SPOTLIGHT ON:
W. FRANK STEELY LIBRARY

The W. Frank Steely Library is your resource for research and information. Whether you need a book, journal, or other media, or you’re looking for a great place to study, Steely Library is the place to go. Not on campus? Explore their e-books and digital databases. Need a resource they don’t have on hand? Use the Interlibrary Loan. Need research assistance? Try a Research Guide or chat with a librarian. All you need to check things out is an ALLCard (directions for acquiring an All Card below). Start exploring the Steely Library.

SPOTLIGHT ON:
LATINO PROGRAMS & SERVICES

National Hispanic Heritage Month begins Sept. 15 and the Office of Latino Programs & Services is planning a month-long celebration! Established in spring 2001, Latino Programs & Services is one of the few offices in this area dedicated to serve the growing Latino student population. They take great pride in providing wonderful academic, social, and cultural activities. They also sponsor and support programs that provide students service learning opportunities in the local community and other countries. Visit their website to learn more and check out one of their events for Heritage month!
