Six@Six: From Surviving to Thriving: Mindful Self-Care Practicies

Living with joy and tranquility in a stress-filled world isn't easy. The difference between thriving—bringing positivity to ourselves and those around us—and merely surviving isn't a matter of acquiring more stuff or perfecting our "look," lifestyle, or strategies; rather, it's about taking care of and growing ourselves. Only by doing so can we better care for and serve others. Simply, self-care is a necessary condition and foundation for becoming a more effective helper, leader, and person. This session focuses on practical activities and mindful practices that can help us on our life-long, self-care adventure that will take us to places we haven't been before. And the benefits can be greater than gold.
