IMPORTANT DATES

Sept. 4
Labor Day -
University Closed

Sept. 12
Last day to drop a class with 50% refund without a grade on transcript (full semester courses)

Sept. 18
Last day to drop a class with a grade of W (7wk1)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

• Be sure to check out NKU's updated academic calendar for important deadlines.

• If you have not yet completed the SBS orientation in Canvas, please do so ASAP.

SPOTLIGHT:
LATINO STUDENT INITIATIVES

National Hispanic Heritage Month begins Sept. 15. Latino Student Initiatives celebrates National Hispanic Heritage Month each fall with several activities on campus.

National Hispanic Heritage Month is a period to recognize the contributions of Hispanic and Latino Americans to the United States and celebrate the group's heritage and culture.

In its origins, the month started out as just a week, first proclaimed by President Lyndon Johnson in 1968. In 1988, it was then expanded by legislation sponsored by Representative Esteban E. Torres and implemented by President Ronald Reagan to cover a 30-day period.

Learn more: https://inside.nku.edu/latino.html
Please note: Some events may require an NKU ID card in order to attend free or at student rates. You may obtain an ID card by visiting the All Card office.

Tuesday, Sept 12 at 5:30, Eva Farris Reading Room, Steely Library 2nd Floor
Olivia A. Cole is the author of seven novels, most recently Dear Medusa. Olivia’s essays have been published by Bitch Media, Real Simple, The L.A. Times, HuffPost, Teen Vogue, Gay Mag, and others. Ariel Crashes a Train, Olivia’s second novel-in-verse, will be released in Spring 2024. http://www.oliviaacole.com/

Cadence
Aug. 24 – Oct. 20 / FA Main Gallery
This multimedia exhibition explores the interplay between light and space through site-specific installations. Cadence prompts the viewer to reflect on their surroundings as they engage in an immersive sensory experience. The NKU Art Galleries are located on the third floor of the NKU Fine Arts Center. Admission is free.

Portugal Again
Aug. 24 – Oct. 20 / FA Third Floor Gallery
Broaddus investigates both content and time specific imagery through what he calls portals. These portals are large scale photographic collages that work to illustrate the findings of one’s own identity as a gay black male, while continually being fed harmful images of the self.

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time
Sept. 28 – Oct. 8, 2023 / Griffin Hall Digirotium
The story follows 15-year-old Christopher, a boy with an extraordinary brain that is exceptional at mathematics but ill-equipped to interpret everyday life. When he discovers his neighbor’s dead dog, Wellington, he finds himself under suspicion and sets out to solve the mystery, leading him on a thrilling journey that upturns his world.

nk.edu/tickets

Campus Tours
Various Days & Times
Are you interested in learning more about NKU? The NKU Office of Admissions is hosting a wide variety of visits this fall, both in-person and virtual, to meet the needs of prospective students and to showcase our campus community. We've carefully curated visits to include all the information you need to discover your future at NKU, whether you want a campus tour, general overview of NKU, or a visit specifically focused on your intended major. Descriptions and registration pages can be found at www.nku.edu/visit.
We know your grades are important to you. You are likely evaluating your progress in your course(s) already. If you think you could use a little extra help, Learning PLUS is the place for you! Learning PLUS offers a number of resources to help you succeed, including one-on-one and group tutoring, a writing center to help advise and guide you on your writing assignments, and success coaches to help with college and life skills. Not on campus? Many of these services are offered online, too! To learn more, click the button below.

Learn more: https://inside.nku.edu/plus/tutoring.html