SPOTLIGHT:

Final Exams & Thinking Toward Next Semester

You've nearly made it through the semester. You've one last hurdle to jump: the final exam. Study/work smart (aka, use those study techniques instead of cramming), fuel your body and mind with good food and water, and get sleep. Communicate with your instructor if you have questions. Use your resources.

It's also time to think toward next semester. Registration begins in a couple of weeks be sure to check your schedule soon. If you see anything incorrect, report it to your school counselor.

EVENTS & REMINDERS

Please note: Some events may require an NKU ID card in order to attend free or at student rates. You may obtain an ID card by visiting the All Card office.

November 8 at 5:30pm on Zoom

Kareem Tayyar's work has appeared in publications including Poetry Magazine, Prairie Schooner, Alaska Quarterly Review, and North Dakota Quarterly, and his most recent book, Keats in San Francisco & Other Poems, was published in 2022 by Lily Poetry Review Books. The psychology club is hosting a panel on Wed, Nov. 8 (at 12:00 in MEP 331) to help students learn about graduate school. The panelists include Taylor Allesch (training in clinical mental health counseling), Onyinye Uwolloh (training in industrial/organizational psych), and Heather Kissel (training in biological psych). All are welcome! Spread the word if you know someone who may be interested!

Psi Chi (honor society) induction is scheduled for Wed, Nov. 15 in the Otto Budig Theater (second floor of UC).

Explore STEM at NKU: Through this immersive event, you will learn about the academic experience and career opportunities in the STEM disciplines. You'll leave with inside information about our majors, experiential learning opportunities, and scholarships. You'll have the opportunity to engage with content and see the areas where you would carry out your studies. Students, faculty, and alumni will share the inside scoop on what it's like to be a student in STEM at NKU. Whether you have known your career path since you were in kindergarten, or you are still trying to figure it out, this event will help you get one step closer to your goals. Register here for our November 7 or February 19 Explore STEM Days.

STEM Movie Night: We welcome you to watch Back to the Future on the planetarium dome and eat movie snacks with friends. Join us at the Haile Digital Planetarium on the 4th floor of the Science Center on November 8, 4:00.

STEM Pizza Suppers: You are invited to campus for our free STEM Pizza Suppers! The theme for November is The Great Pumpkin. Join us on November 29, 5-6 pm in HE 102/104.

The School of the Arts combines Art & Design, Music, and Theatre & Dance to bring unparalleled artistic opportunities to current and future students, as well as high quality programming for the community. SOTA has a large assortment of productions throughout the remainder of the year.

Campus Tours

Various Days & Times

Are you interested in learning more about NKU? The NKU Office of Admissions is hosting a wide variety of visits this fall, both in-person and virtual, to meet the needs of prospective students and to showcase our campus community. We've carefully curated visits to include all the information you need to discover your future at NKU, whether you want a campus tour, general overview of NKU, or a visit specifically focused on your intended major. Descriptions and registration pages can be found at www.nku.edu/visit.

SPOTLIGHT:

FUEL NKU

With the abundance of food options on campus and the myth of the “freshman 15,” it would be easy to think that students never go hungry, but that would not be true. That’s why Dr. Jessica Taylor of the College of Health and Human Services started FUEL NKU. It grew from one shelf in her office to an entire pantry where dozens of students find free food and toiletries each week. If you’re in need of this service, simply show up with your ALL Card, sign a form, and fill up a bag with goods for free. The pantry is always in need of donations, too, especially around holidays.
