Guest – Ashish Vaidya, President

President discussed the FY23 budget, tuition revenue and increase, enrollment, the Science Center expansion, the Charter School legislation, interim General Counsel, and the 5 BY 5 Compensation plan.

Guest - Carmen Hickerson, Assistant Vice President for Economic Engagement and Government Relations and Samantha Langley Vice Provost for Graduate Education, Research and Outreach

Carmen Hickerson and Samantha Langley shared a presentation on ENTERprise NKU. The strategic opportunity of ENTERprise NKU is to create a single entry-point for external partners seeking to connect with NKU; grow and deepen NKU’s community and corporate partnerships; leverage NKU’s assets, agility and partnerships to create value for external partners and the community; and better serve: Post-graduate learners, lifelong learners, career builders/switchers, employers needing upskilling and training, and current students wanting to connect with business and industry.

Why Now? Integral component of Success by Design; external partner expectations for innovation, responsiveness and value; need to diversify student mix and revenue sources; increased market interest in upskilling and lifelong learning; greater alignment with regional workforce needs; and competitive environment.

What our External Partners are Telling Us: We prefer having a single point of contact to facilitate our NKU relationship; NKU needs to streamline its processes and communications with us; NKU needs to be nimbler and more innovative in responding to opportunities for partnerships; in order to serve our needs, NKU needs to better understand our strategies and goals; and we expect to see quantifiable metrics on the ROI of an NKU partnership.

How Do We Respond? Creation of ENTERprise NKU: A new unit focused on leading innovative solutions for the challenges faced by our external partners – accessing, training, upskilling and retaining – a talented workforce; the new unit will have responsibility for cultivating and sustaining corporate and community partnerships; and the new unit will work cooperatively campus-wide across colleges and centers to facilitate timely and coordinated responsiveness to community and corporate partners.

Outcome: Elevate NKU brand; attract new revenue; deepen regional engagement; attract new audiences to NKU; create additional high-value learning experiences and career pathways for NKU students and graduates; and improve external partner satisfaction through coordinated communications and management.

Mission Statement: ENTERprise NKU serves as the “front door” to the university, responsible for creating high-value partnerships between the campus and external partners. By enhancing the NKU/community connection, we in turn strengthen the region’s workforce and economic prosperity through innovative and lifelong learning opportunities through professional development, personal enrichment, and economic development.

Structure:
- Co-led by Academic Affairs & Advancement
- Co-managed by Vice Provost, GERO and AVP, EE & GR

Board of Regents – Staff Regent Cori Henderson

Cori Henderson shared the following:
Thank to everyone, it was so good seeing you all at the staff appreciation breakfast and then also looking forward to today's town hall. If you have any questions for me whether it's in regards to compensation plan you can always reach out to me, let me know. We've already reached out to Kimberly to meet with the advocacy committee so I'm looking forward to having those conversations with everyone but, again, if you if there's anything that you guys need please feel free to reach out.

Administrative Liaison – Lori Southwood

Josie/Compensation Area
Human Resources is developing a multi-year staff compensation plan called the 5 by 5 Compensation Plan. The plan makes recommendations on five compensation actions for each of the next five years. The five actions include:
• Review and adjust the staff compensation structure based on external market factors,
• Pay adjustments to address internal staff salary compression,
• Recurring merit increases for staff and faculty,
• One-time recognition and retention bonuses for individual staff and faculty,
• One-time recognition and retention bonuses for staff and faculty teams or work units.
The first action, to review and evaluate NKU’s staff compensation structure compared to the market, was completed in fall of 2021 when we moved the salary range structure 15%. The second compensation action is to address internal salary compression by reviewing staff pay for possible pay adjustments based on the new compensation structure. For year one, starting in July, we are recommending that we prioritize NKU experience in making pay adjustments.

HR is hosting two Town Halls this month, via Zoom, to present the 5 by 5 Compensation plan to the campus.

1. Spring Well-being Series
   - The last 2 years have left many of us feeling exhausted and burned out. How can we build ourselves up again? In this 3-part well-being series, learn how to better invest in your own well-being and learn practices you can utilize anywhere and share with others – including students - the importance of practicing self-compassion in building resilience, and identify, prevent, and overcome burnout.

   Part 1: Burnout Tips and Tricks, Tuesday, April 18, 12-1pm
   - Has burnout got you feeling a bit crispy? You are not alone. The symptoms of burnout can be sneaky and figuring out what to do can be a challenge. In this session, we will discuss the symptoms of burnout and several tips and tricks to help you get back to feeling like yourself again. Presented by Dr. Susannah Coaston, Ed. D., LPCC-S (OH), Associate Professor of Counseling.

   Part II: Practicing Self-Compassion, April 20, 12-1pm
   - Self-compassion is a key practice for self-care and building resilience. In this session, we will discuss the importance, role, and caveats of self-compassion for improving and sustaining well-being, even in the toughest of circumstances. Presented by Dr. Christopher Lawrence, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Counseling

- NKU’s mobile app has a new tile for quick contact with NKU’s campus police. The tile features geolocation, text chat, and it provides police with the all-card photo and name of the person contacting them.

Marquita/Training & Development
- To better accommodate scheduling / calendar challenges, the deadline for completing the 2022 Annual Compliance Refresher Training has been extended to April 22. The latest report (as of Friday, April 8) has been issued to the VP of each division for dissemination, as will be done each week. It is important that all employees (faculty and staff) complete this annual training via Vector Solutions. Any questions, please contact Marquita Barron - barronm1@nku.edu.

- Reminder to complete the 2021 – 2022 annual performance evaluation process by May 27, 2022. This is the time for the supervisor and their direct report to connect on past performance and future goals and professional development opportunities. The Word and PDF versions of the evaluation form can be found on the HR Training and Development webpage – Staff Performance Evaluation Process. Any questions, please contact Marquita Barron - barronm1@nku.edu.

- ADP tax filing implementation is progressing
Faculty Senate Liaison – Janel Bloch

Dr. Janel Bloch shared the following report:
The main update I have is I mentioned in the last meeting about the Faculty Budget survey and that has now been completed, so if anyone is interested in seeing that it is posted on the Faculty Senate website. On the front page it looks like it’s a really long report but there’s a short executive summary and the bulk of it is just all the comments from the survey, which are interesting. They’re classified into categories so they should be pretty quick and interesting to read if you’re interested. And not surprisingly, the top recommendations had to do, much like with staff, with the lack of raises and the need to address so our compression and workload equity.

President – Sara Conwell

Sara Conwell shared the following report:
1. SC Goal Updates
   a. Spring philanthropy/community service project
      i. Community Garden Clean-up
         1. 4/22 at 2pm, Highland Heights garden (behind Callahan)

ITAC

Dan Jones shared the following report:
Steve sent out the PowerPoint for the last ITAC meeting, and so I believe everybody got the report, but I'm just going to highlight a couple of the points. They are updating the Norse alert system and they're going to complete the testing maybe end of April or early May. And the Norse Tech Bar has been around since 2013 providing walk-up hardware and software technical support. Something interesting is that they now have long-term equipment loan programs for laptops, tablets, and mobile hotspots for faculty/staff and students. Please see the attached report for more information.

Regents Distinguished Award

Allison Haning shared the following report:
The three Regents Distinguished Award winners were announced at the Staff Appreciation breakfast on March 22. Kari Wight Perkins from the College of Business, Chris Tambling from the Student Union and Programming, and Krista Rayford from COI. We had 19 nominees so that's really good. Thanks to everyone that served in the committee. And it was great after the little hiatus with Covid that we were able to celebrate staff this year.

Sustainability

Tiffany Budd shared the following:
- The 8 electric vehicle charging stations in Kenton Garage are fully installed and ready to use. A reminder that these specific stations are also available for public use, so please spread the word. Lot K stations are currently being installed. There will be 4 stations with 8 ports.

Goodbye Toxins, Hello Nature: Learn about essential oils and how to reduce toxins in your home
12-1 pm, SU 105, Registration required.
Have you ever worried about toxins in the environment and in your home? Did you know that there are over 80,000 chemicals on the market? We are exposed to toxins daily, in the air we breathe, and even in the food we eat. The human body is equipped to deal with toxins, but when it becomes overloaded the body becomes less efficient at managing them, and our toxic load increases. This can lead to long-term, and sometimes difficult to diagnose, health issues. Unfortunately, many of the products marketed to keep your home smelling fresh actually spread synthetic chemicals into the air you breathe. The good news is you have control over the products you use in your home. Say hello to essential oils and goodbye to scented candles, aerosols, and plug-in air fresheners.
This class includes a make-n-take session.

April 21st
Tree Sapling Giveaway
10 am – 2 pm, SU plaza (or inside SU if raining)
NKU Sustainability and NKU Horticulture are teaming up to offer free baby trees! Stop by our table at the SU plaza anytime between 10am – 2 pm to pick up your free tree.

Roundtable

Steve Slone shared the following report:
Just a friendly reminder for all the committee members to get Steve their write ups from the meeting of the different break out room conversations. Roundtable was wonderful. Thank you to all Staff Congress members who participated.

40th Anniversary of Staff Congress Planning Committee

Sara Conwell shared the following report:
Committee is working on determining a date for the celebration. We are able to collaborate with special events and commencement on repurposing their decorations from graduation. So if you have any decorations or anything that you think that you would like for us to use as part of the celebration, please let us know. Also, if your department has a lot of NKU swag that you don't need anymore, or that you would just love to donate and contribute to our cause for door prizes, please let me know. I'm happy to send Steve on a golf cart go pick them up. It is our hope that we are able to bring all these individuals onto campus to celebrate the 40th and to have some door prizes that we can raffle off or anything like that, so if you have things, please send them my way or, please let me know.

Old Business

Sara Conwell shared an update on the Administrative Evaluation Surveys. They are working on the final tweaks and they are ready to run. Huge, huge, huge, shout out to Robert Schalk and IT. He has been phenomenal! And huge shout out to Gracie for making those initial conversations and getting that up and running and being. This should be able to run starting on Monday from April 18 to May 2. Council of chairs got a sneak peek at it last week. Heard good things so looking forward to seeing how it goes this year. If you have any questions, please let me know

Norse Appreciation

Steve Slone shared the following Norse Appreciation submissions. He encouraged and “challenged” everyone use Norse Appreciation to acknowledge staff who deserve some recognition. The month of February had 4 Staff and 1 Faculty.

February Norse Appreciation:

Staff
Beth Mills
Darryl Peal and Inclusive Excellence
Emily Dobbs and BioSci Lab Prep Staff
Wesley Brown

Faculty
Jennifer Smith

Announcements

Sara Conwell shared the following:

- Congratulations to the Academic Affairs Staff Award Winners! Beth Sweeney, College of Arts and Sciences; Beth Lackey, Haile College of Business; and Jeannine Lambert, Chase College of Law.
- Sara Sidebottom provided a scholarship donation to Staff Congress in the amount of $15,000. Such a wonderful surprise! Sara was involved with Staff Congress as well as legal counsel for NKU. She passed away a couple of years ago now so this was an unexpected, wonderful gift.
