

Graduate Student
Change of Area of Concentration
&
Change of Catalog Applicability Form

This form is to be used only when changing area of concentration within the same degree where admission requirements are the same. A change in area of concentration automatically changes catalog of record to the one in effect when the change is made. Changing to a new degree program requires a new application for admission.

Students may request to use as their catalog of record one that is dated subsequent to but not prior to their current catalog of record. When changing catalog of record, students are bound by all university-wide and program/major specific requirements in the catalog in effect at the time this change is approved.

It is strongly suggested students review all university and degree/program requirements in the requested new catalog of record before submitting this form.
