

CREDIT FOR PRIOR LEARNING EXAMINATION

EGT 212 – COMPUTER-AIDED DRAFTING AND DESIGN

Course Description

EGT 212 - Computer-Aided Drafting and Design (3 credits)

Fundamentals of computer-aided drafting; production of technical drawings using CAD software; working drawings; standard machine elements; tolerance dimensioning.

Study Resources

Plantenberg, Kirstie.
Engineering Graphics
Essentials with AutoCAD 2026
Instruction,

Exam Details

Exam consists of two parts. First part knowledge, second part using AutoCAD.

You will be asked to extract your knowledge of engineering drafting principles, standards and your knowledge of using AutoCAD to draw orthographic, sectional, auxiliary, isometric drawings. You will be also asked about dimensioning, tolerancing, geometrical tolerancing, thread notes and assembly drawings.

Testing Services
University Center 101
(859) 572 - 6373
testing@nku.edu