Vol. 1 Issue 16

SPOTLIGHT ON:
CAREER SERVICES

Career Services provides programs and services that engage and empower students to: establish academic and career goals, obtain co-ops and internships, secure meaningful employment, and manage their careers for rewarding, fulfilled lives. In addition to helping students find internship and job opportunities, Career Services offers a number of events and resources to help students improve their resumes, practice their interview skills, build their networks, explore majors, and prepare for their futures. Learn more about Career Services here: https://inside.nku.edu/careerservices.html

Events & Announcements for Apr. 9 – 22

Please note: Some events may require an NKU ID card in order to attend free or at student rates. You may obtain an ID card by visiting the All Card office: https://allcard.nku.edu/

Learning/Writing Clinic
Every Monday/Wednesday @ 1-3pm // Grant County Center Group Study Room
Are you having trouble keeping up with the readings assigned in your class? Having trouble taking notes in class? Need to polish your test-taking skills? Struggling with a specific writing assignment in your class? Time management is an issue this semester? If any of these issues are an impediment to your being the best possible student you can be, you should drop by the NKU Grant County Center Learning/Writing Clinic in room 217 (Group Study Room). The NKU GCC Learning/Writing Clinic provides one-on-one guided college professor, Matt Birkenhauer, with a long background in helping students who may be struggling in a specific area. If you are coming in to consult about an assignment, bring with you a syllabus or other descriptor of the assignment. If you need help with anything else—keeping up with the readings, managing your time, studying, etc.—just bring yourself. Individual consultant appointments are also available by request. Hosted by Prof. Matt Birkenhauer; questions? Contact birkenhauerm@nku.edu.

Let us know you’re coming! To RSVP, email your name and high school to nkusbs@nku.edu.

Call Us Ishmael: A film on the Cultural Legacy of Moby-Dick
Apr. 12 @ 6:15pm // GH Digitorium
Apr. 13 @ 10am // GH Digitorium
Call Us Ishmael is an intimate look at the world’s obsession with Herman Melville’s Moby-Dick; the “Great America Novel.” In this film, historians, artists and philosophers, and fanatics explore the novel’s artistic and cultural legacy and the impact it has had throughout America’s history. NKU will host two preview screenings followed by panel discussions with filmmaker David Shaerf, artist Matt Kish, NKU faculty and student artist alums. Co-sponsored by English, Honors, Visual Arts, and Electronic Media & Broadcasting; questions? Contact wallacer@nku.edu.

Let us know you’re coming! To RSVP, email your name and high school to nkusbs@nku.edu.

Diane Guerrero—in the Country We Love: My Family Divided
Apr. 12 @ 7pm // SU Ballroom
The Activities Programming Board is lucky enough to partner with some incredible campus departments and organizations—NKU Student Government Association, Alpha Psi Lambda and NKU Study Abroad—to bring Diane Guerrero to our campus. Diane is best known for her acting career and her current roles in “Orange is the New Black,” “Jane the Virgin” and “Superior Donuts.” Diane will discuss her struggles growing up in the United States after her parents were deported while she was at school when she was 14 years old. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn and discuss the ongoing issues with more than 11 million undocumented immigrants in the United States and how the system is failing them. Attendees must have a ticket. The cost is $5 for a community member. Please stop by Leah Koch’s office (Student Union 111), to pick up your ticket today or email KochL3@nku.edu to reserve your ticket.

Hosted by APB; questions? Contact kochL3@nku.edu.

Let us know you’re coming! To RSVP, email your name and high school to nkusbs@nku.edu.

Loch Norse High School Welcome Night
Apr. 20 @ 6-9pm // Fort Thomas Antique and Design Center
High school students: you and your parents are invited! At this Open Mic Night, high school students and parents can come gather info and ask questions about the Creative Writing Program at NKU. Join Loch Norse Magazine for a night of literary excitement! Read your short creative works in front of an engaged crowd or simply sit back and enjoy the work of your peers. Open Mic Nights are held monthly on a Friday night with refreshments at 6:30, a featured reading by a special guest at 7pm (Andy Miller), and an open mic at 7:30. Everyone in attendance is welcome to read poetry, fiction, and creative non-fiction. Sign-ups occur on a first-come, first-serve basis. Please limit readings to 3 poems or 3 double-spaced pages of prose. Please note that sometimes there is R-rated language/content at the event. Food and drink will be available to purchase from the venue.
Hosted by Loch Norse Magazine; questions? Contact alberti@nku.edu.
