2. Some archival paper records, photographs, and books are in poor or fragile condition. The Archives reserves the right to refuse to copy such items if staff determines that copying will damage the material.
3. The Archives reserves the right to refuse to copy material which in our judgment would violate copyright law.
4. Every effort will be made to complete photocopying requests before a researcher departs, but in case of large volume requests, the Archives reserves the right to complete requests by the end of three business days. Other reproduction requests may require additional time.
5. Please refer to the most current Fee Schedule for reproduction costs. The requestor agrees to pay the full cost of copies ordered, including labor charges, postage, and handling prior to reproduction. Cash or check (made out to Steely Library) payment accepted.
