Cadence
Aug. 24 – Oct. 20 / FA Main Gallery
This multimedia exhibition explores the interplay between light and space through site-specific installations. Cadence prompts the viewer to reflect on their surroundings as they engage in an immersive sensory experience. The NKU Art Galleries are located on the third floor of the NKU Fine Arts Center. Admission is free.

Portugal Again
Aug. 24 – Oct. 20 / FA Third Floor Gallery
Broaddus investigates both content and time specific imagery through what he calls portals. These portals are large scale photographic collages that work to illustrate the findings of one’s own identity as a gay black male, while continually being fed harmful images of the self.

SPOTLIGHT:
OFFICE OF STUDENT ACCESSIBILITY

In college, it’s important to be proactive and to be a self-advocate. If you know or suspect you have a disability that is impacting your academic performance, contact the Office of Student Accessibility (OSA). If you have a 504 for your high school classes and would like accommodations for your college courses, you also need to register with the OSA. The OSA provides access to academic and co-curricular programs through reasonable accommodations and student-centered assistance.
