Minutes compiled by: Secretary of Administration Taylor Gagne
• New custom map that shows what is happening around the Northern Kentucky area for students and families who are coming from far away.
• Keeping the map updated is difficult, but the new interactive map helps makes this easier.
• We are working on getting the interactive map added to the NKU phone app
• Apparel is growing in the stores around the area
• All-Card redesign is coming
• Working on Norse-ifying Highland Heights
• We need help promoting #NKUGoldDay
• The new All-Card needs to be finished by January
• 50th anniversary planning is still occurring
• We are working on an increased social media access

B. Brandon Hayes, Assistant AD for Marketing, Promotions & Ticketing and Bryan McEldowney, Assistant AD for Communications and Media Services

• Athletic Director Ken Bothof shared that NKU Women’s Soccer won their first Horizon League title and have made the NCAA tournament
• AD Bothof states that athletics wants to learn how to better communicate with students and get better feedback
• The marketing team in athletics is working on getting through all the comments to form a third option to vote
• Hesitant to add Hey U and a new Victor because of the cost
• It takes about three months to build a new mascot
• Children, families and people who saw him in person typically liked the newer Victor.
• The new Victor and newest Victor probably won’t both be kept due to staffing concerns
• Life expectancy of a suit is 3-5 years and the cost is between $5,000-$15,000 for a new suit
• Possibility of a committee of students to give feedback continuously to athletics moving forward so they don’t have a repeat of the new mascot
