Final Exams and Thinking Ahead for Fall

As we approach the end of the semester, stay focused. Remember to communicate with your professors and use your resources. You're nearly there! It's also time to think toward next semester. To those graduating, congratulations! To the rest of you, don't forget to register for classes before you go on break. Double check those schedules, and if you see anything incorrect, report it to your school counselor.

Campus Tours (Various Days and Times)

Are you interested in learning more about NKU? The NKU Office of Admissions is hosting a wide variety of visits, both in-person and virtual, to meet the needs of prospective students and to showcase our campus community. We've carefully curated visits to include all the information you need to discover your future at NKU, whether you want a campus tour, general overview of NKU, or a visit specifically focused on your intended major. Descriptions and registration pages can be found at www.nku.edu/visit.

Thank you for taking the time to read through our newsletter. We are excited to enrich your SBS experience. If you have any questions or need further information, please don't hesitate to reach out to us at nkusbs@nku.edu.

If you are interested in taking dual credit courses, talk to your dual credit contact and schedule your advising appointment.

Stay connected with us through our website and social media channels for the latest news and updates.

Warm regards,
Shelli Johnson, Interim Associate Director
Megan Henson, Coordinator for Communication and Outreach

School-Based Scholars

Students who participate in dual credit are more likely to enroll in college, earn a higher GPA during their first year of study, and complete their degree than students who don't participate in dual credit. Get started with School-Based Scholars today!
