NKU Admitted Student Days

Have you been admitted to NKU for the Fall of 2024? Join us for a half-day event on campus just for you! You will learn about your next steps, explore opportunities and activities with your major, and have some fun with your fellow Future Norse. We are offering two dates this spring – March 18th and April 15th. Register here!

Experiential Learning Week

April 15-19

Celebrate Experiential Learning Week with NKU and gain new perspectives about studying abroad, internships, student research/creativity and service learning. Attend events throughout the week and learn more about how to get involved! Sessions are open to all NKU students, including the School Based Scholars. The specifics about each event and RSVP at <http://nku.edu/elw>

Celebration of Student Research & Creativity

April 17, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. in SU Ballroom

At Celebration, undergraduate and graduate students present their research, artistic or creative projects. With unique research projects on display, Celebration helps to increase understanding of the important role student research and creativity plays in the education of our students at NKU. Poster event will be held in the SU Ballroom. Feel free to come at your leisure between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. to view the posters or catch an oral or creative presentation.

Camp Norse

June 17 – August 16 (sign up now!)

Campus Tours

Various Days & Times

Are you interested in learning more about NKU? The NKU Office of Admissions is hosting a wide variety of visits this fall, both in-person and virtual, to meet the needs of prospective students and to showcase our campus community. We've carefully curated visits to include all the information you need to discover your future at NKU, whether you want a campus tour, general overview of NKU, or a visit specifically focused on your intended major. Descriptions and registration pages can be found at www.nku.edu/visit.

SPOTLIGHT:

Final Exams & Thinking Toward Next Semester

As we approach the end of the semester, stay focused. Remember to communicate with your professors and use your resources. You're nearly there! It's also time to think about next semester. To those graduating, congratulations! To those returning next year, be sure to check your schedules in the coming days. If you see anything incorrect, report it to your school counselor. Good luck with your exams and have a wonderful summer!
