is provided by the Department of Technology. Graduates assume positions in construction, manufacturing, electronics and engineering technology, labor relations, organizational leadership, aviation, and organizational systems. Professional careers in print journalism, radio and television, and public relations are typical goals for graduates of the Department of Communication. Associate degree graduates in aviation administration, in partnership with the Department of Technology, are prepared for entry-level positions for airlines, major airports, government aviation agencies, and travel bureaus.

In addition to classroom instruction, most programs in the College offer practicum and internship opportunities. These programs are intended to give students supervised work experience in the discipline prior to graduation. Such experiences are considered an important supplement to knowledge received in the classroom and a valuable part of students' education. Because the talents and individual characteristics required for success in the various disciplines vary, some departments have established selective admission requirements. Interested students should refer to the information provided below under the appropriate department heading.

In an effort to better serve the needs of undeclared students, Northern Kentucky University has established new major codes. Students who are interested in one or more of CPS’s academic units can now choose to be undeclared within the College of Professional Studies until they decide on a specific major. If students are interested in pursuing bachelor’s degrees within the College, they can select the major code of “PS UNDB”; if they want to obtain associate’s degrees, then they can choose “PS UNDA.” The introduction of the college-specific, undeclared major codes allows students to receive more accessible and personalized academic advising from an individual who is familiar with the College’s programs and admission requirements.

COMMUNICATION
The faculty of the Department of Communication fosters an integrated approach to the study and practice of communication and emphasizes the fundamental role that communication plays in virtually all human endeavors. With offerings that encompass journalism, public relations, radio/television, and speech communication, the department stresses an academic and applied focus among the various communication specialties.

Communication courses offer students basic and advanced skills in written, spoken, and audiovisual communication. They also promote an understanding of the history, philosophy, and theories of interpersonal and mass communication as well as an awareness of the personal, social, psychological, and cultural impacts of communication. Whatever their specific focus—news writing, public speaking, communication law, criticism, production, or communication theory—the department’s courses emphasize situational analysis, issue identification, problem-solving, message construction, and effective presentation.

The Department of Communication offers majors in journalism, public relations, radio/television, and speech communication for students who aspire to careers as professional communicators in fields such as newspaper journalism, magazine publishing, radio and television production, broadcast news, advertising and public relations, educational media, organizational communication, and teaching. Minors are offered in journalism, radio/television, speech communication, and popular culture. The department also offers students a wide range of courses that enhance their communicative abilities and support their interests and studies in other disciplines.

The major in public relations offers students a program of interdisciplinary study leading to career opportunities in public relations. The major has an academic and applied orientation and consequently students learn principles and engage in practices that prepare them for entry-level positions in public relations.

The major in journalism is for students interested in writing for newspapers, magazines, and electronic media. It offers a broad base of coursework designed to convey an understanding of the total mass media system coupled with an area of specialization.

The major in radio/television is for students planning careers in telecommunications. It encompasses performance, production, script writing, sales and advertising, management, and engineering. It also provides a firm foundation for graduate study in mass communication fields.

The major in speech communication provides a firm foundation for careers or graduate study in many fields. Among the most popular are management, education, sales, human resources, organizational communication, law, and training and development.
JOURNALISM

The journalism major is designed to provide students with fundamental skills and legal and ethical backgrounds in journalism and related fields.

The program offers a variety of courses that will develop the necessary skills and knowledge in the areas of (1) production, (2) management, (3) broadcast journalism, (4) media performance, (5) electronics, and (6) popular culture.

Program Requirements

The requirement for a radio/television major consists of eleven core courses and the courses listed in one of the sequences. When students declare a radio/television major, they should also choose to enter one of the eight sequences offered in: (1) Video Production, (2) Audio Production, (3) Media Performance, (4) Media Management, (5) Broadcast Journalism, (6) Visual Communications, (7) Electronics Technology, and (8) Telecommunication Studies.

To be considered for graduation, students must complete a minor in consultation with their major adviser. Some sequences require specific minors. Students must also receive a C or better in all required courses in the major.
RTV 260 and 265 require a minimum English ACT score of 20 for entrance.

The Minor in Radio/Television

Students who wish a minor in radio/television must arrange specific details of the requirements with a radio/television faculty adviser.

The requirements for a minor in radio/television are:

RTV 100 Contemporary Mass Media (or JOU 100) 3
RTV 110 Introduction to Telecommunications 3
RTV 215 Radio Production 3
Students must receive a C or better in any RTV courses taken to fulfill the requirements of the minor.

Note: Elective courses may only be used to satisfy one major/minor requirement. This may apply to general education as well. No “double dipping” is allowed, except in those situations where a course is required in both the major and minor. For example, a student in the video production sequence may not use RTV 265 to satisfy the core requirement and sequence requirement. A student may not take SPE 360 for his major sequence requirement and as an elective as a speech minor. An RTV major/minor cannot use RTV 105 to satisfy a requirement in a sequence and as a general education requirement. JOU 385 may be used as a major and minor requirement (RTV major/JOU minor), as both are required courses in each discipline. RTV 205 may be used for major and general education.

POPULAR CULTURE STUDIES

Offered by the Department of Communication, the minor in Popular Culture Studies offers students an opportunity to explore their cultural environment by examining aspects of cultural artifacts and events and relating them to their specific interests. The interdisciplinary program seeks to broaden the base of a student’s college education by using the courses of several disciplines to provide a wide, comprehensive approach to knowledge. The program is designed to equip the student with tools to analyze the world from the standpoint of popular culture. Students will gain familiarity with such concepts as the meaning of beliefs and the significance of icons, heroes, rituals, stereotypes, popular art, and relate those ideas to specific topical interests of their choice.

The program consists of 21 credit hours, including specific popular culture courses and courses taken from the various departments of the university. In consultation with an adviser, students will identify a particular topic of concentration or theme and then select courses from a variety of course offerings. The courses chosen must relate to a particular topic or theme. Twelve (12) of these hours are required courses: RTV 205, JOU/RTV 100, ENG 365, and RTV 498. The required courses will assist students in understanding the differences as well as the fluid relationships between folk, popular, and elite culture. All students must complete the required introductory course (RTV 205), which introduces them to the field of popular culture studies, including its major areas. Since the mass media are the chief disseminators of popular culture, students are required to take JOU/RTV 100, which examines the roles of functions of mass media in today’s society. Students then must take either American Folklore (ENG 365) or History and Film (HIS 390), depending on their interests. An additional 9 semester hours of elective courses are chosen by the student and adviser based on the student’s topic of concentration. To finish the required coursework for the minor, all students must complete an independent study (RTV 495), which gives them the chance to read and discuss topics of interest and which will culminate their coursework as a capstone experience.

Due to the unusual nature of the program, the student-adviser relationship is very important. Only through careful consultation can an individual program be worked out which will satisfy the needs of the student and at the same time meet the requirements of the program. Students interested in the minor must meet the program director prior to declaring the minor in order to discuss their interest and establish their individual programs and rationale for course selection.

Accreditation

The program is approved by the Kentucky Board of Nursing, Suite 300, 312 Whittington Parkway, Louisville, KY 40222-5172; phone 502-329-7000 and is accredited by the National League for Nursing Accreditation Commission (NLNAC), 61 Broadway, New York, NY 10006; phone 212-363-5555.

Applicants please note: The Kentucky Board of Nursing has regulations regarding previous felony and misdemeanor convictions that must be addressed prior to sitting for the licensure examination.

Pre-Major and Selective Admission Requirements

Upon completion of all required developmental coursework students enrolled in the University may declare the pre-nursing baccalaureate as their major. Students majoring in pre-nursing will be advised by a member of the nursing faculty to help them develop a plan for nursing education at Northern. Pre-nursing students may enroll in courses that fulfill pre-admission requirements and general education and/or in support courses required for the baccalaureate degree nursing program. However, students must be admitted to the nursing program in order to take courses in nursing. Students enrolled in courses as a pre-nursing major should declare (XNRS) as their major.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the baccalaureate degree program is selective. Applicants who meet minimum requirements for admission will be admitted to an applicant pool until January 31st. After this date, applicants with the highest qualifications will be given priority consideration for admission to the BSN program. Applications submitted after January 31st will be considered on a space-available basis or applied to the following academic year candidate pool.

Applicants wishing to be considered for admission must
1. be admitted to Northern Kentucky University; any restrictions or stipulations must be removed;
2. submit a baccalaureate degree nursing program application (this is in addition to the University application);

5. The last 30 semester hours of the major must be completed at Northern Kentucky University.

Advanced Standing for Licensed Practical Nurses

Application may be made for advanced standing in the baccalaureate degree program by licensed practical nurses who have been accepted into the program.

The licensed practical nurse must have completed a practical nursing program within the past four years or be actively employed as an LPN.

Testing dates for advanced standing may be obtained by contacting the Department. An advanced standing examination may be taken only once.

All students are required to complete the last 30 semester hours of the major at Northern Kentucky University.

Progression

Students wishing to pursue the baccalaureate degree program may take the general education support courses required prior to admission to the program. However, students must be admitted to the baccalaureate degree nursing program in order to take courses in nursing.

Upon matriculation into the baccalaureate degree program, students must take the last 30 semester hours at NKU.

Students are required to complete the nursing program within eight years of the first date of admission to the program.

To continue in the nursing program, students must maintain a grade-point average of at least 2.00 and achieve a grade of C or higher in all required nursing, biology, and chemistry courses.

Students withdrawing from the nursing program for any reason must have an exit interview with the program director and/or faculty adviser, and must complete and sign a withdrawal form.

Students may repeat only one semester of science courses.

Students may be eligible to apply to the Kentucky Board of Nursing for NCLEX testing following successful completion of the 3rd year of the BSN program. Criteria are described in the BSN Student Handbook.

Readmission

Applications for readmission to the nursing program will be considered on an individual basis. Students must submit an application for readmission to the Admissions, Progression, and Graduation Committee. A letter supporting the request for readmission must be attached to the application. This letter should outline strategies for success in the program.

Students applying for readmission may be required to have an interview with the program director and/or faculty adviser. Application forms are available from the Office of Admissions. Application must be made by 31 January for fall semester and 1 October for spring semester.

To be considered for readmission, a student reapplying to the baccalaureate degree program must have a grade-point average of 2.00 or better and be able to complete the program of study within eight years of the initial entry into the nursing program.

The faculty may state that written, specific conditions be met by the student when recommended for readmission.

Students may repeat only one semester of nursing. If a component or components of a clinical nursing course is repeated, all components of the course must be repeated together.

A student who did not successfully complete the first semester of the nursing program must apply as a new student and meet all requirements listed under “Admission Requirements.”

Students who have been dismissed from the nursing program are not eligible for readmission (see Baccalaureate Degree Nursing Program Student Handbook).

Students readmitted to the program are subject to the requirements of the catalog in effect for all nursing courses at the time of re-entry.

Student Advising

Upon admission to the nursing program, students are assigned to a faculty academic adviser and are required to meet with this adviser at least once each semester. Students are encouraged to maintain regular contact with their adviser so that progress and performance can be discussed and counseling provided as necessary.

Bachelor of Science for Registered Nurses

The bachelor’s degree program BSN) provides career mobility for the registered nurse. A substantial background in the liberal arts is an integral part of preparation for professional nursing. The upper-division curriculum blends scientific and humanistic theories with nursing theories to provide graduates with a foundation for professional nursing practice. Graduates are prepared to function in primary, secondary, and tertiary care settings and in roles that are dependent, interdependent, or independent according to the level of care required. They are able to lead and influence colleagues and co-workers for the enhancement of their knowledge and skills, thereby effecting change to promote quality nursing care for clients in any health care setting. The registered nurse to bachelor’s degree program is designed to provide a foundation for higher degree programs in nursing. The department reserves the right to change the program of study as needed to fulfill national certification, approved by the Kentucky Board of Nursing, and/or University requirements.

Graduates are awarded the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree.

Courses required as prerequisites for admission will be applied toward the general education requirements where applicable.

Accelerated Bachelor of Science in Nursing

The Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) program provides preparation for registered nursing practice. The curriculum is comprised of both didactic and clinical components and includes a sequence of courses in nursing theory. The curriculum blends scientific and humanistic theories with nursing theories to provide graduates with a foundation for professional nursing practice. The B.S.N. program is designed to provide a foundation for higher degree programs in nursing.

Faculty members hold a doctoral or master's degree and many are certified within their individual areas of specialty. Members of the faculty continue to practice in health care, and participate in research and other scholarly endeavors.

Graduates of the BSN program are awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and are eligible to apply to take the NCLEX-RN exam for licensure as a registered nurse.

The accelerated BSN Program is designed for Bachelor’s prepared or post-baccalaureate individuals who want to make a career change. The course requirements for the accelerated program are the same as those provided in the traditional BSN and pre-requisites are required. However, the accelerated program is fast-paced and rigorous incorporating an entire 4-years of nursing courses into sixteen (16) to eighteen (18) months. The Graduate of an accredited college or university with a bachelor's or degree in another field, may apply in the semester prior to graduation provided they meet the above criteria. Students must have a plan to complete all pre-requisites prior to the first semester of the accelerated program. Students who have not yet completed certain science courses with a grade of “C” or higher, complete a separate application for admission to the Acceleratged BSN Program. On the application, check Accelerated BSN Program.
5. Include with the application your plan for completion of all pre-requi­sites prior to starting the Accelerated BSN Program and any requests for waivers addressed to the chair of the Admission, Progression and Graduation Committee.
6. Mail or hand deliver application to: Attention: Admission Progression and Graduation Committee, Department of Nursing, Northern Kentucky University, 303 Albright Health Center, Highland Heights, KY 41099.

Progression
1. Students admitted to the Accelerated BSN Program are subject to the program requirements of the catalog in effect at the time of entry.
2. Upon matriculation into the Accelerated BSN Program, students must take the last 30 semester hours at NKU.
3. The program of study must be completed within two years of the first date of entering the program.
4. Students are expected to progress sequentially through the nursing program.
5. In order to be eligible to enroll in a succeeding nursing course, the student is required to meet all program requirements and academic standards.
6. A grade of “C” or higher must be achieved in all nursing courses in order to proceed to subsequent nursing courses.
7. Critical skills: Students are required to show ability to perform certain basic nursing skills during each semester. Failure to demonstrate continued ability to perform these skills will provide a basis for failure of the clinical component.
8. Students must concurrently take and pass nursing courses that are co­ requites.
9. Failed nursing courses (grade below a “C”) may not be repeated in the accelerated program.

Readmission
Students who fail a nursing course in the accelerated program (grade below a “C”) are not eligible for readmission to the accelerated program.
Students may apply for admission to the traditional baccalaureate program.

Applicants please note: The Kentucky Board of Nursing has regulations regarding previous convictions that must be addressed prior to sitting for the licensure examination. All felony and misdemeanor convictions must be reported when applying for licensure.
RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGY

The curriculum of the associate degree program in radiologic technology is a 22-month program that prepares students for entry-level work in the radiology specialty of radiography (diagnostic x-ray). Graduates are competent in routine radiographic and fluoroscopic diagnostic procedures as well as in selected specialized procedures.

Education for the radiography student is an integrated plan of classroom, laboratory, and clinical education. Courses include patient care, human structure and function, radiation biology and protection, principles and techniques of diagnostic imaging, radiation physics, and image evaluation. In addition to their regular classroom coursework, students spend an average of 20 hours per week practicing their skills at one of the following clinical sites:

- St. Elizabeth Medical Center—north unit
- St. Elizabeth Medical Center—south unit
- St. Elizabeth Medical Center—Grant County
- St. Luke Hospital East
- St. Luke Hospital West
- The Jewish Hospital
- Mercy Hospital Anderson
- Mercy Clermont Hospital
- Dearborn County Hospital
- Margaret Mary Hospital

Additional affiliations are maintained with orthopedic offices to provide experience in this type of setting. Other opportunities are also available for elective rotations during the second year of the program. Although most courses are taught during the day, some are scheduled in late afternoon or evening during the second year of the program.

Graduates receive the degree of Associate of Applied Science in radiologic technology and are eligible to sit for the examination of the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists. Upon passing the examination, graduates may use the designation R.T.(R) and are also eligible to apply for an operator’s license in the applicable state of employment.

The NKU Radiologic Technology Program is accredited by the Joint Review Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology (http://www.jrcert.org).

Pre-Major and Selective Admission Requirements

Admission to the radiologic technology program is accomplished through a selective admissions process that includes an academic screening and hospital observation; verification of immunizations is required of accepted students. The Radiologic Technology Admissions Committee determines academic eligibility and ranks the applicants.

Twenty-eight students are accepted into each class. Names of other candidates meeting the admission criteria are placed on a waiting list and are accepted for the current year if vacancies occur prior to the start of the Introduction to Radiography course in July. Preference is given to students who have completed all admission requirements prior to 15 February.

ACADEMIC SCREENING

Academic criteria have been established to ensure that students meet the minimum requirements needed to be successful in the program. Numerical values are assigned to the GPA, completion of requisite coursework, and hospital observation. Beginning in the summer of 2004, students will have to meet the following admission requirements prior to starting the program:

a. Satisfactory completion of:
   - BIO 208 & 208L Human Anatomy & Physiology I
   - PHY 110 Introduction to Physics
   - ENG 101 College Writing
   - Math elective
b. A minimum GPA in all college work attempted on a 4.00 basis, using the following sliding scale:
   - 16-29 semester hours 2.50 GPA
   - 30-45 semester hours 2.40 GPA
   - 46 or more semester hours 2.30 GPA

1. Successful completion of any developmental coursework by the end of the spring semester, prior to entering the program.
2. Successful completion of other required general education courses will result in additional points that contribute to the ranking.

Hospital Observation

All candidates making formal application to the program are required to observe in a radiology department for a minimum of four hours. Observations may be completed at one of the program’s affiliated hospitals or, for those candidates from out of the area, at a hospital near their home. Candidates are responsible for completing an “Observation Worksheet” and submitting it as part of the application.

Technical Standards

Candidates eligible for the Radiologic Technology Program must be able to meet the following technical standards. These standards specify the skills necessary for successful completion of the program and subsequent employment as a radiologic technologist (radiographer).*

1. Sufficient visual acuity to:
   - * assess skin tone changes detectable in cyanotic or flushed skin
   - * detect color shades/tones such as shades of gray seen on radio graphs
   - * evaluate radiographs for quality, and
   - * read printed words in textbooks and on medical equipment
2. Sufficient hearing to communicate with patients and other members of the health care team, monitor patients via audio monitors, hear background sounds during equipment operations, and respond to the audible sounds of the equipment.
3. Sufficient gross and fine motor coordination to manipulate equipment and accessories, lift a minimum of 30 pounds, and to stoop, bend or promptly assist patients who become unstable.
4. Satisfactory physical strength and endurance to move immobile patients to or from a stretcher or wheelchair to the x-ray table, work with arms extended overhead (approximately 80” from the floor), carry 30 pounds while walking, and stand in place for long periods of time.
5. Satisfactory verbal, reading, and writing skills to:
   - * explain radiologic procedures and direct patients during those procedures and
   - * Communicate in English for effective prompt interaction with patients, fellow students, faculty, and hospital personnel.
6. Satisfactory intellectual and emotional functions to:
   - * ensure patient safety,
   - * exercise independent judgment and discretion in the performance of assigned responsibilities,
   - * measure, calculate, reason, and evaluate as required for direct patient care,
   - * handle stressful situations related to procedural standards and patient care situations.
7. Must be physically free of illegal drugs and alcohol.

* Students with disabilities should declare the disability and provide verification to the Office of Disability Services so reasonable accommodations can be made.

Admitted students must:
1. carry professional liability insurance (available through Northern Kentucky University and paid with tuition);
2. purchase appropriate professional uniforms;
3. provide own transportation to the hospital or clinic;
4. declare radiologic technology (RADA) as a major by the first day of the fall semester;
5. be immunized against hepatitis B and other communicable diseases;
6. provide documentation of immunizations and annual testing for tuberculosis;
7. maintain annual CPR certification. Submission of immunization and TB records is required for continuation in the program.

Transfer Students

Applicants who have withdrawn from another collegiate program in radiologic technology must submit an official transcript from that institution, as well as other program documents (i.e., course descriptions and/or syllabi) as requested by the NKU radiologic technology program. Transfer students must make an appointment with a program adviser to discuss transfer placement and will be considered for admission to the NKU program on an individual basis.

Advanced Standing

Students who possess a high school diploma or a GED, have graduated from an accredited post-secondary vocational or hospital-based program in radiologic technology, and have passed the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) national exam will be awarded 37 semester hours toward completion of NKU professional course requirements in radiologic technology.

Students admitted into the associate degree program under the advanced standing policy will be held accountable for meeting all prevailing University and program requirements for graduation.

Student Advising

Each student majoring in radiologic technology is assigned to a faculty adviser who will assist in developing an appropriate course of study. The student is expected to maintain frequent contact with the faculty adviser to discuss progress, performance, and career goals.

Students who are currently enrolled at NKU and who plan to apply to the Radiologic Technology Program are urged to declare pre-radiologic technology (XRAD) as their major to insure that they are appropriately advised. Pre-RAD majors may consult with their academic adviser on all issues related to course scheduling, the selective advising holds, and must be advised prior to registering for classes.

Associate of Applied Science in Radiologic Technology

In addition to the 14 semester hours of coursework required for admission to the program, students must complete 68 semester hours of coursework for the major. The professional component includes 55 semester hours of coursework. Of that number, 14 semester hours are earned in clinical practice at the affiliate hospitals and 41 hours earned in didactic coursework at the University.

RESPIRATORY CARE

Respiratory care is the allied health profession devoted to the diagnosis, treatment, and rehabilitation of patients with diseases of the respiratory system. Respiratory therapists must have a thorough understanding of normal pulmonary anatomy and physiology and of the pathology and treatment of various breathing-related disorders. They work in adult and pediatric hospitals, in some nursing homes, and for a growing number of home-care companies. With the authorization of a physician, they give aerosolized medications and various special breathing treatments to patients with acute or chronic pulmonary disease. Respiratory therapists are life-support specialists, setting up artificial ventilators for patients of all ages who cannot breathe for themselves. When a cardiac arrest occurs in the hospital, therapists provide cardiopulmonary resuscitation and manual ventilation. With sophisticated equipment, they measure effectiveness of breathing and levels of oxygen and carbon dioxide in the blood. Following recognized protocols or physician’s orders, they institute therapies to reduce the work of breathing and to improve ventilation and oxygenation.

The program at NKU is 5 semesters long, including summer sessions, with a curriculum of 74 semester hours. Besides didactic, lab, and clinical training in basic respiratory care, the first-year includes courses in chemistry and anatomy/physiology. The summer and the second year focus on more advanced or specialized modalities of respiratory care plus the general education courses necessary to develop an informed, broadly educated health care professional. To provide experience with patients, the program has clinical affiliations with hospitals in the northern Kentucky and greater Cincinnati area. Successful completion of the program leads to the degree of Associate of Applied Science and to eligibility for the C.R.T. and R.R.T. credentialing examinations given by the National Board for Respiratory Care. After passing the C.R.T. exam, the graduate is eligible for a Kentucky Mandatory Certificate or for licensure in another state.

Pre-Major and Selective Admission Requirements

The applicant must follow the standard procedures for admission to the University as outlined in the Admission section of this catalog. In addition, the applicant must do the following:

1. Submit a completed Respiratory Care Program Application for Admission;
2. Observe the work of a therapist employed in a hospital respiratory care department and submit a completed Respiratory Care Observation Form.

Admission to the program is gained via a selective admissions process that includes an evaluation of academic credentials. After an applicant has obtained unrestricted admission to Northern Kentucky University, he or she will be considered for acceptance into the first term of professional RSP courses under the following minimum criteria:

- Complete prerequisite coursework with a grade of C or better.
- Achieve a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5.
- Complete the Respiratory Care Program Application for Admission.
- Submit a completed Observation Form.
- Submit an official transcript from an accredited post-secondary vocational or hospital-based program.
- Submit a completed application for admission to the program.

6. meet the requirements for admission to Northern Kentucky University.

Assessment of Major
In the fifth term, as part of RSP 280 Respiratory Care Seminar, students as a group must take the Entry Level and Written Registry Self­ Assessment Examinations from the National Board for Respiratory Care.
The examinations (1) give students the opportunity to demonstrate a synthesis of knowledge about respiratory care, (2) help students prepare for the actual Entry Level and Registry examination, and (3) provide group examination performance information for program self-evaluation as required for accreditation.

Progression
A student must achieve a grade of at least C in each respiratory care course in order to continue in the program. Accurate knowledge of chemistry and human anatomy and physiology is essential to the effective application of respiratory therapy. For this reason, the required science courses must be taken before or during the semester in which they are listed in the program curriculum. Two grades of less than “C” in required science courses constitute reason for dismissal from the program. Science courses transferred from other institutions with a grade of less than “C” will not be recognized as fulfilling program requirements.

ATTAINMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF A CUMULATIVE GRADE-POINT AVERAGE

GAINING ADMISSION TO THE PROGRAM

A cumulative grade-point average of at least 2.00 is required. Students make formal application to the Social Work Program after completion of SWK 105 and SWK 203; completion of general education requirements; and completion of courses in other disciplines designated by the program. Successful completion of Social Work Required Supportive Courses (see “Social Work Required Supportive Courses”)

DECLARATION OF SOCIAL WORK AS A MAJOR FIELD OF STUDY

Students wishing to major in one of these programs must apply to and be accepted into the program in addition to meeting the general admission requirements of the University. Complete program admission requirements are included in the specific description of each program. Applications should be directed to the appropriate program director or to the NKU Office of Admissions.

ADMISSION AND GOALS OF THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Social Work and Human Services assumes a leadership role in the preparation of students for a variety of careers in the social work, mental health, and human services field. The programs of the department are committed to the comprehensive personal and academic preparation of knowledgeable and skillful helping professionals.

To achieve this goal, the department’s programs actively combine classroom instruction with supervised field experiences. By being exposed to community settings as well as campus classrooms and laboratories, students have ongoing opportunities to test their theoretical knowledge in real-world situations and to bring on-the-job experiences back to the classroom for analysis and discussion.

Because of the department’s professional orientation and the post-graduation licensing requirements faced by practitioners who wish to work in these fields, all three of the degree programs have selective admissions policies.

Computer and Electronics Engineering Technology (CEET)
This bachelor's degree program is designed to prepare graduates for both technological and managerial responsibilities in industry. In addition to the electrical and electronics offerings, the program is structured to give a broad knowledge in areas that electronic engineering technologists are likely to encounter in their job responsibilities. The majority of the courses include both theoretical and laboratory ("hands-on") elements so that the graduates can more efficiently apply skills to real-world problems.

The previous, but related, EET program is accredited by the Technology Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology, 111 Market Place, Suite 1050, Baltimore, MD 21202-4012; phone 410-347-7700.

Recognizing the importance of computer programming skills for many EET graduates, the program is organized to permit selection of either of two areas of emphasis. For those students desiring additional computer programming skills, the Computer Science Emphasis is chosen. The Technical Science Emphasis provides students with skills that are very important in many other industries.

Graduates of the CEET program will be prepared to provide direct technical assistance to scientists and engineers in scientific research, experimentation, and design. Skills gained and enhanced in this program will permit graduates to analyze, troubleshoot, and design industrial and laboratory systems that have electronic, mechanical, thermal, and fluidic components.

Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering Technology (MMET)

This bachelor’s degree program is designed to provide students with the knowledge and skills needed to succeed in today’s industrialized society. Modern industrial societies are centered on the successful production, distribution, and utilization of mechanized devices and techniques. Robust design methods are pivotal in the manufacturability, performance, and economic feasibility of these devices. Together with study of the basic engineering principles, design is the cornerstone of the Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering Technology program. Students choosing Mechanical Engineering Technology as their emphasis will focus on the relationship between design and performance of parts and products. Students selecting Manufacturing Engineering Technology will focus on different manufacturing methods and practices vital in the production of high-quality devices.

The previous but related MET program is accredited by the Technology Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology, 111 Market Place, Suite 1050, Baltimore, MD 21202-4012; phone 410-347-7700.

Students who desire to apply to professional schools of dentistry, medicine, pharmacy, veterinary medicine, engineering, forestry, optometry, wildlife management, or law should consult with the appropriate pre-professional adviser. Normally a student in a pre-professional program who wishes to receive a degree from NKU must fulfill the requirements listed in this catalog under “Requirements for degrees.” However, under certain circumstances, the first year of work at a professional school may be applied toward the degree at NKU (see, elsewhere in this catalog, “Transfer of credit from post-bachelor’s institutions to NKU bachelor’s programs”).

The following are the usual minimum requirements for admission to the respective professional schools (“1 semester” refers to at least 3 semester hours of credit; “1 year,” to at least 6 semester hours).

Pre-Dentistry and Pre-Medicine

Most students complete an undergraduate program before attending dental or medical school. Exceptional students may gain entrance after three undergraduate years. Students fulfilling the basic requirements below may be accepted with almost any major. Usually, pre-dental or pre-medical students major in sciences such as biology, chemistry, or physics or in mathematics. For further details and suggested curricula, see under “Biological Sciences” or “Chemistry” in this catalog.

1 year English composition
1 year biology with laboratory
1 year physics with laboratory
1 year general chemistry with laboratory
1 year organic chemistry with laboratory

In their junior year, students must register with Northern’s Pre-Medical Review Board to indicate intended application to medical or dental school. Information on the Board may be obtained from students’ advisers.

Pre-Pharmacy

Pre-pharmacy students will normally enter pharmacy school after two years of undergraduate work. If such students remain at NKU they may readily complete a major in biology or in chemistry in their third and fourth years. For further details and suggested curricula, see under “Biological Sciences” or “Chemistry” in this catalog.

1 year English composition
1 year biology with laboratory
1 year mathematics (calculus and statistics)
1 semester microbiology with laboratory
1 semester principles of economics
1 year physics with laboratory
1 year general chemistry with laboratory
1 year organic chemistry with laboratory

Pre-Veterinary Medicine

Although Kentucky does not have a school of veterinary medicine, a limited number of students who are residents of Kentucky are selected to enter training in veterinary medicine at Auburn University, Auburn, Alabama, and Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama. These students are exempt from out-of-state tuition. Students generally need to have a grade-point average (GPA) of at least 3.20 to be competitive for admission.

Most students require at least three years to complete the courses required for admission to veterinary schools. For further details and suggested curricula, see under “Biological Sciences” or “Chemistry” in this catalog.

1 year English composition
1 year biology with laboratory
1 semester mathematics (calculus)
2 years chemistry including general chemistry and organic chemistry with laboratory

Pre-Engineering

Northern Kentucky University, in conjunction with the University of Kentucky, offers students the opportunity to pursue a degree in agricultural, chemical, civil, electrical, mechanical, materials, or mining engineering. Similar arrangements exist with the Speed Scientific School at the University of Louisville. These agreements allow the same predictable transfer to UL as to UK but for a degree program that leads to Master of science level degree in any of chemical, civil, electrical, industrial, or mechanical engineering as well as a hybrid degree in engineering mathematics and computer science.

Pre-engineering students may elect to follow a three/two agreement that leads to the award of a degree in physics from NKU and the award of a degree in a field of engineering from the program and institution of choice. Alternatively, a student may elect to study at NKU for two years of course work then transfer to another institution to complete only requirements for the BS in a field of engineering in two years.

Most Pre-engineering students will be expected to complete at least this group of courses at NKU before transfer to a degree program in engineering:

1 year of English Composition
1 year of university physics with laboratory
2 years of calculus and differential equations
1 year of chemistry
Courses in computer graphics, general education, and introduction to engineering and design.

See under “Physics and Geology”

See under “Biological Sciences.”

Pre-Optometry

See under “Biological Sciences.”

Pre-Physical Therapy

See under “Biological Sciences.”

Pre-Physician Assistant

See under “Biological Sciences.”

Pre-Wildlife Management

See under “Biological Sciences.”

Pre-Law

No particular course of study is a prerequisite for admission to law school. The main guide to undergraduate studies should be the student’s own interests and talents. Students considering law school may wish to consider the legal studies minor or the pre-law area of concentration offered by the Department of Political Science. Among the primary admissions factors considered by law schools are the GPA and the score on the law school admission test (LSAT). All pre-law students, regardless of major, are advised to consult with the University’s pre-law adviser.

Honors Program

Tom Zaniello, Director

The NKU Honors Program provides qualified students with a 21-hour minor, which includes 15 semester hours of seminars, each having a maximum enrollment of 15 students, plus 6 semester hours for completing the Honors Thesis. At the core of the Honors experience, the seminars emphasize discussion and discovery of ideas. NKU’s Honors Program is university-wide. The program showcases open-ended seminars not conforming to the boundaries traditionally dividing fields of expertise. Honors learning affords the intellectual challenges of interdisciplinary education.

Qualifying for Honors

NKU’s Honors Program is open to first-time freshmen, already enrolled students, and transfer students. To qualify for admission, students should demonstrate curiosity about a wide range of subjects, show that they can take the initiative for their own learning, and prove that they are academically well prepared. Outstanding academic credentials, such as an ACT composite score of 26 or above, or SAT combined score of 1180, success in advanced-placement courses, or comparable evidence of achievement such as a major scholarship, help to ensure admission. Students interested in the program should complete an application form (available from Northern Kentucky University, NKU Honors Program, Honors House, Nunn Drive, Highland Heights, KY 41099; phone 859-572-5400), or on the NKU website. Following a review of the application by the program director, applicants receive notification of their standing. February 1 is the deadline for application, but students may apply after that date as space allows. Students in good standing in Honors maintain a minimal GPA of 3.25.

Honors Seminars

The Honors seminars (each worth 3 semester hours) are uniquely adapted to Honors participants’ interests, talents, and creativity. The seminar sequence begins with Introduction to Honors (HNR 101). Next, students take any four of the following nine seminars: Humanity and Nature (HNR 301), Humanity and Society (HNR 302), Humanity and the Imagination (HNR 303), Humanity and the Machine (HNR 304), Studies in Diversity (HNR 306), Studies in Film (HNR 307), The World in Transition (HNR 308), World Cities/World Cultures (HNR 309), and Special Topics (HNR 394). Students may substitute up to one disciplinary honors course (such as ENG 151) for HNR courses. Faculty members who are devoted to excellence in teaching and proven meritiorious in their respective fields teach in NKU’s Honors Program. Finally, students complete an Honors Thesis/Project (HNR 491 or independent study in a student’s major), which gives them the chance to read and discuss topics of lasting significance, conduct independent research, and present oral reports of their conclusions. The Thesis/Project has proven to be of value in successful applications for graduate or professional study beyond the undergraduate degree.
Co-curricular Activities

Honors participants may take advantage of a broad range of co-curricular activities. Locally, they may elect to become members of the Honors Student Association, which sponsors group experience in the arts, engaging in dialogue with guests invited to speak especially with the club, film nights and coffee house events, and community service. Becoming an officer in the club helps to build leadership capabilities.

NKU is a full member of the National Collegiate Honors Council (NCHC), at whose annual meetings Honors students present papers of original research or study. Other international study opportunities are open to Honors students, who are eligible for Honors travel fellowships.

International Programs

Michael Klembara, Director

The Office of International Programs in BEP 301 coordinates education abroad programs at NKU. Through membership in several consortia and its own exchange agreements with foreign universities, NKU provides its students with a variety of opportunities for education throughout the world. Academic credit can be earned for courses taken through these programs; students should consult with their advisors to ensure that courses taken abroad will count toward their general studies and/or major requirements.

Students may participate in a wide range of courses and programs in English-speaking regions available through NKU’s membership in the Cooperative Center for Study Abroad (CCSA). CCSA develops and coordinates short-term programs in Australia, New Zealand and South Africa and London in the interim between semesters in late December and early January; summer programs in Barbados, Belize, England, Ireland, Jamaica, Kenya, Scotland, Singapore, and South Africa; and a fall semester in England. Internships are also available in London, England; Dublin, Ireland; and Sydney, Australia.

Women’s Studies

The minor in women’s studies offers undergraduate students the opportunity to earn a minor through an integrated series of courses reflecting the new scholarship on women, the study of women, their contributions to society, and their changing roles. This series of courses has as its objectives the following:

1. To study the contributions in each discipline made by women in society.
2. To promote research regarding women’s past, present, and future contributions to society.
3. To analyze the changing roles of men and women in society.
4. To study possible social changes and reactions to the changing roles of women and men.
5. To study special problems faced by women in the labor force, under the law, and in social situations.
6. To gain a cross-cultural perspective on women and to learn about new role possibilities for women.
7. To study normative values relevant to a women’s movement.

The Women’s Studies Minor requires a total of 21 semester hours.

Recognition and Privileges

NKU takes great pride in its Honors students and rewards them accordingly. Recognition and international scholarships are available. Students who successfully complete the Honors curriculum are designated "University Honors Scholars," a term that appears on their diplomas and transcripts. The Honors coursework may be claimed as a minor, but the effect of Honors learning is major in broadening the students’ educational background.

Two of the following three courses are required:

(One of these may be the third of those listed above.) To complete an area of concentration in Women’s Studies, students must take at least 12 semester hours of the coursework designated below at the 300-level or above. Minors need to file a declaration of minor in the Registrar’s office. Students doing an area of concentration also need to declare it in the Registrar’s office in order to apply any of the upper-division courses listed below to the area of concentration in Women’s Studies, and not just those with a “WMS” prefix.

Academic Advising Resource Center

David Emery, director

The Academic Advising Resource Center (AARC) provides academic advising services for some undeclared and all University Studies students at NKU. AARC advisers assist these students to make well-informed, timely decisions about selecting appropriate courses and programs of study.

Undeclared Students

Many entering students elect to be Undeclared rather than select a major. Some undeclared students may feel that they need some time to explore possible areas of interest, make appropriate choices about majors, and schedule courses preparing them for these programs. Other undeclared students want advice about which programs might be best suited to their academic strengths and weaknesses, personal interests, and career objectives. AARC advises only undeclared students whose academic interests cannot be narrowed to a specific college. Undeclared students who have focused their major choice(s) within a specific college can be advised in either the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Business, College of Professional Studies, or College of Education.

University Studies Students

NKU has developed a special program for entering students who have not yet fulfilled the University’s pre-college curriculum requirements. Students who have academic needs as defined by their admission status are classified as University Studies students and are advised by AARC. AARC advisers assist these students with timely completion of pre-college curriculum requirements and discuss with them avenues for academic success.

Advising Services

All undeclared and University Studies students must meet formally with an academic adviser in AARC each semester before registering for classes. During advising appointments, AARC advisers provide individualized academic advising that is sensitive to students’ individual needs. Specifically, AARC advisers assist students in the following ways:

1. Discuss students’ academic progress.
2. Provide current curricular information on pre-college curriculum, general education, and major or minor course requirements.
3. Clarify University policies and procedures.
4. Help students learn effective decision-making skills for choosing majors.
5. Offer proactive academic counseling for students experiencing academic difficulties.
6. Assist in course selection and scheduling.
7. Make referrals to appropriate university faculty, staff, and services.

Academic advising is a process of shared responsibility between the student and the adviser that assists students in achieving their maximum educational potentials. Quality academic advising depends on active student participation in the process. To realize the most from their advising, students should come to advising sessions prepared with information and questions for their advisers.

The Academic Advising Resource Center, Old Science Building 405A, 859-572-6900, is open from 8:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday with additional hours till 6:15 p.m. Monday and Thursday fall and spring semester. Visit AARC’s web page at www.nku.edu/~aarc.
The Developmental Mathematics Program (DMP) offers courses designed to assist students who did not complete the pre-college high school curriculum (two years of algebra, one year of geometry) or who need further work to master the mathematical skills essential for success in college-level courses. Placement into courses in the program is by ACT score, SAT score, COMPASS score, high school record, and/or placement testing. See page 11 for more specific placement criteria. For further information about DMP, call 859-572-6473 or come to AST 305E, where the program is housed with the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science.

Students should consider an SLA course section if they anticipate difficulty in a particular subject or if the subject is unfamiliar to them. All students who enroll in an SLA course section are required to attend all SLA workshops until the first examination and thereafter only if their grade in the class falls below a C average; students are required to attend all SLA workshops until their grade improves to a C average or higher. All students, however, are encouraged to attend often.

Becoming a Learning Assistance Program Tutor or Consultant

Sophomore, junior, and senior students with superior academic achievement are invited to apply to the Learning Assistance Program (LAP) to become paid Academic tutors, Math Center tutors, or Writing Center consultants. LAP student employees may work up to 10 hours per week.

Learning Assistance Program Courses

Writing Workshop (ENG 090)

Writing Workshop offers practice and instruction in writing for students needing additional preparation for ENG 101. The course focuses on the activities writers do and the decisions writers make: selecting topics, purposes, and forms; determining when and how to revise; and establishing when a piece of writing can be considered “finished.”

Learning Assistance (LAP 090)

Learning Assistance, a 1-semester-hour pass/fail course, offers additional instruction for selected developmental level (under 100) courses.

Reading Workshop (LAP 091)

Reading Workshop offers students practice and instruction in reading and reading appreciation. The course guides students in literate behavior: book selection, reading strategies, and responding creatively and critically to readings.
Critical Reading (LAP 110)

Critical Reading is designed to sharpen students’ critical reading and thinking abilities. It is especially recommended for students desiring additional instruction for the considerable reading demands of college-level courses.

Bookscape (LAP 210)

Introduction to the world of contemporary tradebooks (books sold in regular bookstores, books that are NOT school textbooks). Students read these books and learn how to engage in in-depth discussions about them in an egalitarian, book-discussion-club atmosphere.

Learning Communities Program

A Learning Community is a small group of NKU students who take two or three popular courses together. By taking the same classes, these students meet new people, make new friends, form study groups, participate in class discussions, and get to know faculty. Research has shown that the more connections students make to the university, the better they do in school and the more they enjoy their college experience.

Course Placement

In a learning community, the same group of about 25 students will be automatically placed in two or three classes together. Usually one of these classes will consist entirely of the Learning Community and, in most cases, one will be a large, lecture-based class.

Scheduling

Learning Community classes meet on the same day of the week. Enrolling in a Learning Community guarantees students a spot in all of the learning community classes.

Eligibility

All freshmen are eligible for Learning Communities, regardless of admission status.

Courses

Learning Communities feature a wide range of the classes freshmen take most often. Please see the current Schedule of Classes for more information.

For more information about Learning Communities, contact the Office of First-Year Programs, BP 206 or call 859-572-5913.

UNV 101 (An Orientation to College and Beyond)

This course is designed to help students make a successful transition to university life. It will provide insight into the importance of learning processes that occur outside the classroom and an overview of resources available to help ensure student success in the classroom. UNV 101 provides students with essential information about University policies, rules, procedures, and resources. UNV 101 classes include work on time management, college study skills, basic computer skills, choosing a major and career, and using the NKU library. Most classes require that students attend several University activities and events. Classes introduce students to the University offices and discuss topics like safer dating, multiculturalism, and drug and alcohol abuse. Students are required to attend class and to interact with their instructor and classmates. Throughout the course, students will be strongly encouraged to take responsibility for their own success in the learning process. Students will learn skills essential both to a positive transition to college and to future transitions in their lives.

Course Characteristics

UNV 101 is a 3-semester-hour course generally limited to freshmen or transfer students. It does not fulfill general studies requirements but counts as an elective that may be applied toward graduation. Based on student performance, the grade of A, B, C, D, or F will be awarded upon completion of the course. The grade in UNV 101 is computed in a student’s grade point average.

Instructors

UNV 101 is taught by a specially trained group of instructors who come from various areas and disciplines across campus. Some sections may be team-taught by two instructors.

Special Sections of UNV 101

Students may choose from different types of UNV 101 sections: (1) “regular” sections open to all new students; or (2) special sections that, in additions to the standard UNV 101 curriculum, are designed to meet the needs of particular student populations such as African-American, undeclared/undecided, non-traditional, international, and students living in the residence halls. About 20 sections of UNV 101 are part of Learning Communities (see below).

Learning Community/UNV 101 Sections

Some UNV 101 sections will be included in Learning Communities. Learning Community UNV 101 courses help new students build stronger connections with each other and with the campus and provide opportunities for students in these special UNV 101 classes to form study groups and to attend campus activities together.

Course Objectives:

1. To encourage students to take responsibility for their own learning both in and out of the classroom.
2. To teach “survival skills”—academic, personal, and social—that are essential to success in college and beyond.
3. To introduce students to the procedures and resources of the University and to help them become proficient in using them.
4. To provide students with a supportive community that will assist them in their transition to college.
5. To help students develop their written, oral, and non-verbal communication skills—skills essential to college success and life after college.
6. To introduce students to computer tools such as e-mail, the NKU Homepage, and electronic library sources.
7. To help students find a process for selecting a major and exploring career options.
8. To encourage student involvement in extra-curricular events and cultural activities.
9. To foster an understanding of and sensitivity to differences such as race, culture, religion, sexual orientation, and physical ability as reflected in our University community.
10. To introduce students to the mission, traditions, and history of Northern Kentucky University.

RESIDENCY POLICY (excerpts)

The following information is for general information only and is not meant to be anything other than an example of the governing documents pertaining to the establishment of Kentucky residency. This does not supplant the legal document that details the exact nature of residency which can be found at: http://www.cpe.state.ky.us/policies/policies_student_residency.asp.

The State of Kentucky will assume you are NOT a resident if:
1. You had an out-of-state address on your application for admission;
2. You moved into Kentucky primarily to enroll in the university;
3. You moved into Kentucky and, within 12 months of that move you have enrolled at a Kentucky institution for more than the number of hours considered half-time;
4. You have been in continuous absence from the state for one year.

You can challenge your status designation by presenting proof among other documents that you have:
1. accepted a full-time job or transfer to an employer in Kentucky, Greater Cincinnati, or nearby Indiana while moving your domicile into the state of Kentucky;
2. lived in Kentucky continuously as a non-student for 12 months before the semester in which you plan to enroll;
3. prepared an income tax form that shows a change of address or the payment of Kentucky withholding taxes for the calendar year;
4. been employed full-time for 1 year while living in Kentucky;
5. obtained a professional license or certification in Kentucky;
6. paid real property taxes in Kentucky;
7. owned real property that was used by you as a residence before the date of application for a determination of residency status;
8. obtained a long-term lease of at least 12 consecutive months of non-collegiate housing;
9. married a Kentucky resident;
10. continued presence in Kentucky during academic breaks; and,
11. rely on a certain level of dependency on student financial aid in order to provide basic sustenance.
