

SCHOOL-BASED SCHOLARS PROGRAM

School-Based Scholars (SBS) is Northern Kentucky University's dual-enrollment program that offers eligible high school students the opportunity to take college classes for dual credit at a reduced tuition rate. We serve public school, private school and homeschool students from the northern Kentucky region and beyond. Our students can take classes at their high school (if offered), online and/or at our Highland Heights campus.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

School-Based Scholars is open to high school sophomores, juniors and seniors who have an unweighted high school GPA of 3.0 or higher. Students must also meet any course prerequisites.

Note: Sophomores may only enroll in the courses offered at their high school (where applicable). Some exceptions may apply.

APPLY TO THE SCHOOL-BASED SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Students who meet the above requirements will need to submit the following materials:

- Online application
- Disclosure form
- High school transcript

Visit nku.edu/schoolbasedscholars and click on “Apply to the SBS program” for submission guidelines, deadlines, the online application and disclosure form.

Note: Submission of application does not guarantee admission. The SBS office will work with qualifying students on course registration after admission to the program.

COST AND FEES

Dual credit is offered at a discounted tuition rate. Please visit nku.edu/schoolbasedscholars for the most current tuition rates. Students are responsible for paying their tuition and the cost of course materials.

- Scholarships may be available through KHEAA. Visit kheaa.com/web/scholarships-grants.faces for details.
- Discounted semester parking passes are available for dual-credit students taking courses on NKU’s campus. Contact Parking Services for rates and details at nku.edu/parking.
