SPOTLIGHT:

African American Student Initiatives

This month we spotlight African American Student Initiatives who are honoring and celebrating Black History month. The goal of AASI is to facilitate a support system which advocates academic excellence, celebrates African/African American culture, and engages students with faculty, staff, alumni, and the NKU community.
Please note: Some events may require an NKU ID card in order to attend free or at student rates. You may obtain an ID card by visiting the All Card office.

The School of the Arts combines Art & Design, Music, and Theatre & Dance to bring unparalleled artistic opportunities to current and future students, as well as high quality programming for the community. SOTA has a large assortment of productions throughout the year.

Campus Tours
Various Days & Times
Are you interested in learning more about NKU? The NKU Office of Admissions is hosting a wide variety of visits this fall, both in-person and virtual, to meet the needs of prospective students and to showcase our campus community. We’ve carefully curated visits to include all the information you need to discover your future at NKU, whether you want a campus tour, general overview of NKU, or a visit specifically focused on your intended major. Descriptions and registration pages can be found at www.nku.edu/visit.

SPOTLIGHT:
Norse Violence Prevention Center

February is also teen dating violence awareness month, so we take this opportunity to spotlight the Norse Violence Prevention Center. NVP is dedicated to preventing and addressing power-based personal violence including sexual assault, partner violence and stalking on campus. NVP believes in fostering a culture that prioritizes consent and respect, and responds to and supports survivors and their allies. As part of these efforts, they work to engage students, faculty, staff, and community partners to create a healthy and inspiring environment where violence of any kind will not be tolerated.
