

World Languages Career Exploration Track

Track Description:

The World Languages Track in the School-Based Scholars Program provides students with an outline of foreign language courses they can take online (when available), at their high school (where available) and/or on NKU's campus. Coursework will prepare you for entry into a major or minor in World Languages.

French Course Plan:

| Semester | Course |
|--------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1 st Semester | FRE 101: Elementary French I |
| 2 nd Semester | FRE 102: Elementary French II |
| 3 rd Semester | FRE 201: Intermediate French I |
| 4 th Semester | FRE 202: Intermediate French II |

French Course Descriptions:

FRE 101 Elementary French I

Fundamentals; introduction to French and Francophone cultures; development of skills in conversation, pronunciation, grammar, reading, and writing. General education credit: Culture and Creativity

FRE 102 Elementary French II

Continuation of FRE 101.

FRE 201 Intermediate French I

Review and extension of basic language skills learned in FRE 101 and FRE 102; reading and discussion of cultural, linguistic, and literary subjects.

FRE 202 Intermediate French II

Continuation of grammar review and enhancement of language skills begun in FRE 201; consideration of cultural and literary subjects.

Japanese Course Plan:

| Semester | Course |
|--------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1 st Semester | JPN 101: Elementary Japanese I |
| 2 nd Semester | JPN 102: Elementary Japanese II |
| 3 rd Semester | JPN 201: Intermediate Japanese I |
| 4 th Semester | JPN 202: Intermediate Japanese II |

Japanese Course Descriptions:

JPN 101: Elementary Japanese I

Fundamentals; introduction to Japanese culture; basic skills in pronunciation, conversation, vocabulary, grammar, kana syllabary writing system. General Education Credit: Culture and Creativity

JPN 102: Elementary Japanese II

Continuation of JPN 101. Further command of grammar and expansion of vocabulary in conversational Japanese; introduction of additional Chinese characters for reading comprehension and writing.

JPN 201: Intermediate Japanese I

Review of pronunciation, vocabulary, grammar and syllabary writing system introduced in JPN 101-JPN 102; introduction of advanced structural patterns and cultural influences of the language.

JPN 202: Intermediate Japanese II

Continuation of JPN 201; additional practice in language structural patterns and cultural influences.

Spanish Course Plan:

| Semester | Cours |
|--------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1 st Semester | SPI 101: Elementary Spanish I |
| 2 nd Semester | SPI 102: Elementary Spanish II |
| 3 rd Semester | SPI 201: Intermediate Spanish I |
| 4 th Semester | SPI 202: Intermediate Spanish II |

Spanish Course Descriptions:

SPI 101: Elementary Spanish I

Fundamentals; introduction to Hispanic cultures; development of skills in conversation, pronunciation, grammar, reading, and writing. General Education Credit: Culture and Creativity

SPI 102: Elementary Spanish II

Continuation of SPI 101.

SPI 201: Intermediate Spanish I

Review and extension of basic language skills learned in SPI 101 and SPI 102; reading and discussion of cultural, linguistic, and literary subjects.

SPI 202: Intermediate Spanish II

Continuation of grammar review and enhancement of language skills begun in SPI 201; cultural and literary subjects.

Links:

World Languages Programs Website

World Languages Placement Testing